SEASONABLE DISHES.

DO NEED is there in this day of plenty to serve monotonous meals; even substitutes may be varied so that there will always be something different. The following may not prove agreeable to all, but from these, one may find suggestions which will be helpful in varying the menus:

Mushrooms au Gratin.—Peel a half-pound of fresh field mushrooms, sprinkle with salt and let stand a half-hour. Fry one onion sliced in two tablespoonfuls of cooking oil; add two tablespoonfuls of flour and when well blended add a cupful of stock made from cooking the stems of the mushrooms. Cook until thick; add a half-teaspoonful of salt, a few dashes of pepper, and paprika. Add the mushrooms to the sauce; put into a baking dish, add a half-cupful of bread crumbs that have been mixed with one tablespoonful of sweet fat and bake until brown.

Potatoes, Peasant Style.—Wash, pare and cut into dice enough potatoes to make a pint and a half; fry until brown in six tablespoonfuls of bacon fat. Remove the potatoes and add two cloves of garlic chopped, two tablespoonfuls of chopped parsley to the fat in the pan; cook for two minutes; add two tablespoonfuls of corn flour, a teaspoonful of salt, paprika and pepper to taste; two cupfuls of milk, and when well thickened add the potatoes and serve when hot.

Lemon Tapioca Pudding.—Cook a half-cupful of granulated tapioca in four cupfuls of milk in a double boiler twenty minutes. Beat two egg yolks with four tablespoonfuls of sugar and four tablespoonfuls of corn syrup. Add the grated rind of half a lemon and stir into the tapioca. Cook until thick and creamy; add one teaspoonful of lemon extract and turn into a serving dish. Beat the egg whites with two tablespoonfuls of sugar and spread over the top for a meringue. Brown and serve hot or cold.

Save the whey from cottage cheese to use in place of milk in cakes, gems, muffins, gingerbread and doughnuts.

We do Not Look For

A DECLINE IN PRICES

Of the merchandise we sell. The reconstruction problem is greater than that following either the Franco Prussian or our Civil War. Many of the nations of Europe are in a starving condition, making the shortage of food throughout the world, greater than that following either war mentioned. Mr. Hoover says that we will have to export twenty million tons of food stuffs as against last year twelve million tons and a pre-war exportation of six million tons.

The President has guaranteed the farmer $2.20 a bushel for the 1919 crop of wheat, which will result in increasing his production and his profits. With this demand for material and food, history should repeat itself, and if so prices will remain high for some time. The price of foundry pig iron, f. o. b., Philadelphia, when the Civil War broke out in 1861 was $20.25 per ton; when it closed in 1865 it was $46.12 per ton and three years after in 1868 the price was $39.25 per ton. When the Franco Prussian war broke out in 1870, the price of pig-iron was $33.25 per ton, f. o. b. Philadelphia. In 1871, $35.12, in 1872, $48.87. Steel prices followed substantially the same course as pig-iron during both these wars.

In 1861 the price of western wheat f. o. b. New York was $1.38 a bushel; in 1865, $2.45 per bushel and 1868, three years after, $2.40 per bushel. In May 1870 the price of northern wheat f. o. b. Chicago was $1.13 per bushel; in 1871, $1.20; in 1872, $1.12.

There is nothing that will warrant our anticipating any decline in the cost of material and labor in the near future. Manufacturers say that with present restrictions on some kinds of material that they will be able to make about the same quantity as last year. This is taken largely from the circular of the Farm Implement Committee, which has been in close touch with the material and labor situation during the war, and we believe they are right. We expect a good volume of the business for 1919 to be at approximately present prices.

You can do the best work and accomplish more with good tools than with those that are worn out. We do not believe nor want you to be improvident so much as to throw away your machinery until it is worn out. Then it is more profitable to get new. Hoping you will be benefitted by these remarks and that we, "America" will feed the world, we are yours truly
