BLACKFOOT, IDAHO, SATURDAY, MARCH 31, 1894.

NO. 43

SINCE OUR LAST ISSUE.

The fruit crop in many of the middle tier of states was killed by frosts last week.

The United States court will begin its spring term in Boise City next Monday.

Indiana, Illinois and Ohio, look upon their small fruit crops as totally destroyed by the freeze of last week.

About 5,000 miners in the Kanawha Valley, West Virginia, have been put to work again.

Idaho Falls Democrats are sanguine of victory, at next Tuesday's municipal election.

Miss A. E. Howard, an elocutionist, gave a pleasing entertainment at the opera house, Wednesday evening.

Rev. A. H. Lyons of Pocatello, has been assisting Rev. Gage of the Baptist church in his services this week.

The asylum has reached its highest water mark. It now has 112 patients.

The Minstrels will give a complete change of program for to-night's performance.

Rev. J. M. Wilder, of the Methodist church, will preach from text—Christian Knowledge, next Sunday morning.

B. T. Lloyd, an attorney and broker, of Salt Lake City, was a business visitor in Blackfoot Wednesday.

Remember Dr. Iliff's lecture next Friday, April 6th, under the auspices of the Grand Army Post.

The Feather Cleaning Machine will be here this week only. Leave orders at any of the stores.

Gen'l. Frye's army of tramps, on the march to Washington, is enjoying the hospitality of the desert of Texas.

Six new members have been admitted in Golden Rule Lodge No. 24, I. O. O. F. during the past two weeks.

The weather in Wyoming and Nebraska has delayed the mail trains nearly every day this week.

The school house grounds ought to be neatly enclosed and planted in shade trees. But where is the money to come from, that's the question.

Orville Buck, one of the true and tried of Willow Creek's untrifled, spent a day in Blackfoot this week on business with the land office.

Montana hotel men have organized an association for mutual protection. Dead beats must keep their autographs off their register.

W. H. Stufflebeam left Thursday morning for Washington, D. C., where he has been given a good paying position in the Treasury department.

Receiver Milton G. Cage, of the Boise land office, is expected to enter upon his duties about 5th of April.

Tommie Johnson has opened a fruit and cigar store in the Idaho hotel building. Read his "ad" in to-day's News.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
Most Perfect Made.

Hear the eloquent lecture by Dr. Iliff, at the court house next Friday evening.

Hon. Frank W. Beane was notified yesterday of the establishment of a new post office in Elmore county. The name is Neal with W. B. Pryor, postmaster.

Blue stone at Fernish drug store, 12 pounds for $1.00.

There will be an annular eclipse of the sun on April 5th, which the United States will not be able to see, a partial eclipse of the moon on September 14th and 15th, which we have a chance to observe, and a total eclipse of the sun on September 29th, which will be out of the field of view of the United States.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior Reynolds rendered a decision Tuesday which will greatly enlarge the pension rolls. It will admit to pension a large number of insane, idiotic and permanently helpless minor children of deceased soldiers where the pensions of the former had ceased by the children attaining the age of 16 years prior to the act of June 27, 1890.

Not a long time ago we overheard a member of a church complaining about the lack of interest and spirituality in the services, and it seemed so plain she was expecting of others what did not exist in herself.

Hailey's Commercial store carrying a stock of $16,000 was destroyed by fire last week. Insurance $11,000. An incendiary.

Five hundred samples wall, border and ceiling paper. Chicago prices. Call and see them Mrs. M. A. Killion.

Mrs. Prof. Faris, of Idaho Falls, filed on a desert claim of 320 acres, Tuesday. She makes the second lady of that town who has taken up a farm this month.

Charlie Haddock has reached Washington and the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury is so well pleased with him that he immediately wired Mr. Beane to send him another man like him. Good for Idaho.

Judge Anderson, a prominent miner and pioneer of Wood River, died in London, England, on the 22d of last month. He had gone to England in the interest of a big mining deal.

Fifty per cent saved by buying your wall paper from me. Call and see 500 samples and get my prices. Mrs. M. A. Killion.

Acres for acre, land is said to yield more when planted in bananas than in any other variety of food production. The product of an acre of bananas is 133 times as great as that of an acre of wheat.

The Western senators are standing solidly together for an increased appropriation for surveys for public lands over the amount allowed in the sundry civil bill passed in the House. And Idaho needs a good share to her part.

Judge Stockslager will hold the next term of Oneida county court for Judge Standrod. This change comes of the murder trial of Hurst for the killing of Morgan a business partner of Judge Standrod.

J. W. Badger, the Boise City disbarred lawyer, is on trial for petty larceny, being accused of stealing a stay chain from a wagon. Poor Badger, he ought to crawl in his hole and hibernate until the earth, the great purifier, purifies him of his ugly traits.

The boys of News office were presented Wednesday with an elegant assortment of candies by Miss Esther Behle, who presides over the candy department at the Pioneer drug store, for which she will please accept thanks.

Attorney Whittier when district attorney, was accustomed, oftentimes in his arguments, to say: "The court agrees with me on that point."

Now, Judge Stevens can adopt Mr. Whittier's language and say: "The court agrees with me." A number of cases went up from his court on appeal to the district court at this term and in every case, his decisions were affirmed.

Blue vitriol 12 pounds for $1.00 at Fernish drug store.

Col. H. C. Lett, a member of the Utah Commission, died at Los Angeles, California, last Tuesday. He had been quite ill at home in Salt Lake and had left the Saturday before for the Pacific coast hoping to find relief. He was very prominent in Utah politics and was a candidate for governor last year.

One the most important cases to come up at Fremont county court will be the trial of Hammond, charged with burning his home and 13 horses to get the insurance. Judges Zane and Power of Salt Lake City, will aid in the prosecution.

A Cincinnati woman was notified by her bank the other day that she had overdrawn her account by $100. She sat down, wrote a check for $100 on the same bank and promptly forwarded it to make up the deficiency. That was an original idea, and no man would have ever thought of the happy expedient.

The following attorneys were in attendance upon the district court this week: Hawley of Boise, Stewart of Los Angeles, Whipple of Ogden, Terrell, Eden, Reeves, Winters and Warner Pocatello, Glenn and Chalmers of Montpelier, J. Ed Smith, W. T. Smith, Hasbrouck and Linger of Idaho Falls and Orr & Orr, Dietrich and Cozier, of Blackfoot.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
World's Fair Highest Award.

Lewisville Minstrels.

The Lewisville minstrels appeared before the foot lights at the opera house for the first time Thursday evening. The night was stormy and the attendance rather slim. But those who were present speak favorably of the performance and a larger house is expected for them to-night.

First Grand Juror.

Colorado has taken an advance position in favor of Woman's rights. Tuesday Mrs. Perrin, of Denver, registered as a voter and straightway she was drawn on the grand jury. "The boys" had better leave town and visit their country cousins, until the clouds roll by, Jennie.

Attachments.

All the town lots in Blackfoot belonging to Watson N. Shilling, of Ogden, were attached Tuesday by Fred J. Keisel & Co.

This was a startling surprise to many of Mr. Shilling's old time acquaintances, for it was generally believed, outside of financial circles, that he had enough stored away for the long rainy season and many dreary winters. But it seems, "you can't just always tell."

District Court In Session.

District court began its spring term last Monday and is in session to-day.

Judge Standrod and all the officers of his court were in excellent health and good trim for their work, and business has been disposed of carefully but with a dispatch pleasing to all interesting parties.

The trial of E. T. Rose, charged with manslaughter in the killing of D. D. Wright which was looked for with some interest, was continued for the term. One prisoner, charged with horse stealing, will go over the road to the pen. By this, Saturday, evening, or next Monday at the farthest, the docket will have been passed upon and the court will adjourn.

GRAND RALLY.

At Court House Blackfoot, Friday Evening, April 6th.

Dr. T. C. Iliff, of Salt Lake City, will repeat his lecture, "Ohio Cavalry Boy, 1861-65," (including Sherman's March to the Sea,) at the court house, April 6th. The lecture is a recital of the doctor's own experience as a soldier boy at the age of 15 to 19, during our civil war.

A program of recitations, bugle calls and patriotic songs will be rendered. The entertainment will begin at 8 o'clock. Admission 50 and 25c.

EXTREME COLD WEATHER

East of the Rockies—Lowest Mercury Known to the Service.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The following special bulletin has been issued by the weather bureau. The period of extremely warm weather noted by the special bulletin of the 23rd inst., has been followed Sunday and this morning by one of extreme cold, which extends over almost the entire country east of the Rocky Mountains, minimum temperature of freezing and below reported over all that region, except on the immediate coast of the South Atlantic and Gulf states and Florida. Throughout Northern Minnesota and the Dakotas the temperature this morning is below zero. In Georgia, Tennessee, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas and Southern Missouri, the weather is the coldest of which the service has a record for this season of the year. General frosts occurred on Monday morning throughout the Gulf states and middle and northern portions of the South Atlantic states, and the temperature, probably, will fall still further Tuesday morning in the middle and South Atlantic states with frosts as far south as Northern Florida.

Administration to Blame Again.

Two attendants upon the court were seated on beer kegs in front of the Gem saloon, Wednesday when No. 1 said:

"Courts in Blackfoot is no more like they use to be than to-day is like a picnic."

"You bet," replied No. 2.

No. 1. "Them was the best court times I ever seed. Never expect to see sich times agin."

No. 2 "They was daisies."

No. 1. "Yes, you bet they was, when them fellows rolled in from Cassia, and Malad and Gentile Valley, and one or two from Chesterfield and Moody Creek, you bet there was fun, and the drinks was as free as water."

No. 2. "Yes, and Joe Rich and Jim Kimball and Willard Crawford and then other lawyers, they was birds I tell you."

No. 1. "Yes, and the old Commercial hotel was headquarters. I've sot up a many night and never shet my eyes over thar, and had all the drinks I wanted and never paid a cent."

No. 2. "And the old Mormon co-habs had a sweet time didn't they?"

No. 1. "You bet, one never got away from them fellows. It didn't need no witnesses for them. Let the prosecuting attorney say to them jurors: 'He's a co-hab' and they'd go for him like a hungry trout for a minner."

No. 2. "Yes, them poor Mormon devils had no show under the sun. But there was lots of money in them days and times was flush. We will never see the like agin."

No. 1. "No the plaguey administration is ruinin' everything. They have done away with Mormon courts, given the Mormons the right to vote and see where we are at, what we are coming to. I want to leave the country."

No. 2. "That's so, we aint making expenses and have to pay for every drink we get. If I could get away I'd go too."

No. 1. "Say, do you reckon the Mormons will remember us and vote for any of us old fellows, if we should want office?"

No. 2. "Oh no, they are glad enough to get out of their troubles, and we can pull the wool over their eyes when the election comes. We will be all right. See how they rallied around the governor when he traveled among them, nothing like him, but we must be going to the court house. The judge will jump on us with both feet if we are not there on time."

And No. 1 and No. 2 walked away in silence apparently reflecting on the troubles of the administration and the forgetfulness of the Mormons.
