THE Idaho Statesman in its Democratic garb reached us night before last. The mechanical style of the paper is not changed. The Editor's greeting to the public appears to have been gotten up hurriedly, and either on purpose or by accident punches up Idaho Democracy with a sharp stick in the following paragraph which we copy.

We recognize the fact that many of the issues that have frenzied the blood of the American people during late years have been determined, at least for the lifetime of this generation. We prefer to live in the present and the future and to make this paper a live newspaper, warm with the activities of the time, rather than confused with the efete discussion of an age which can no more be recalled in the life of this nation, than we can recall the events of our own lives.

S. G. Tucker writes from Treasure City, Jan. 26th, to Geo. Ganss of this place, as follows:

"This is the richest country in the world, and business of all kinds is good, and there will be more people here in the Spring than ever was in one mining camp on the coast. You can do as you like about coming, but everybody is coming from everywhere. If you are making money where you are you had better stay there, but if you are not you had better come. If you have money, bring it along; everything is high and it requires money; and if you have not much you had better borrow all you can. If you have money you can make money here buying and selling goods. I have made $3,000 at that business and have plenty of lots left. Don't come without money.

S. G. TUCKER."

George assures us that he will stay by Silver a few years before he runs off after wild-cat.

Our old friend of other years, Earl S. Barney, has his name attached to a mining notice published in the White Pine News. May he make a fortune. It had been told us that Earl was engaged in trade at Treasure City, but on examination of the advertising columns of the local paper the assertion is contradicted.

COME AND SEE ME!

BEING DETERMINED to close my Butchering Business within the next THIRTY DAYS, in order to go to White Pine, or stay, here, or go where I please. I want every man indebted to me to come and pay up right away, and no fool-iness about it. If they don't they will get sued if they have a cent that the law can get hold of.

I mean what I say and give this warning so you can't blame me after it's done.

PHILIP KOHLHEYER.
