

"BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN"

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Ohio Woman.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and was so weak at times I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. I took it and it has restored my health. It is certainly the best medicine for women's ailments I ever saw."—Mrs. SARA SHAW, R. No. 1, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. Shaw proved the merit of this medicine and wrote this letter in order that other suffering women may find relief as she did.

Women who are suffering as she was should not drag along from day to day without giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its forty years experience is at your service.

Chas. Allen, concrete contractor, 1312 Blaine Ave., Caldwell, Idaho, says: "Several years ago I had quite a lot of trouble with my kidneys. I noticed the complaint first when the kidney secretions began passing too freely and were highly colored. Then my back got lame and ached dreadfully. EX-PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT LOSES FIGHT WITH THE GRIM REAPER

Great American Statesman Passes Peacefully Away While Asleep.

Death Due to An Attack of Rheumatism and Sciatica With Which Colonel Roosevelt Was Taken Ill on New Year's Day.

Oyster Bay, N. Y.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt died early Monday morning, January 6, at his home on Sagamore Hill in this village. Death was due to an attack of rheumatism and sciatica, with which Colonel Roosevelt was taken ill on New Year's day.

Colonel Roosevelt sat up most of Sunday and retired at 11 o'clock Sunday night. About 4 a. m., Mrs. Roosevelt, who was the only member of the family at Oyster Bay, went to her husband's room and found that he had died during the night.

Mrs. Roosevelt telephoned to Colonel Emlen Roosevelt, cousin of the former president, and he went to the Roosevelt home immediately. Telegrams were dispatched to the colonel's children, who were in other parts of the country. Two of the colonel's sons, Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and Captain Kermit Roosevelt, are in service abroad. Captain Archie Roosevelt and his wife left New York at once for Boston, where the captain's father-in-law is ill. Mrs. Ethel Derby and her two children were in Aitken, S. C.

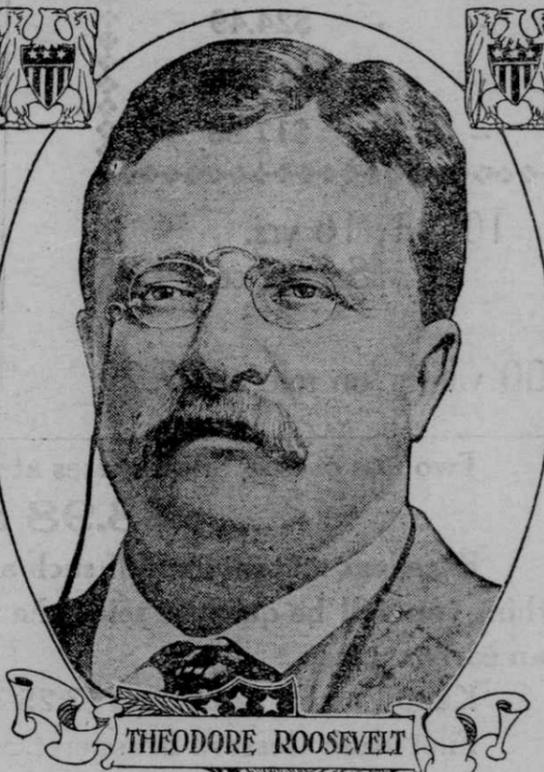

Theodore Roosevelt, twenty-sixth president of the United States, was missioners of the city of New York. After a strenuous two years in this office, he was appointed by President McKinley in 1897 assistant secretary of the navy. At the outbreak of the war with Spain, Colonel Roosevelt resigned from the navy department and raised the first volunteer regiment of cavalry, popularly known as the Rough Riders, because many of its members were western cowboys, and many former companions of Colonel Roosevelt's during the days he had resided in the west in his earlier youth.

Dr. Leonard Wood, now Major General Wood, became colonel of the Rough Riders, with Roosevelt second in command. On July 8, following the surrender of the Spaniards at Santiago, Wood was promoted to brigadier general and Roosevelt was made colonel.

On his return to New York he was nominated for governor of New York against the wishes of the "machine" Republicans and was elected with a plurality of 17,786. He desired to serve a second term, but Republican leaders of the state joined with western delegates in forcing upon him the vice presidency (June 21, 1900.) With McKinley as president, he assumed his duties March 4, 1901.

Roosevelt's remarkable terms as president began when he assumed the office after the assassination of McKinley at Buffalo. Until he retired from the presidency at the succession of William H. Taft, Roosevelt headed the administration during some of the most eventful times in American history. Roosevelt's policies, his fearless aggression in securing enactment of born in New York City on October 27, 1858. Although born in New York, Mr. Roosevelt spent much of his boyhood at Oyster Bay, the country home of his father, on Long Island Sound, where he began, with a distinct purpose, unusual among boys of his age, to build up a naturally frail physique by rowing and swimming in the waters of Long Island, and by riding over the hills and tramping through the woods of Long Island. This plan of outdoor life had been kept up by Colonel Roosevelt all his life.

Mr. Roosevelt was educated at Harvard university, where he graduated in the class of 1880. Returning to New York, he studied law, but later determined to enter politics, and in 1881 was elected to the New York legislature, being elected again in 1882 and 1883.

In 1884 he was delegate to the Republican convention in Chicago, which nominated James G. Blaine for president, at which convention he opposed the nomination of Mr. Blaine. In 1886 he was the Republican candidate for Mayor of New York, but was defeated. In April, 1889, on the accession to the presidency of Benjamin Harrison, Mr. Roosevelt was appointed a member of the United States civil service commission, serving six years in this office. In 1895 he resigned from the civil service commission and became president of the board of police commissions of the city of New York. laws which he deemed necessary for the proper government of the nation and his great personal magnetism, combined to make his administration one of the most popular in the history of the country.

For bringing about peace between Russia and Japan, offering the hospitality of the United States to the belligerents for concluding peace, Roosevelt was awarded the Nobel peace prize. He was one of the foremost champions of the cause of military preparedness and brought about many reforms, urging others which were startling and caused world-wide comment; combating the trusts and securing the enactment of anti-trust legislation. His administration of military affairs was marked by the development of officers whose leadership was felt in later crises—among them Pershing, Wood, Bliss and Funston.

The stormiest hours of Roosevelt's political career occurred at the Republican national convention at Chicago in 1912, when Roosevelt, heading a band of insurgents, withdrew from the convention which nominated William H. Taft for a second term, and formed the Progressive party, which was popularly known during the campaign as the "Bull Moose" party. The ticket was headed by Colonel Roosevelt and Hiram Johnson of California.

MANY TRIBUTES PAID ROOSEVELT

ONE OF THE GREATEST MEN OF THE PERIOD, DECLARES CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW.

A Personification of the Americanism, of Which He Was the Most Doughty Champion, Declared An Admirer of the Colonel.

New York.—Men of national prominence who paid tribute here on Monday to Colonel Roosevelt termed him "the greatest American of his day," "a personification of the Americanism of which he was the most doughty champion," "one of the greatest figures of our time," and "the last man to claim that he was always wise, but who always fought for what he believed right."

The former president, classed in a resolution of the board of aldermen as "the truly typical American of his age," was lamented by Alan R. Hawley, president of the Aero Club of America, as "depriving the aeronautic movement of one of its strongest supporters."

Former Senator Chauncey M. Depew, who nominated Roosevelt for the New York state assembly when he was only 21 and who persuaded Thomas C. Platt, the Republican state leader, to acquiesce in his nomination for the governorship of New York at the close of the Spanish-American war, a step that brought him to the presidency, said:

"Colonel Roosevelt was one of the greatest men of our period and one of its unique and most original personalities. It was my good fortune to know him from his boyhood. His seven years in the White House and his policies excited the widest and bitterest controversies. The tremendous prosperity of the country had led to the formation of great combinations, industrial and otherwise, and efforts of powerful men to form greater ones. Roosevelt saw that unless this movement was checked there would be a reaction to the other extreme in legislation, dangerous, if not destructive, to the vested interests of the country, and he successfully stopped the movement."

Charles Evans Hughes paid high tribute to Colonel Roosevelt, declaring "his greatest service was in the last years, when, as a private citizen, he had aroused the nation out of lethargy and indifference and supplied the driving force of a ceaseless and powerful demand which lay behind the efforts which made victory in the world war possible."

William H. Taft said: "I am deeply shocked by the death of Colonel Roosevelt. I saw him in the hospital six weeks ago, and he seemed to be very vigorous."

"I mourn his loss personally, and I greatly regret it for the sake of his country."

"The rare qualities that won for Colonel Roosevelt a multitude of devoted followers naturally arrayed against him a host of opponents," said William J. Bryan, "but his death puts an end to controversy and he will be mourned by foe as well as by friend."

"He was a great American and made a profound impression on the thought of his generation. His picturesque career will form a fascinating chapter in our nation's history."

Frank A. Vanderlip said it was the colonel's courage more than anything else that gave him "the marvelous following that he had." Theodore N. Vail declared the colonel's death would cause "universal sorrow," and was "a great loss to the country and to the people."

Former Ambassador James W. Gerard described Theodore Roosevelt as "the greatest American of his day," representing "the highest type of the real old-fashioned American," whose place would be hard to fill because "he understood and represented all sections of America."

CONGRESS HONORS ROOSEVELT.

Washington.—Both houses of congress adjourned Monday as a mark of respect, after adopting resolutions of regret at the death of Colonel Roosevelt and providing for the appointment of committees to attend the funeral.

In presenting the formal resolutions in the senate, Democratic Leader Martin eulogized Mr. Roosevelt as "a truly great American."

The supreme court adjourned immediately upon the announcement of Colonel Roosevelt's death by Attorney General Gregory.

Colds Coughs Catarrh

A trinity of evils, closely allied, that afflict most people, and which follow one on the other, in the order named, until the last one is spread through the system, leading to many evils. But their course can be checked.

PERUNA CONQUERS

It is of great value when used promptly for a cold, usually checking it and overcoming it in a few days.

Ample evidence has proved that it is even of more value in overcoming chronic catarrh, dispelling the inflammatory conditions, enabling the diseased membranes to perform their natural functions, and toning up the entire system.

The experience of thousands is a safe guide to what it may be expected to do for you.

After the "Flu" —Fever or Cold

Clean the Acidity and Toxic Poisons Out of the Digestive Tract

Millions are now suffering from the after effects of the deadly "flu," a fever or a cold. Their appetites are poor; they are weak, and they are waiting for their strength to come back.

If these people could only realize that the return to health and strength would be greatly helped by giving attention to the stomach—that is, removing the acidity and toxic poisons from the entire digestive tract, making it act naturally, so that the body will receive the full strength of the food eaten—a great deal of suffering would be saved to humanity.

Everyone knows that the disease itself, and the strong medicines that have been taken, upset the stomach, leave it hot and feverish, the mouth dry, the tongue coated, a nasty taste, and no desire to eat. This is a poor foundation to build new strength on.

Now, tens of thousands of people all over this country are using EATONIC for the purpose of cleaning these poisonous after-effects right out of the system and they are obtaining wonderful results—so wonderful that the amazingly quick benefits are hardly believable, just as shown in the remarkable letter which is published upon the request of this sturdy old Civil War veteran. He is 77 years old. Read what he says EATONIC did for him:

"I am an old soldier, past seventy-seven years. I had the Span- ish influenza and it left my stomach in an awful shape. I tried three different diet-tions but got no relief. As a last resort I sent and got a box of EATONIC and to my great surprise the very first tablet I took helped me. I can now eat anything I want, and feel fine."

Yours thankfully, F. S. Martin

Dec. 4, 1918 C. S. Martin

P. S.: If you can make any use of this letter for suffering humanity, you are at liberty to do so. C. S. M.

This is only one case out of thousands. You should make the EATONIC test in your own case at once. You have everything to gain—not a penny can you lose, for we take all the risk. Your own common sense, your own feelings, tell you that a good appetite, good digestion, a good stomach, with the fever poisons and effects of strong medicines out of your system, will put you on the road to strong, robust health again.

You want to enjoy life again after you have battled with the "flu," fever or colds, or any other illness that has taken your strength. You want to get back your old-time vigor, be full of pep and enthusiasm—be able to work with ease, instead of listlessly, half-heartedly dragging out a mere existence.

So be sure to take a box of EATONIC home with you today. We cannot urge this too strongly. If EATONIC fails to give you positive beneficial results, it will not cost you a penny. There is no risk—the benefit is surely all for you.

EATONIC FOR YOUR ACID-STOMACH

NOTE—Over 20,000 drug stores throughout the United States sell and guarantee EATONIC. If you cannot obtain EATONIC quickly at your drug store, do not be without it. His Chance.

A cub halted at a street corner and a man alighted. The latter had evidently not the means at hand to pay his fare by the manner in which he dived first into one pocket and then the other. He was relieved, however, from his embarrassment by a man tendering a treasury note to the driver with the remark:

"Take your fare out of that, I know this gentleman."

The change was given and the caddy was soon out of sight.

"To whom am I indebted for this kindness?" asked the first gentleman.

"Not me, sir. On the contrary, that's a bad note I've been wanting to change all day."

Seals Lured to Death by Music.

Phonographic music lured scores of seals of the lower Puget sound to their deaths last summer, according to Ed Corfee, who spent several months at Useless, Mutiny and Cultus bays, south of Seattle, killing seals that prey upon salmon. Corfee is a hunter employed by the Washington fish and game commission. A phonograph and a rifle were the principal items in Corfee's outfit. According to his statement, the seals came out of the water to listen to the music. Whenever a seal put his head above the surface Corfee's rifle spoke and the seal dropped. Each seal is said to be able to destroy $1,000 worth of salmon a year.
