S. G. Fisher and family will leave for Lewiston, Sunday morning, and on July 1st, Mr. Fisher will assume charge of the Nez Perce reservation. Their many friends in Blackfoot re- gret to see them leave, but are glad to know that the change will be to their benefit financially. Mr. Fisher thoroughly understands the Indian and his ways and we predict that un- der his management reservation mat- ters will be kept in good shape, and the Indians fairly and justly dealt with.

There are many "sooners" in this and adjoining counties who are wait- ing for the Nez Perce reservation to be opened in the expectation of ob- taining homes therein. To all such we would say that there is just as good land lying outside of the reser- vation open for settlement as there is within the sacred precincts of the re- serve itself. It seems to be a law of nature that the unattainable is always the most desirable, and that because you cannot get a quarter-section of land on the reservation you will take no other. Take our advice and get what is in sight. Go over to the Kooskia or Clear creek regions and get 160 acres of the best land in the world, with wood, horse feed and water on it, and no Indian neighbors to bother you.—Grangeville Free Press.

A Good Sale.

State Treasurer Bunting's sale of a hundred thousand dollars of Asylum and Normal school bonds at a premium of 8.6 per cent., or a fraction over a 3 per cent. basis, last week, has given good cheer throughout the State, and the universal verdict is: they were well sold.

But there is another feauture in connection with the good terms of the sale which is of the greatest signifi- cance and must be attended with happy results, and that is the ulti- matum laid down by Mr. Bunting and accepted by the purchasers, namely, that no provisions for payment in gold should be expressed in the face of the bonds, but rather that they should be paid in lawful money of the country. In this Mr. Bunting won a great victory for the state, and that victory goes to make assurance doubly sure that the state's credit will never suffer while in his hands.
