R. J. McMahon and W. J. Tapper will retire from the board and their places will be filled by John McFall and W. T. Patterson. The retiring members have given faithful and efficient service to the county during their tenure of office and deserve the thanks of their constituents. The new men are both among our most successful farmers and business men and come to the office with a prestige of success in managing large business affairs that is a guarantee of their ability to make good as County Commissioners.

Last Friday Elizabeth Gooding gave unique "doll party" to some fourteen young ladies of the town. The guests all dressed as little girls, brought their dollies with them, had a Christmas tree with two fine presents for each guest. Every one sucked a stick of striped candy, chewed gum and ate ice cream cones as in the days of yore. The editor will not venture to say how long ago.
