ESTIMATED SAVING BY SQUIRREL POISONING IS $75,000

Five Hundred Seventy Farmers Used Poison on 98,000 Acres of Land—Fourteen Tons of Bait Used. Ninety eight thousand eight hundred and eighteen acres of land were treated with poisoned bait for squirrels in 1920 according to a statement recently issued by W. E. Crouch who has charge of rodent control in the state of Idaho for the University Extension Division.

HEY, KIDDIES! PONIES IN SILVER LININGS

There was "a Shetland pony en' everything" in the silver lining to the dark cloud which hung over this little boy and girl for years. The world called their daddy a bandit and he was away from home, leading his followers in battle most of the time. They are Panchito and Luisito Villa, son and daughter of the former Mexican bandit, who now leads the life of a ranchman on the broad acres given to him by the government.

H. WEATHERFORD MARRIES MISS JESSIE CLARK AT STONE. Harold Weatherford of Rockland and Miss Jessie Clark of Stone, Idaho were married January second, at the home of the bride's parents at Stone. Bishop Andrew P. Peterson officiated. Miss Clark lived at Rockland until two years ago when her family moved. She is well known in the valley where the young couple will make their home. Mr. Weatherford is popular about his home town and is receiving the congratulations of his many friends.

HARRY WALLIS LEADS MASONS. At a recent meeting of the members of the Masonic Order in American Falls, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: H. R. Wallis, W. M.; John T. Coleman, S. W.; Richard Roberts, J. W.; E. D. Nye, secretary; G. S. Wennstrom, S. D.; C. G. Sprigg, J. W.

All the doors were either off their hinges or at least ajar except the one leading to a closet in a bedroom. This was indeed suspicious so Charley pried in. The door failed to yield to his weight so he procured a piece of steel and became rough, still the door would not open. Charley was in a hurry so he left the siege and started home. On the way he met a friend and related his story. The friend was sufficiently interested to continue the investigation but when he arrived at the scene of the mystery, the closet door was open and sad to relate the brown jug had disappeared.

This story is the sequel to that of a barrel that mysteriously disappeared from the same old rendezvous. The parties who discovered it sought to sell it to a well known bootlegger and found to their astonishment that he had already paid for it once and was quite indignant when asked to pay for it the second time.

CENTRAL OFFICE OF WHEAT GROWERS MAY COME HERE

Local Men Hope to Make American Falls Central Exchange for State Wide Marketing Organization. That the central office of the Idaho Wheat Growers Association with its necessarily large exchange, will be located in American Falls is the belief of a considerable number of local business men who have been dwelling on the development that 1921 is likely to bring to this city.

The organization work, as far as Idaho is concerned, began at American Falls. Ninety five percent of the wheat marketed by the Association this year, has gone through the American Falls office. Organizers who are now out over various sections of southern Idaho, are from Power County, among them Joseph May, Bruce Lampson, Harry Nelson and S. L. Wixon. J. T. Fisher, state secretary for the Association lives a few miles from American Falls and the executive committee is within easy traveling distance of this city.

Local executives of the Association had no comment to make regarding the matter except to say in effect that this seemed the logical location for such an office, in the circumstances, and express the hope that such an arrangement could be brought about.

NEW BABY A WHOPPER.

A baby girl that tipped the scale at twelve and a half pounds came Wednesday noon to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Rast. It is reported that the stork that brought this bouncing girl was fairly exhausted after its long trip with such an unusually heavy infant. Five minutes after it was born this young lady shouted in stentorian tones for sauer kraut and a goodly portion was quickly provided. All records for weight seem to have been broken by this arrival in the Rast family.

CARD PARTY AT HORSTS.

Mr. and Mrs. George Horst entertained New Years eve with a card party in their home. Those present were Ivan Mock, Bob Alberts, W. W. Wall, and Fred Horst.

WOULDN'T THIS RILE YOU?

F. D. Enns writes the Press this week of the wonderful sunshine, the green grass, the orange picking, etc. of sunny California. We are having a "windless and snowless" winter he adds while we gather the folds of our coat tighter about our shoulders. Mr. Enns says he is greatly interested in the development that has come to American Falls and always takes a great deal of pleasure in reading the American Falls Press.

The Central School gave a fine Xmas programme Thursday evening, at the Central school house. After the program pies were auctioned off, for funds to help with the lunches. The Xmas tree was beautifully decorated with trimmings, treats and presents for the school children. One of the candles which was lighted in some way caught a Xmas bell afire on the tree and in a few moments the top of the tree was all ablaze. By quick work of the men the tree was pulled over and the fire extinguished, but not until it had burned about half of the tree and a few presents. A strong south wind was blowing which would have soon taken the building if the fire had become much stronger. The proceeds from the pies amounted to $14. The following program was rendered:

Why We Need The Hot Lunch. Pa warms the milk for the little calf. Ma heats the food for t hechicks; The cat a hot dinner at noontime too. But my lunch is cold as bricks. We have a hot lunch at or school now; There's soup that's hot as the dickens We fill up our bowls as we pass along. They've decided no wwe're as good as the hickens.

RED CROSS NOTES. Officers of the local Chapter of the A. R. C. are planning to send some of the surplus funds in the chapter treasury to the relief of the starving children in Eastern Europe. Seventy-three certificates have arrived from Seattle for Power County women who completed the classes in Home Care of the Sick. Owing to the danger of crushing in the mail, Mrs. M. M. Myers has left the certificates with Miss Houk at the Fall Creek store, where the ladies will kindly call for their certificate.

"BUY A BARREL OF FLOUR" URGES LOCAL GRAIN DEALER

Movement Started Several Weeks Ago In East and Is Believed Partial Remedy for Low Price.

The "Buy a barrel of flour" movement has struck several communities over the United States and comes to American Falls this week from a local grain dealer, who sees in the movement, a means of raising the price of wheat to the farmer. The letter received this week says: "A movement of this kind "Buy A Barrel of Flour" started some thirty days ago in the east and it was expected that if every one cooperated, the consumer would be able to get flour at a relatively low price, the milling demand for wheat would improve, and farmers who have been receiving less than the cost of production for their grain for some time would be benefited."

"The movement is a good one and we think every household should do its best by buying a barrel of flour. Let every grocery store that advertises, carry a line in his advertisement reading "Buy A Barrel of Flour." If the movement becomes nation wide, watch the price our farmers will get for their wheat and they need all they can get. Some have voiced vigorous objection to the movement and cite in substantiation, the fizzle of the "Buy A Bale of Cotton" movement at the beginning of the great war. They overlook just this vital difference. The purchase of a bale of cotton was speculation pure and simple. The purchase of a barrel of flour is food in final hands. That is the eloquent difference."

SHOEMAKER MOVES SHOP. J. M. Owen has moved his shop to the Furrer Building, the store room of which he has leased for a period of years. Mr. Owen has been conducting his shoe repair shop across the street from the Falls Pharmacy for several months. His new quarters will give him ample room for a shoe shop as well as an exhibit room in the front of the building.

BLOCK HAS NEW MIXER. Fred Block, American Falls baker, has purchased and now has in operation a dough mixer that greatly facilitates the bread making that supplies American Falls stores. The new mixer has a capacity of two barrels of flour and is driven by a motor. It cost $750 and is one of the few such machines in this part of the state.

BLUE LAWS THREATEN. A Sunday closing law for picture shows and all other places of business or amusement will come before the present session of the Idaho Legislature according to Johnson Clark of the C. & O. Amusement company of American Falls. Mr. Clark will go to Boise Monday to attend the annual meeting of exhibitors and incidentally to use his influence against the passage of the proposed blue law.
