A WEEK'S ROUNDUP

Another change is soon to be made in the U. & N. time table.

Eagle Rock is still shipping grain and potatoes.

The prohibition vote at the November election was about 255,000.

The Union Pacific has let a contract for the building of 2,500 freight cars.

Cassia county is taking the lead in marriages this season.

Hailey public schools have an attendance of 252 pupils.

The News has received a good list of new subscribers since its last issue.

Montpelier, Bear Lake county, has quite a building boom in progress.

Bear Lake county will ship 24,000 pounds of cheese this season.

The legislature meets at Boise City next Monday.

Mr. Clark, Bradstreet's man, did Bingham county this week.

Commissioner-elect King was over from Chesterfield Thursday.

Wm. Mester and wife have been visiting Salt Lake this week.

C. Bunting Jr. made a business trip to Salt Lake City this week.

The taxable property of Alturas county is valued at $3,842,728.

E. R. Hawley is advertising for 40 head of horses stolen from the Lost River country.

Hon. D. L. Badly, of Ada county, is a prominent candidate for Speaker of the assembly.

Hon. James H. Hawley has been in town all the week attending to legal business.

If an unmarried lady rent a room and board herself is that "batching"?
 If not, what?

Judge Rogers, of Eagle Rock, has been appointed United States Commissioner. Good appointment.

Rumor has it that three contest cases will come up next week when the legislature meets.

Hon. Silas W. Moody, Superintendent of schools, visited the school in Blackfoot Tuesday.

Camas has had an unusually large number of visitors within the past ten days.

H. Horsely, the big merchant at Soda Springs, has the handsomest residence in the county.

The building boom at Pocatello is only limited by the amount of lumber in the yards.

Good times are reported in the mining camps of the Cœur d'Alene country.

Hon. I. N. Costin, president of the board of directors of the Insane Asylum, gave us a pleasant call Thursday.

Ye publisher of the News is taking in the sights of Butte and Helena, Montana, this week.

Nez Perce county is rejoicing over the prospects of two new railroads.
 Surveyors are now on the lines.

Rev. G. C. Stull will hold services in the school house at Pocatello next Sunday evening at 7:30.

The prayer meeting at the Methodist church Thursday evening was the best held for many months. There was one conversion.

Hon. J. P. Clough, joint councilman from Lemhi and Custer, is a prominent candidate for president of the council.

Hon. Thomas Sparks will contest the seat of Editor Lemoreaux, joint councilman elect from Bear Lake, Cassia and Oneida counties.

Ed. Southwick, of Nicholia, spent Monday in our burg. He was down on business connected with the Idaho Trading Company.

The ladies of the Methodist church are busily preparing for a Bazar and Christmas Market just before the holidays.

Jack Hayball, a first-class barber, now has charge at McCracken's old stand, and can always be found ready to serve you in his line.

Don't forget to attend church Sunday, services will be held at both the churches and the pastor of either will be glad to see you out.

The county contest cases will go over until the spring term of court, in the meantime the officers elect will enter upon their duties and serve until the contests are decided.

Cattle in Colorado are said to be in a bad condition and must be heavily fed to pull through the winter.

C. A. Foster, postmaster at Bellevue, is behind in accounts $227. He has been relieved and L. T. Brock appointed in his place.

Tom Sparks, the big cattle man of American Falls, made a good sale of beef steers and cows to a Seattle, Washington Territory, firm this week.
 A new market.

Talk about the clime of Italy and the blue skies of Sunny France, but the splendor of Idaho weather of to-day may be sung in poesy as well as they.

The heavy shipments of water from Soda Springs must eventually bring the springs into such notoriety as to make them one of the most noted resorts in the West.

A recount in the vote of West Virginia gives Alderson democrat, for Congress a majority of 17, and Fleming, democrat, for governor a majority of 28.

John Brown, of Bible, Brown and Johnston, got the government contract for supplying Fort Hall Indian school with 130 tons of coal.

Circuit court adjourned for the term Thursday and Judge Berry left in the evening for his home at Winona Minnesota.

Judge Berry will meet with a number of familiar cases during the term of Supreme Court, as they go up on appeal from his district.

An old settler named Metcalf committed suicide at his home in Malad Valley last week. Whisky and infidelity he said were the prime causes.

Lost—Out of a bundle last Tuesday, between C. Bunting's store and Mrs. Dwight's residence, a new No. 6 shoe. The finder will please leave at this office and greatly oblige the loser.

Our enterprising contemporary of the Bellevue Herald publishes notices of all the babies born in the territory.
 He should have a Dutchman clock premium.

An engineer on the Oregon Short Line road killed a deer from his cab near Glen's Ferry last week while his train was running at full speed. He did the work at the second shot with a Winchester.

The Utah & Northern passenger train ran into a band of horses between Brigham City and Ogden Monday and demolished some of them.
 Between flesh and iron in a collision the advantage is with the iron.

An employe of the Standard office walking down the streets of Ogden Sunday found a lady's bustle and such bustling as was made over the bustle in the office was never seen since bustles were bustles.

W. H. B. Crow, who was a candidate for the assembly from this county, will contest the seat of H. B. Kin-port, democrat. Mr. Crow leaves for Boise City to-day.

The Water suit of Welch, et al vs Anson, et al, which occupied the last week was disposed of Monday by dismissal, but an appeal was straightway taken to the Supreme Court.

"Say, see here, I'd like to have your name to my petition; I'm thinking about applying for a federal appointment. Somebody has got to have it and I think I have a very good show.
 Thank you. Good morning."

The celebrated Bergoyne land-contest case from Bear Lake was up before the Register and Receiver again this week. The testimony is all in and the case taken under advisement.

Councilman S. F. Taylor will leave for Boise City this evening. Mr.
 Taylor will advocate some important measures touching the interests of Bingham county and it is to be hoped that he will be able to push his bills to a final passage.

Dr. Mansbridge, a regular graduate of Cincinnati Medical College, and a physician of twelve years practice, has located in Eagle Rock. Upon his arrival he purchased a home and has come to stay. His card is in to-day's NEWS.

Alma Marker, Eagle Rock's Music dealer, tells you of his Holiday Goods, and Musical Instruments in to-day's NEWS. He has a big stock; send to him for what you want and your orders will be satisfactorily filled.

The harsh, drastic purgatives, once deemed so indispensable, have given place to a milder and more skillfully prepared laxatives; hence the great and growing demand for Ayer's Pills.
 Physicians everywhere recommend them for costiveness, indigestion, and liver complaints.

Your wasted cheeks may have all the plumpness and bloom of health through your use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This time honored remedy still leads the van. It improves digestion and purifies the blood and invigorates the system. Give it a trial.

From reports we have received from responsible parties we have no hesitation in recommending any of our numerous subscribers who are in want of a good stove or range, to try the "Garland Stoves and Ranges." Sold by D. H. Beithan.

Services at the Baptist church both morning and evening next Sabbath.
 Rev. Lyons will continue his series of evening discourses on subjects that have a practical bearing and expects to speak on this occasion of, "The Strength of moral conviction in man and the weakness of moral action." Evening service at 7 p. m.

Mrs. Hattie McCormick, well known to our Blackfoot ladies two years ago when Mr. E. R. Hawley's family was here, was married in Ogden on Thanksgiving Day to H. M. Bond, a popular grocer of that city.

The Baptist Sunday School Choir will give a Concert at the Baptist church Tuesday night, December 11; proceeds for the benefit of the Christmas fund. Admission 25 cts. Come one, come all.

Do you go to church? Reckon up how long it has been since you went and if you have not been inside of one for a year come out to Sunday service in the Methodist church; you will be welcome.

G. C. STULL, Pastor.

Booth, the man who skipped the country some years ago with the proceeds of the sale of wool belonging to Anderson Bros. of Eagle Rock, and who is now in business at Laramie Wyoming, has been attached for the amount taken and Anderson Bros. will recover their losses.

Bingham county cattle men still have on hand good beef steers for market.

The young folks of the Baptist Sunday School Choir have been busy during the week preparing for their concert, to be given on next Tuesday evening, to consist of songs and can-tatas. The celebrated Sunflower Chorus that has been given in many of the cities of the east, will be rendered, and promises to be a rich feature of the evening.

Have you ever seen a Christmas Market; do you know what they have to show at one? Well, wait and you will see one in Blackfoot. The ladies of the Methodist church are sparing no pains to have a good one and to sell toys, books, fancy articles, etc., at a price that will surprise you, not because it is so high, but because it will be in reach of all. Next week we will tell you about some of the dolls, etc., that are being fixed up, dressed by the ladies.

Mrs. Holbrook wishes to inform the public that she is selling her entire stock at greatly reduced prices. boys clothing, boys overcoats, etc. A few girls cloaks still left will sell at cost. A nice lot of ladies and gents silk handkerchiefs suitable for Holiday Presents. Look out for the Xmas Toys for the little girls and boys cheap and good—something new at Mrs. Holbrook's.

The Methodist Sabbath school will make a departure from the time honored Christmas tree display on Chris-mas eve and have in its stead a Santa Claus house and hanging stockings.
 The programme for the evening's entertainment will consist of something entirely different from those heretofore given and cannot fail to please the little ones in attendance and the grown ones too who may be present.

Under The Waves.
 Another of Bingham county's business firms has been carried under the waves that swallow up so many attempting to sail over the mercantile sea. West & Drumler were attached Thursday and their place of business closed. This was a general surprise to the public for it was believed that they were doing a satisfactory business for the capital invested. Their liabilities are estimated at $7,500 with assets sufficient to cover all. The firm had not been running more than seven or eight months and had an increasing trade. Much sympathy is felt for them in the calamity which has befallen them in their short mercantile career.

LATER—The firm has filed papers in bankruptcy and this will stop all further proceedings against them in the way of attachments and other suits.
