Jim tells it to the Boss

"Tisn't the size of a plug that counts," says Jim. "It's the way it tastes—and how it lasts. A couple of squares of Real Gravelly keeps me satisfied."

Good taste, smaller chew, longer life is what makes Genuine Gravelly cost less to chew than ordinary plug.

LIBERTY BONDS TO RISE IN PRICE
ON MARKET

MANY TRY TO EXPLAIN WHY
GOVERNMENT SECURITIES ARE BELOW PAR

LOANS NEED SEASONING

National and Private Issues Pass
Through Same Period, Asserts
Financial Authority

The fact that the market price of Liberty Bonds is still below par has brought forth endless discussion among persons who either seek or try to give the reasons for the prices.

The present prices of Liberty Bonds have also been a factor in contributing to pessimistic stories as to the difficulty which the nation will have in floating a Fifth Loan.

The situation is well set forth in The Analyst, New York financial weekly, as follows:

Every loan floated, whether it be corporate or governmental, requires a certain amount of time to become seasoned. This will be particularly true of our national loans, which have all been sold during periods of tremendous pressure where every appeal was made to the buyer to take the maximum, whether or no the security was suited to his needs or within his ability to pay.

Healthy Gravitation.
Gradual liquidation from small holders is as inevitable, therefore, as the law of survival. He shall take who hath the power, and he small keep who can, and it is in keeping that more strength of character is required than in the resolution necessary to bring one to the point of signing the application. The gravitation that is going on, therefore, is a healthy function, except, of course, where selling is induced by unscrupulous swindlers.

The liquidation from this source represents so many footprints of the bonds in passage from the hands of the weak to the strong, and every sale that takes place on the board emanating from this source is one step nearer to a solid market for Liberty Loans, since it is a well-known characteristic of those who buy in a declining market to hold either for permanent investment or for so substantial a rise that they are amply compensated for their carry.

Will Steady Market.
Much of the money realized from bonds sold to produce writeoffs in the income tax will either lie in banks or go into short-time securities for investment and the switching by savings banks may be safely counted upon to do nearly as much good to the market price of the Liberty Loans as it can harm to rails and municipals. As a matter of fact the taking of tax exempts from an institution unaffected by taxes and the resale of the same to private individuals is only the natural result of gravitation of securities into the final niche in which they are most efficient.

It is confidently believed, therefore, that a turn in the tangent of bond prices is at hand with an especially cheerful prospect for our national loans.

BOLSHEVISM—ITS CURE

President Wilson has asked for food to stop the wave of Bolshevism rolling westward out of Russia. No intelligent person doubts the value of food as a first aid, but at bottom the security of our institutions rests upon the working interest the people take in those institutions.

Citizens having no interest in a government, no economic interest in the success of that government, are apt to be the first victims of vicious propaganda or unbalanced political theorists. On the other hand men and women who have invested in their government either by way of conducting private enterprise under its protection or through direct purchase of government securities have something at stake and desire to maintain stable institutions. Such persons are not necessarily reactionists. They may be quite progressive and anxious for reform where reform is needed.

Consequently the effective barrier to Bolshevism in America today is thrift and investment. The philosophy must reach into the workshops of the nation. It is reaching into those workshops and into the schoolhouses of the nation in the form of the Thrift Stamp and the War Savings Stamp, interest paying engagements of the United States government which can be bought for as low as 25 cents.

When everybody in America is buying Thrift and War Savings Stamps as a habit, one won't hear much about the I. W. W. in America. It is the financial and patriotic duty of every American who loves real liberty to get the Thrift Stamp habit NOW.

Polishing Too Highly.
"When did you study elocution?" "Elocution!" echoed Senator Sorghum. "I never studied it."
"Would it not have helped your oratorical style?"
"Maybe. But it would have done away with the little off-hand mistakes that help to convince a crowd that a man is speaking straight from the heart and not trying to beguile the senses with studied eloquence."

A Father's Disappointment.
"That was a fine letter Josh wrote home," commented Mrs. Cornstossel. "Every line of it was jes' as grammatical as it could be."
"That's what worries me," replied her husband. "He has spoiled his style. I thought at first he was goin' to have a great future as one of these natural-born comical dialect writers."

Hours of Relaxation.
"The neighbors object to your running the lawnmower at 6 o'clock in the morning," said Mrs. Crosslots.
"Which neighbors?" asked her husband.
"The ones who play the phonograph till 2 o'clock in the morning."

In the Botanical Gardens.
Mrs. Flatbush—What's this?
Mr. Flatbush—Oh, that's a rubber plant.
"I suppose it comes from the frigid north?"
"Oh, no, dear; that's not one of the arctic rubber plants."

What He'd Say.
"How old would you say she is?"
"Twenty-four."
"She's older than that."
"I know it, but I wouldn't offend her by saying so."

ALL HE CAN HANDLE.

Mrs. Henry—Mr. Swift never takes his wife out in his automobile.
Mr. Henry—I guess he doesn't care to have two unmanageable things on his mind at one time.

Making the Best of It.
We must cheer up beyond a doubt "Amongst blessings incomplete; So, when the gasoline gives out, Be thankful for your feet."

As It Goes.
"Who sent the little bunch of violents?"
"The friend who did more than any one else in his life to help him when he was in trouble."
"And from whom did the fine sprays of flowers come?"
"From the ones who refused to lend him money when he needed it."

T. N. T. Mebbe.
"What caused all that explosive language as I came in?" asked the pious person as he entered the barber's chair.
"I got a little powder in that fat feller's nose and of course he went and blew up."

Neat Array.
He—I know a man who has fingerprints all over his office.
She—He must be very disorderly in his habits.
He—Not at all. He's a police identification expert.

The Reason.
"The papers are always anxious to get good stories of fires."
"Naturally. A good fire story is hot stuff."

Not Hindering It.
"Reggs, why don't you let your mustache grow?"
"Why don't I let it? Good heavens, dear boy, I do; but it don't."

Tact.
"Am I the only girl you ever loved?"
"Darling, do you suppose I could aspire to you if I were in the amateur class?"

FOR THE CHILDREN

Too much care cannot be exercised in selecting a cough medicine for children. It should be pleasant to take, contain no harmful drug and most effectual in curing their coughs and colds. Long experience has shown that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets these conditions. It is a favorite with many mothers.
