"Beating the Bounds," in Virginia, at Least, Drew Together Neighbors From Far and Near.

"Beating the bounds" was a specially important duty in the colonies, where land surveys were imperfect, and grants irregular, and the boundaries of each man's farm or plantation at first very uncertain.

Party Sailed From New York on Tuesday and Expects to Reach Brest in About Seven Days.

Washington.—President Wilson on Tuesday, December 3, began his trip to Europe to attend the peace conference.

The president left Washington on a special train for New York, where he and his party boarded the transport George Washington, on which the voyage across the Atlantic is being made.

While in Europe, Mr. Wilson plans to visit England and Italy as well as France, and he may go to Brussels.

Joseph P. Tumulty, the president's secretary, accompanied Mr. Wilson to New York, but did not go aboard.

Only three of the five American representatives to the peace conference as announced at the White House will cross with the president.

EXPERT ADVICE AT CONFERENCE

Evidence of Preparedness of American Government to Enter Negotiations.

New York.—Striking evidence of the preparedness of the American government to enter into peace negotiations was given in an announcement that twenty-three members of an advisory commission of experts who have made a year's study of political and economic conditions in Europe and Asia sailed with President Wilson and his fellow delegates on the George Washington.

With them go several tons of documents and maps, which, together with other records of their investigations already in Paris or on their way, comprise a collection of international data said to be without parallel in history.

Wilson Names Delegates to Represent the United States at Paris.

GEN. BLISS ONE OF THEM

Distinguished Soldier Chosen as Military Expert—Former Ambassador White is Republican Member of the American Commission.

Washington.—President Wilson announced Friday night the names of the delegates he has appointed to represent the United States at the peace conference. They are: WOODROW WILSON, president of the United States.

EDWARD M. HOUSE, the president's chief confidant, now representing him at Versailles.

HENRY WHITE, former ambassador to Italy and to France.

GEN. TASKER H. BLISS, American military adviser of the supreme war council.

White House Statement. The names were disclosed in the following announcement from the White House:

"It was announced at the executive office that the representatives of the United States at the peace conference would be the president himself, the secretary of state, Henry White, recently ambassador to France; Edward M. House and Gen. Tasker H. Bliss."

Bliss' Name a Surprise. The only surprise in the announcement was the selection of Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, former chief of staff of the army and now the representative of the American war department in the supreme war council of the allies.

For several days it had been generally understood that the Republican member of the delegation would be Mr. White. That Secretary Lansing and Colonel House would be the other members had been unofficially admitted.

White Long in Service. Henry White, long in diplomatic service, was the American ambassador to France during President Roosevelt's administration. His diplomatic service began in 1883, when he served for two years as secretary to the American legation in Vienna.

Will Parley in Berlin. London.—Representatives of Great Britain, France and the United States will arrive in Berlin shortly to discuss the armistice, the Berlin correspondent of the Cologne-Gazette says he understands.

A meeting of the allied leaders in London will be a preliminary to the peace conference, the Daily Express says. Colonel House and Premier Orlando of Italy will be here with the British and French statesmen.

Paris.—A group of members of the chamber of deputies representing agricultural interests have sent a letter to Premier Clemenceau expressing objection to giving special representation to the socialists at the peace conference.

If that should be agreed to, however the deputies urge that the farming and peasant classes also be represented, since they had shed blood more freely than any other class.

Bavaria for Separate Peace. London.—Bavaria probably will ask to have separate plenipotentiaries at the peace negotiations and will claim conditions of a separate peace, says the Paris Matin in commenting on the action of Bavaria in breaking off relations with the government at Berlin.

The Socialist council of Munich has telegraphed to the executive committee of the Berlin Socialist council demanding the dismissal of Dr. W. S. Soll, foreign minister; Philipp Scheidemann, minister of colonies, and Mathias Erzberger, who, it has been announced, will conduct negotiations preliminary to signing a treaty of peace.

The telegram invites the Berlin council to overthrow a government which continues such persons in important posts.

Viscount Kato Jap Envoy. Washington.—Viscount Kato, former minister of foreign affairs, will head the Japanese delegation to the peace conference, according to unofficial advices reaching Washington from Japan.
