Backward, turn backward, O, time in thy flight, give me the nose that I breathed through last night! Bring back the smeller that two days ago knew not the torment of continual blow. Wipe from my mustache the moisture of sneeze, put wooden splints on my poor weakened knees, rub my red nose as you have oft before, with tallow, dear mother; oh it is so sore. Backward, flow backward, oh, tide of the nose. I am so tired from my head to my toes, tired out with mopping and coughing and sneezing; weary from handkerchiefs constantly seizing. I have grown weary of snuffle and snuff, of wiping my bugle until it is rough. Stick my poor head in a big pillowslip, and sew it up mother; I have the la-grippe.--Atchison Globe.

WILLING TO PAY FOR ADVICE.

A Young Lawyer Who Knew How to Appreciate a Kindness.
Milwaukee Wisconsin: When D. K. Tenney was admitted to the bar he was one of the "boys." He enjoyed a good time as well as any one and many good stories are told about him. It is said that on one occasion he went to a country dance near Madison and became smitten with one of the country girls. He danced with her nearly all evening, regardless of the fact that a certain six footer in the room kept watching him threateningly. Finally a friend approached.

"Dan," he said, "do you see that big fellow on the other side of the room?"
"Yes."
"Well, he's going to lick the life out of you."
"What for?" asked Tenney.
"You've been dancing with his girl all the evening."
"I didn't know it. What shall I do?"
"Well, if were you I'd put on my coat and make a sneak for home. I'd get away from here just as quick as I could."
The embryo lawyer said never a word but reached down in his pocket and pulled out a $2 bill.
"What are you doing?" asked his friend.
"Take it."
"I don't want any money."
"Take it," repeated Tenney. "I've taken $5 for a blamed sight worse advice than that."

The St. Louis Republic has resurrected another one of Gen. W. T. Sherman's private letters on the negro question. This last one was written from Goldsboro, N. C., on March 24, 1865, to a friend in St. Louis. He then said: "I am a better judge of what is right and proper touching the negro with whom I deal hourly, than Ben Butler, Sam Giddings, or any mere theorist, dealing with the hypothetical negro of their own creation."

"Let those who love negroes better than whites follow me, and we will see who loves his country best. A nigger, as such, is a most excellent fellow, but he is not fit to marry, to associate or to vote with me or mine."

Another Man Hung
his "stocking by the chimney with care" and was tickled almost to death to find that his good wife had anticipated his near at hand wants and filled the stocking with stocking with Standard Seeds, grown and put up by D. M. Ferry & Co., Detroit Michigan. On application, will mail you free a copy of their Seed Annual, for 1890. This is the most useful of all seed catalogues, not only for experienced gardeners, but for the novice as well. Send your name and address for a copy to D. M. Ferry, & Co., Detroit, Michigan.

THE ANGELUS.

This masterpiece by the great French painter, Jean Francois Millet, was purchased at auction in Paris last summer by the American Art Association of New York. The cost, $115,000 and duties, amounting in all to about $120,000, was nearly $60 a square inch, as the picture is only 18x21 inches in size. This is the highest price ever paid for a single picture. A Beautiful Photo Etching, as represented above, the full size of the original, in which the greatest care and artistic ability have been employed to reproduce all the beauties of the painting, has been prepared specially to be sent as a free premium to every annual subscriber of the weekly edition of
THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC
A copy of this etching on fine plate paper, 24x28 inches in size, will be sent free, postage prepaid, to every annual subscriber after November 1, 1889.
