WILSON REPLIES TO GERMAN

his address of September 27, 1918. In order to avoid further bloodshed, the German government requests to bring about immediate conclusion of a general armistice on land, on water and in the air.

MAX, PRINCE OF BADEN, Imperial Chancellor. Reply of President Wilson.

From the Secretary of State to the Charge d'Affaires of Switzerland: Department of State, October 8, 1918.

"Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge, on behalf of the president, your note of October 6, enclosing the communication from the German government to the president; and I am instructed by the president to request you to make the following communication to the imperial German chancellor:

"Before making reply to the request of the imperial German government and in order that the reply shall be candid and straightforward as the momentous interests involved require, the president of the United States deems it necessary to assure himself of the exact meaning of the note of the imperial chancellor. Does the imperial German government accept the terms laid down by the president in his address to the congress of the United States on the 8th of January last, and in subsequent addresses, and that its object in entering into discussion would be only to agree upon the practical details of their application?"

"The president feels bound to say with regard to the suggestion of an armistice that he would not feel at liberty to propose a cessation of arms to the governments with which the government of the United States is associated against the central powers are upon their soil. The good faith of any discussion would manifestly depend upon the consent of the central powers immediately to withdraw their forces everywhere from invaded territory.

"The president also feels that he is justified in asking whether the imperial German chancellor is speaking merely for the constituted authorities of the empire who have so far conducted the war. He deems the answer to these questions vital from every point of view.

"Accept, sir, the renewed assurances of my high consideration.

"ROBERT LANSING." Mr. Frederick Oederlin, charge d'Affaires of Switzerland, ad interim. In charge of German interests in the United States.
