

WEDNESDAY

In the Idaho News, twenty months ago we stopped others from a journal like ours and came westward to be another field of labor.

There is a beautiful poetical legend which reads: "The night is full of stars as the sea, And the waves are white with foam as the sea."

In the publication of THE IDAHO NEWS, our aim shall be—Our Country's, Our God's and Truth's, and if we fall under those colors let us fall.

THE NEWS' FINE FERRIS, one of the best political weather vanes in the country makes the following good points in one of its editorials.

THE PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTRY are clearly that a democratic administration means peace and commercial prosperity.
