LEE'S CITY GROCERY

YOUR support, your co-operation, your patronage, your indulgence during the days of pressure attending the pre-holiday rush, have enabled us to make this a Merry Christmas for many as well as for ourselves. And with a deep sense of recognition that to you is due the credit and the courtesy we are pleased to take this means of rendering our thanks and conveying to you the compliments of the season—the spirit of the day—

I
"O this is fine," said Santa Claus,
"I'll just descend without a pause,
For here, instead of roasting me
The heat goes where it ought to be.
II
"But when I'm roasted some poor soul
Is roasted on his own good coal
By heating systems, I declare
That freeze a house and heat the air.
III
"When people strive to heat the sky,
To coal and cash they say good-bye.
Remember that I told you so—
Consult the furnace man below."
