Logging Camps Closed
Centerville and Cascade logging camps of the Boise Payette Lumber company have suspended work for the present and shipments of logs have been stopped because of the severe freezing of the log ponds at both the Emmett and Barber mills. While the shipping departments of both plants are kept open, the shipping situation is not much improved and dressed lumber movements are slow at present. At this time in other years the plants are usually busy filling retail yards with stocks, but these are already supplied with lumber owing no doubt to the building restrictions which have but recently been lifted.

Southern Idaho Changes Time
Southern Idaho went on Pacific time New Year's morning, switching from mountain time. Clocks were turned back one hour. All time tables on the Oregon Short Line railroad governing trains operating west of Pocatello have been placed on a new schedule. Pretty Chinese Legend.
Canton is one of the oldest cities in China. According to Chinese tradition, it was in existence more than three thousand years ago, when it was visited by five deified beings, each mounted on a huge ram and carrying an ear of corn, who pronounced their blessing on the spot and prayed that no famine should ever visit it. Because of this the city is sometimes referred to in Chinese classics as the "City of Rams" or the "City of Genii or Angels."

Labor-Saving Penholder.
To conserve his time a man whose monthly duty it is to sign 100,000 salary checks for a railway company employs a multiple penholder that permits his signature to be written five times in one operation. The apparatus, says Popular Mechanics Magazine, differs from some others in that the fountain pens are clamped to a pivoted rack that is mounted in a portable box resembling a suitcase. The cover, when opened flat on the desk top, holds a frame in which the vouchers are placed for signing.

Feared She Might Be Suspected.
Midge came downstairs with perhaps one-half a bottle of big sister's perfume saturated in her clothing. She got up on a chair beside mother, and looking up into her face, she said, "Mother, if you smell anything, it isn't me."

Source of Republic's Strength.
Government in a well-constituted republic requires no belief from man beyond what his reason authorizes. He sees the rationale of the whole system, its origin and its operations, and, as it is best supported when best understood, the human faculties act with boldness and acquire, under this form of government, a gigantic manliness. —Thomas Paine.

TO THE PUBLIC:

Feeling that some explanation is due to the public concerning the unprecedented scarcity of Victrolas and Victor Records, we desire to make the following statement:

The above condition is due, as all such conditions must primarily be due, to the unquestioned popularity of Victor products. It is also due to the fact that so long as the United States was at war we believed our paramount duty lay in assisting the Government in the prosecution of the war to the fullest extent of our abilities; our facilities had been freely offered and accepted.

Immediately upon the signing of the armistice and our release from the Government obligations, we took all necessary steps to insure the earliest possible return to an increased output of Victor products, but in the interim we would bespeak for Victor dealers and for ourselves some measure of consideration which we believe will be accorded by every American.
