Mrs. Della Reed, librarian of the public library, repuests all who have books overdue to leave them in the box in the entrance way.

A seven and a half pound daughter came to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs Elmer Nye Sunday.

Charles Johnson and family are ill with influenza. The children of Mrs. Muehlen came down first, and had barely began to get well before other members began coming down.

David Burrell returned from Boise Saturday, where he was secretary of the Republican state central committee, and during the illness of chairman Thomas, directed the campaign.

Dr. Noth is gaining very fast and will soon be able to go on a vacation which he has earned several times over during the past ten years. He began learning to walk again Saturday, and made fair progress.

A nice assortment of new salt mackerel, dried, pickled and boneless herring, whitefish and salmon, at Sparks Meat Market. 11-12, 15.

Manager Soell of the Hotel Remington for a short time Sunday was up and about the lobby. It will be several days before he takes up his duties again. In the meantime Mrs. Soell is acting as manager.

We still have some of that good sauer kraut left; try some before it is all gone.
11-12, 15 Blackburn's Meat Market.

M. E. Walker of Rockland, is $100 shy in his credits for Fourth Liberty bonds. He received credit for Rockland purchases, but not for a $100 bond purchased in American Falls.

C. H. Torrance spent Sunday in the Rockland valley in the interest of the united war drive, and during the day visited nine school districts, covering more than 125 miles with his car.

Paul Bulfinch left for Louisville, Kentucky Monday morning to enter an officers' training camp for the artillery branch of the service. Mr. Bulfinch has been desirous of going for a long time, but the other members of the local exemption board prevailed upon him to stay until the late draft was over and the registrants had their order noumbers. His resignation was filed with the commissioners two months ago, bht has not been acted upon, and probably will not be, now that the war has been declared off. Mr. Bulfinch received orders to report on the 14th. He may be sent back as soon as he arrives, because the need for more officers is not now apparent. His deputy, Mrs. Hauschildt, is left in charge of the office.

Lewis C. Read and R. C. Kelly are visitors from Rockland today.

Get some of the new sauer kraut at Sparks Meat Co. 11-12-15

Mrs. Webb, mother of Mrs. Frank Barnard, who is seriously ill is reported slightly improved.

New shipment of salt fish, codfish, mackerel, salmon and whitings.
11-12,15 Blackburn's Meat Market.

Miss Virginia Nunnelly, who came up from Salt Lake to assist in the care of Dr. Noth, returned Saturday morning.

M. J. Unger and Bob Elisberry made a trip to Aberdeen Saturday. They found the "no admittance without a mask" sign up and working. The flu is getting a good start in Aberdeen.

James Frodsham was a visitor from Rockland yesterday, bringing news of the death of Mrs. Nathan Perry, from influenza. Mr. Frodsham reports the situation much better than it has been for a month past.

Now is the time to lay in your winter's supply of lard. We also have all sized pails of cottolene and compound, at Sparks Meat Co. 11-12-15.

Mrs. A. B. Altree is recovering from an attack of pneumonia, contracted while she was taking care of sufferers from influenza in Rockland and American Falls. Mrs. Altree has without doubt done her part since the epidemic began, and her friends will be glad to learn that she is recovering her health.

Elmer Drummond died at the hospital Monday morning at 2 o'clock, after suffering with influenza for a week. Deceased is survived by his wife and three children, aged four months, four years and six years. For the past six years Mr. and Mrs. Drummond have been living on their ranch at Sublett. Since last spring Mr. Drummond had been working in and around American Falls, and Mrs. Drummond had charge of the Pershing rooming house. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, conducted by Elder W. Hall, father of Mrs. Drummond. Interment took place in Falls View cemetery.

E. D. Coleson of Roy was in American Falls yesterday attending to business matters. Last spring Mr. Coleson planted a field of corn on his ranch east of Roy, and that corn matured all right even though it was planted at an altitude of 6000 feet. But the rancher reaped no harvest from the field for the reason that his cattle beat him to it during his absence from the place. Still he is satisfied that corn can be successfully raised in the foothill ranch and another year he will try it over again and see to it that his livestock will get the corn in a civilized fashion, as behooves well bred cattle.

Miss Gweenty, the nurse who came from Burley to assist in caring for the influenza victims at Rockland when the epidemic was at its height there and who fell a victim to the disease herself within a few days, returned to her home yesterday. Miss Gweenty left realizing that she had fallen among friends during her illness and is profuse in her thanks for the way she was cared for. Miss Gweenty is the only one of nine nurses who were headed for Power county who ever reached their destination. What became of the others is one of the mysteries. They may have been taken off the train before they reached here to assist in other localities, or may themselves have fallen ill.

News of the death of William Walter was received by wire Sunday. Mr. Walter was one of the early settlers on the Carey tract north of American Falls, where he lived for about eight years. About a year and a half ago he removed to California, locating at Manheim. He was a substantial and highly respected citizen. Two children of Mr. Walter are residents of American Falls, Herman Walter and Miss Esther Walter. Mrs. A. C. Haag, another daughter, recently removed to Portland. The cause of the death of Mr. Walter is not known. A letter was received by Miss Walter Saturday, stating that if she would see her father alive she must come at once. Being only started on the way to recovery from influenza she could not go.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Vogel, who arrived from California last week had a rather hard trip of what it was thought would be an outing. They drove through and found miserable roads most of the way. Between here and Twin Falls the roads were good, and they are praising Idaho on their account. Mr. Vogel had the end of a thbmb taken off in putting the chains on his car and had to retrace his road for twelve miles to get the injury attended to. They were two weeks and three days in coming through.

ARBON NEWS.

Sheriff Jeffries was a visitor from American Falls Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Caton Wall moved into Pocatello Thursday for the winter.

Mr. Gus Brahmstadt was in American Falls Saturday attending a meeting of the board of commissioners.

Raldo Woods, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Heber Woods, died Tuesday of pneumonia induced by influenza. The young man had been ill only 11 days. The remains were laid to rest at Valley View cemetery.

Mrs. John Bowen returned Tuesday from Pocatello, where Mr. and Mrs. Bowen were called by the death of a little grandhaughter, Wanda Smith, only daughter of Mrs,. Annie Smith. While at Pocatello Mr. Bowen received word of the serious illness of his daughter Blanche, of Blue Creek. He left immediately for her bedside, she dying shortly after his arrival. The deceased was well known here, having resided here for a number of years until her marriage a few years ago. She leaves five sisters, two brothers and her parents beside a husband and two small children, one an infant, and two small step-children to mourn her loss. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bowen join in sympathy in this hour of their sorrow.

Newell Leishman and Frank Turner are both recovering from a serious siege of pneumonia. Both had to be operated on to better their condition.

Richard Bandy is now able to sit up a little after several weeks illness with pneumonia.

Flu conditions locally are on the mend. All cases are very light now and only a case now and then breaking out.

Eynon Davis went to Pocatello last Thursday on business.

Mrs. Ernest Poppy received a letter from her son Ernest, that he was confined to a hospital somewhere in France, having received a wound in the head which necessitated a short detention. The wound was not considered serious and he expected soon to be back at his post again.

Miss Nina Keeler recently received a letter from her cousin, Miriam Hallt, that he was in a hospital, having been slightly wounded. He is somewhere in France. Miriam made his home here a few yars ago with the Keelers.

Joey Evans is reported much better.

Mrs. John Lusk came over from Malad Monday to help care for her son, Dave Lusk, who was quite ill with influenza, but is improving. Dr. Epson of Malad was the attending physician.

Election day was quiet here, due to the flu situation and cold weather, many losing their votes on account of illness.

Wanda Smith.

In the passing away of Wanda Smith, little daughter of Mrs. Annie Smith, one is reminded of a tiny rosebud which comes to life, and being too frail to withstand the wintry blast, folds its petals only to bloom again at some future day. Little Wanda was the only girl in a family of two boys. Though the place in the home is vacant there is always the tender, gentle memory which is still with and around those who loved her best

"It can't be my back," is an old tale. It is made by people that do not understand the importance of their back—back bone—spine—in relation to health and sickness.

The spine is the distributing center of vital life-force of the body. The nerves that supply your body with life force, or power, pass thru your spine. Put your spine out of commission and your body from there down will be out of commission, in the case of a broken back. If it were your neck that were broken, death would be the result, because your whole body would be put out of commission by the broken neck pressing on the spinal cord, the nerve cable, cutting off vital life-force from your body. If you had a pressure to a lesser degree on the nerves going to your stomach, would it not put your stomach out of commission? If that pressure decreased the life-force going to your stomach, 20 per cent, as long as what you ate took but 80 per cent life-force to digest it, you would not have any symptom of indigestion; but if you ate a meal that needed 85 per cent life-force to digest it, you would have indigestion, because your stomach had only 80 per cent to do the work with.

As it is with your stomach, so it is with all other organs and parts of your body. Come to me and I will prove to you that for every abnormal condition you have in your body you also have an abnormal condition in your spine, which decreases the amount of vital life-force going to the abnormal organs or parts, causing the abnormalities. Have the abnormal parts of your spine corrected and you will get well. Try it.
