

GLEANINGS

C. F. Byrne has established his business office in the rooms formerly used by G. G. Oldfield, next to the Kendrick Hotel.

Charles Chandler was sent out the first of the week by the precinct Liberty Loan Board to check up the precinct to ascertain who had purchased bonds. Stringent methods are being used all over the country to round up slackers. It is not believed that there will be many cases in Kendrick that will have to be reported.

Last week there was an influenza scare in this community, the report being circulated that there was a case in town. So far there has been nothing to indicate that there are any grounds for the report. There have been no cases reported to Dr. Rothwell, local health officer.

Albert Westendahl is now serving as a member of the military police at Camp Lewis. He writes home that he likes army life very much although he is kept very busy with his duties.

Wm. Taylor was in Moscow the first of the week on business.

Byard Davidson of American ridge was a Moscow visitor Sunday.

M. Ownbey of near Southwick states that he had a three-acre patch of beans this season that produced 15 sacks to the acre. It was a small strip of land that he replanted after the hail had completely destroyed the first crop. He gave the ground special attention and got an extraordinarily large yield.

The local Red Cross annual election, which was to have been held last Monday night, and the Liberty Bond meeting advertised to have been held last Tuesday night, were both called off on account of the ruling regulating the holding of public meetings. The Red Cross election has been postponed to an indefinite date.

J. Herbert Johnston and wife of the Lenore country spent Tuesday in Kendrick on business. They have a son in the S. A. T. C. at Moscow and two daughters attending the Lewiston Normal.

One of the worst electrical storms that has visited this section for years occurred last Sunday night, followed by a heavy shower of rain. An electric storm in October is a rare event. The only damage reported was a burnt fuse near Troy on the power line and a number of dead telephones.

There will be a box social at the Elwood school house on Texas ridge Saturday, October 26, for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of supplies for the school. A program has been arranged for the evening and will be given before the sale of the baskets. Everyone is invited to bring a parcel valued at not less than 10 cents, which will be donated to the parcel post booth. The proceeds from this booth will be given to the Junior Red Cross. The program will start at eight o'clock.

Only one man from Kendrick is called this week to take his physical examination for army service. Ninety more from Latah county were called to appear Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Chas. C. Coon of American ridge was the only man called from Kendrick.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Dunkle and daughter Jean, arrived Sunday night from Kellogg. Mr. Dunkle has a large amount of installation work to do at Troy for the Potlatch Consolidated Electric Company.

Postoffice Inspector Fullenweider of Spokane was in Kendrick Tuesday on business.

In a nearby town the picture shows were ordered closed but the churches still held services last Sunday. It was said that anyone afflicted with influenza wouldn't let the malady interfere with his enjoying an evening at the picture show but he would use it as an excuse not to attend church, so it was perfectly safe to let the churches continue to hold services.

Harry Grice was seriously injured a short time ago while working in the shipyards near Portland, according to information received by friends here from his folks, who are living near Portland. Harry fell a distance of forty feet and injured his spine. He is paralyzed from his waist down and it has not yet been determined whether his injury is of a permanent nature or not. He is now in a Portland hospital.

Lafayette Keen of Moscow was in Kendrick the first of the week visiting friends.

Emil Peters of Cameron district is installing an electric lighting system in his home. He believes in bringing all of the comforts of the town to his farm. After the expense of installation the lights can be furnished at a nominal cost.

The farmers on Little Bear ridge have been experimenting with the growing of beans for a number of successive years on the same land. Those who have tried it say that each year a better yield is obtained and that the land becomes easier to work after every year it is planted in beans. Beans seem to inoculate the soil in the manner alfalfa or clover does and the longer these crops are raised on the land the more adaptable the soil becomes to produce the crops.

Auctioneer Charles E. Walks of Moscow was in Kendrick Wednesday on business.

Wm. J. Roberg was in Moscow Wednesday transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Taylor left Wednesday for Montana where they will look at land with a view of locating providing they find satisfactory conditions there.

Pete Orcutt, editor of the Clearwater Republican, was in Kendrick the first of the week for a short visit.

Frank Chamberlain established his jewelry repair shop in the front of H. P. Hull's office last week.

James Bratcher, a pioneer resident of Kendrick, arrived Wednesday morning from Midvale, Idaho, where he has land interests. He reports crop conditions fairly good there for a dry season, wheat making an average yield of about 15 bushels to the acre. He will visit friends here for a few days.

Miss Jean Carlisle of Clarkston visited at the D. L. Stevens home the first of the week.

John Roberts and daughter, Miss Gertrude, went to Moscow Wednesday to visit friends.

Kate Anderson returned from Missoula, Montana Thursday, after spending several months there visiting her brother. She is now at her home on American ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Daugherty went to Spokane with their little boy Thursday to consult a specialist in regard to an operation on the boy's eyes.

Mrs. A. C. White went to Spokane the first of the week on business.

C. G. Compton was a Lewiston visitor Thursday.

G. G. Oldfield is in Kendrick looking after business interests before leaving for California. His car, which is in Moscow undergoing repairs, has been delaying the trip to California but Mr. Oldfield has hopes that it will be in running order the last of this week.

C. B. Moore of Pardee, Idaho is assisting at the Farmers Bank. He arrived from Pardee Wednesday.

Trains are delayed, stock killed and human lives endangered by the careless habit of letting stock run on the railroad right of way. The N. P. is complaining of the delays caused between Kendrick and Troy on account of horses and cattle getting on the track. All fences that need repair along the railroad should be reported to the section foreman.

Miss Vivian White has a tame magpie which is attracting a good deal of attention. It was caught last summer when quite young and for a number of months wouldn't leave the back yard of the hotel. Now it flies all over town but always returns at night. It is beginning to talk quite fluently.

Going To Spend Lots of Money or a Little, Which?

BECHTOL'S ADVICE

If you want to stock up on new furniture, and want to pay lots of money for it, then send your order to Sears Roebuck Co., or some other high priced house. But if you want the same pieces of furniture and yet do not want to spend so much money for it, then give us your order. To convince you regarding our prices we offer the following comparisons:

At the bottom, center of page 875 Sears Roebuck Co. catalogue, you find dining table number 1N.2426 in 8 foot fumed oak at $15.60 plus freight of about $1.75. Our price on this same table is $16.50 here.

Just at the left of the above table they show you another one in a 42 inch plain Oak top with Octagon pedestal in 6 foot at $16.95 in fumed finish. We have this same pattern in all quartered Oak and 45 inch top at only $18.00 or less than their 42 inch plain Oak would lay down here for.

On page 872 they price to you at the center top of page a Kitchen Cabinet at $16.85 and you pay the freight, while we furnish this same pattern here for $17.00 another $1.50 saved by buying at home.

At the bottom, right of page 869 my dear Jewish friend shows you a davenport in imitation brown leather and fumed Oak at $37.35 (and don't forget the freight), we have the same pattern for $36.50.

On page 880 the cheapest plain Oak writing desk they price is $12.50. We have just about this same pattern in quartered oak at $9.50.

In center of page 863 my "Shenie" competitor shows one of his best Oak rockers in genuine leather at $15.65. We have the same chair at $16.00 here, a difference of 35 cents—will 35 cents pay the freight?

On page 857 they quote you $1.20 for a 4 spindle back, bowback chair, and ship it to you knocked down.

An Actual Essential

We are living at high pressure. Business cares—household worries; and then on top of it all the wearing strains of war—these mean nervous tension. An evening of music means a let down, complete relaxation for the over worked nerves. Never was the solace of music more needed and no instrument can offer such richness and variety as the New Edison.
