The dance given at the Opera House Thursday evening by the young men of town, was said to be one of the best and most enjoyable ever given in Blackfoot. Forty-two couples occupied the floor, and all join in pronouncing the occasion one of much enjoyment. The music was good, as was likewise the management, and nothing was left undone that would lead to the pleasures of those present.

There will be water in the ditch in time for irrigation next summer, and the prospect of building through to American Falls is certain to be realized.

Thanksgiving In Blackfoot.

Thanksgiving Day was very Sunday like in Blackfoot. For the most part there was a general suspension of business, and the streets wore much the semblance of a quiet Sabbath day.

The Pocatello Herald makes mention of a new movement that has been inaugurated to invest rest capital to appropriate some of the water power of American Falls for irrigating, mining and manufacturing purposes. Hon. I. H. Palmer, of Illinois, who is said to be backed by plenty of capital, was expected to visit the town of American Falls, on the Short Line, to ascertain the amount of power that could be developed and profitably employed in irrigating a large body of land and the manufacture of the products of the soil into starch, flour, sugar and other articles that could be abundantly produced within a reasonable distance from the town. If his report is favorable it may result in the building of a manufacturing town and the making of a market for several products that the fertile soil of the Snake River valley would be made to produce in abundance and that would yield a much greater profit to the farmers than grains and hay at present prices.

One hundred boxes good apples, consigned, must be closed at 90c. per box. W. A. Bull.

Still Needing Attention.

The Ramie family so sorely afflicted by typhoid fever, is still needing attention. At this writing there are four in bed, but all are improving slowly. They are still in need of careful attention, and of the delicate articles of food demanded by the sick with that fever.

The afflicted widow and mother has been a heroine in her troubles; the people have been kind to them, but the little ones so pale, emaciated an helpless, still demand careful nursing and proper nourishment to bring them back to strength and health again. THE NEWS is confident the good ladies of the community will continue to look after and care for them.

"GOV." LEONARD ARRESTED.

Well-Known Idaho Man Charged with Firing a Haystack.

BOISE CITY, IDA., Nov.—Dr. J. C. Leonard, widely known throughout the State as "Governor" of the Third House during the session of Legislature, was arrested to-day by Deputy Sheriff Scott of Lincoln county. He is charged with having set fire to the haystacks of J. W. Ballantyne, late Populist candidate for Governor.

Leonard says he has no idea what has given rise to the charge. He avers that he has many enemies in that section, where he formerly lived, and he infers this arrest arises from the malice of those who are antagonistic to him.—Tribune.

Not Luck but Work.

"Twenty clerks in a store, 20 hands in printing office, 20 apprentices in a ship yard, 20 young men in a town, all want to get on in the world, and expect to do so," says an old merchant.

"One of the clerks will become partner, and make a fortune; one of the compositors will own a newspaper, and become an influential citizen; one of the apprentices will become a master builder, one of the villagers will get a handsome farm, and live like a patriarch—but which one is the lucky individual?"

Lucky! There is no luck about it. The thing is almost as certain as the rule of three.

The young fellow who will distance his competitors is he who masters business, who preserves his integrity, who lives cleanly and purely, who devotes his leisure to the acquisition of knowledge, who gains friends by deserving them, and who saves his spare money.

There are some ways to fortune shorter than this dusty highway, but the staunch men all go this road.

Schlatter Heard From.

DENVER, COLO., Nov. 26.—A special to the News from Graneros, Colo., says: Francis Schlatter, the healer, is at Greenhorn, some nine miles from this point. There is no question as to his identity, as he was recognized by the writer and by George Sears and wife, all of whom were treated by him in Denver. Schlatter rides a fine gray horse and carries a bundle of blankets. He gave a detailed statement of his movements since leaving Denver, and admitted meeting the various parties who have reported seeing him on his route. He reached Greenhorn about 12:30 to-day. He has treated a great number of people to-day, and has also blessed a great number of handkerchiefs.

He says he is on his way to Albuquerque, and will follow the old Santa Fe trail to that point. On his arrival there he will commence a forty days' fast. He could not say if he would go to Chicago or not.

Say, why don't you try De Witt's Little Early Risers? These little pills cure headache, indigestion and constipation. They're small, but do the work.—Hull & Greene, druggists.

BEN H. FERNISH,

CAUSE!

Why can I sell as cheap or cheaper than any one else in Idaho? I sell large quantities of goods and I buy large quantities and get lowest prices. I manage to get my goods in at lowest possible freight rates.

I stand behind the counter and in that way find out what the people want. I buy only such as people want and have no dead stock to pay for. I do my business with the least possible expense.

I have no rent to pay. I am content with a smaller profit than some people.

EFFECT!

People are talking about the big business I am doing. People are talking about the prices I am selling at. People are buying where they can get the most goods for the least money. My trade is increasing every day.
