VISITS FRIENDS.

Mrs. J. W. Turner, wife of Dr. J. W. Turner, formerly of Cottonwood, now located in California was a guest the past week at the homes of Mrs. S. Day and Judge Hampton Taylor. Mrs. Day is a sister of the doctor and Mr. Taylor an old friend.

Dr. Turner was the first physician to locate at Cottonwood, coming there in 1888 directly from the Electric Medical college in Cincinnati, O. He practiced his profession in this county until about a year ago, when failing health caused him to give up his practice. He then removed to Riverdale, Cal., in Fresno county near where he owned a small dairy farm. Mrs. Turner reports the doctor's health improving but says she likes Camas Prairie best despite her palm and fig trees.

On the way here they visited their son, Lloyd, who is in the Army Medical Corps at Camp Fremont, near Palo Alto, he was sent in August from Cottonwood, where he was pharmacist in the Turner drug store. He expected to be sent over seas very soon. The doctor returned from the camp to their California home while Mrs. Turner came to visit their daughter, Mrs. Nicholas Meyer, who came from Seattle where her husband is in the intelligence office of the army to conduct the drug store, when her brother, Lloyd was called to the colors, being also a registered pharmacist.

JUDGE L. VINEYARD SICK.

Judge L. Vineyard had a second attack of paralysis the latter part of last week which left him in an utterly helpless condition. He is almost completely paralyzed and has no control over himself and his mind is almost blank. It became necessary to remove him to the hospital where he could have care and attention and it has been found necessary to engage an attendant to be with him and care for his wants all of the time, day and night. He has been very low and has not been expected to recover. This is the second time the judge has been stricken and on the first occasion he was in the hospital several weeks before he recovered sufficiently to be around, but the recovery was not complete.

Mention was made in last week's issue of the Free Press that William Michie would hold a public sale on or about November 1, preparatory to selling off all his effects, prior to leaving for his new home in Texas. Several have made inquiry since that time concerning the sale, and Mr. Michie announces that the sale will be indefinitely postponed until the present influenza epidemic has entirely subsided. Announcement will be made later when the permanent date is fixed.

AT HIS POST OF DUTY

Honorable John F. Nugent

While Idaho is in a state of confusion so far as Politics is concerned, and candidates for different offices have resigned as heads of different war committees, the Honorable John F. Nugent remains at his post on duty in Washington, as your junior senator.

No higher compliment could be paid to a servant of the people than that he would sacrifice his political future and stay where he is needed in this hour of trouble.

With a son on the firing line in France, and his country facing the great questions it does, what better type of man could be found? What better could be said of one than "He Is Doing His Duty?"

VOTE WITH THE PRESIDENT. The President of the United States, realizing that great questions are before Congress, and having had the aid of Senator Nugent, says:

"Give Me Nugent"

To the People of Idaho County:

The President stands as guardian of your boys who have gone to the Colors.

Help him by electing a man who will be of help to him,

Vote for JOHN F. NUGENT who has his OWN FLESH AND BLOOD ON THE FIRING LINE. You know he has done his duty. Give him approval by your vote.

We have had a taste of your quality here which makes us all more certain than ever that Idaho could not have a more loyal or trustworthy representative or the administration a more generous supporter.

Cordially and sincerely yours,

(Signed) Woodrow Wilson

Hon. John F. Nugent,
