LETHA

George Ewing has a bad hand. He hurt it and the wound became infected. Boise Riggs and wife took in the Community sale Wednesday and also visited at his brother's home.

Mr. Heffner did quite a little business in Letha sales day, as he had his meat wagon on the job.

School will begin Monday, Nov. 25, as the State Board of Health have released their order for quarantine.

A late report says that Mrs. Ralph Vanderdassen is much improved and the chances are good for her recovery. The drainage district have sold their bonds this week, which will be good news to those in the project.

Mr. Hinchliff of New Plymouth came up Monday and removed the boiler from the cheese factory to New Plymouth.

The Gem State Lumber Co. have a car of lumber in this week.

There will be church and Sunday school at the Baptist church at the usual hour Sunday.

The United War Fund drive netted $343.77. The quota was at first $275, but afterward it was suggested that we ought to over-subscribe 50 per cent. We almost made $375.

Craig Bros. shipped two carloads of wheat from Letha this week.

It is said that the Tom Clark family are afflicted with smallpox, all but a couple of them being down.

Ethel Fishback and Mrs. Sadie Jones arrived from Irrigon, Ore., the former to remain at home and the latter for a visit with the home folks.

Two cars of cattle and hogs were loaded at Letha, Friday. Grover of New Plymouth loaded one and perhaps both; we did not learn positively.

HAW CREEK.

By Mrs. E. Tennyson.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Yergenson took dinner last Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Yergenson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bullard came over from Boise Saturday to visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Frank Sanders. They also attended the funeral of John Martin, whose sudden death was a shock to this community.

M. L. Hanthorn went to Weiser Monday.

Mrs. Matt Bilbrey has received word that her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Fowler of Burley was quite sick with Spanish influenza.

Mrs. G. Bartholow visited Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. E. Tennyson.

BRAMWELL

By E. F. Wells.

Mert Jackson made another trip to Jordan valley this week with apples. School will start again Monday, and we believe the kiddies, as well as the teacher, will be glad to resume their work again after five weeks of enforced vacation.

A. N. Storey butchered a beef Tuesday.

William Wayne is the name of the young son which came to gladden the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Purl Storey last Thursday morning. The young man has a better start in life than most of us, as his weight was 12 pounds at birth.

The Tom Clark family seem to be having more than their share of sickness. After all having a round with the influenza they are now all sick with the smallpox. They say they do not know where they contracted the disease. Dr. Cummings is attending them and reports them as getting along nicely.

SOUTH SLOPE

By Mrs. C. W. Cook
