BREVITIES

Wood wanted on subscription.
 Pres. W. T. Jack is in Boise this week.
 Oleen Worthington is gradually improving.
 Several new students have enrolled at the C. S. A. during the week.
 For sale cheap: A fine home. Close in. Location ideal. Lot 7 1/2 x 8 1/2 rods. Inquire of E. Tinsley.
 Cash paid for hides, pelts and wool at W. Levin's. 11-14
 Representative L. H. Sweetser announces his change of residence from Yale, Idaho to Burley Idaho.
 Cash paid for wheat and barley at Oakley Roller Mills.
 The Pioneer Tin Shop will receive a second consignment of stoves, ranges, etc. the latter part of the week.
 Post master Haight of Burley was in town several days the latter part of the week.
 Grover Cleveland has had experience enough to know when he spoke that the woman would have the last word.
 Well, we shall not put many hours worrying in this country as to what to do with our ex-life-insurance presidents.

County auditor Haight, Probate Judge Harper, and Assessor and collector John L. Smith were over from the county seat on Saturday last.
 In the coming election Philadelphia should carefully distinguish between the forces that make for good and the forces make for a good thing.
 Elder Gibson Condie gave a very interesting talk to the Academy students at chapel on Monday morning last.
 E. Tinsley has been confined to his bed for the past ten days with congestion of the lungs. We are glad to report that he is now improving and is able to sit up.
 For the benefit of such places as Peoria, Milwaukee and Grand Rapids, some inventor will yet come along with a complicated machine that will grind out indictments to order while the grand jury awaits.
 The Thomas Dayley residence is now nearing completion. The roof is on and has received a warm coat of red during the week. It is a pity that everybody does not know that a coat of paint or tar on the roof is, in the long run, a great saving.
 United States Judge Barker of Ind. is in trouble for paying campaign contributions direct instead of following the established custom of sending them through the life insurance companies.
 Dr. O. R. Dibblee and Lucius Farr Jr., representing the Alexander Optical company of Salt Lake City, have been doing business in Oakley several days this week. They left for Twin Falls on yesterday's stage. They will return here shortly, and will make Oakley regular visits three times a year hereafter.
 Oakley will yet have a band. Professors Merrill and Otte of the academy will order shortly a complete set of medium priced instruments, and sell them at cost to students of the academy. Regular practices from 4 to 5 will be held on Mondays and Wednesdays of each week. If any on the outside desire to join this organization they may do so by paying the academy registration fee—six dollars.

When you get married have your cards printed at the Eagle Office. We can please you. Call and see our samples.

The singing of the Tabernacle choir at the recent conference attracted considerable attention and much favorable comment.

The new piano at the Cassia state academy is a beauty, not only in appearance, but also in tone and the students are very proud of it.

Axel Erickson has resigned his position with the O. S. L. railroad company and will spend the winter at or near Oakley.

One insurance company has been paying an agent $35,000 a year to keep quiet. That seems more like a punishment than a reward.

Dr. N. Ray Macham and wife gave a reception anniversary of their wedding—on Wednesday evening last. Members of the family and a few invited friends regaled themselves of a bounteous repast and otherwise enjoyed the evenings entertainment. They hope that Ray will keep up the pace, and show them a good time on every anniversary—the first Wednesday in every month.

A wide-awake, aggressive newspaper is a more valuable asset to any town than a bank, postoffice, commercial club, business house or any other material thing.
 Logan Republican.

Notice.
 All accounts due me will be received during my absence by Bp. H. C. Haight.
 DR. A. F. O. NIELSON.

Beer and whiskey are not the only things for which Milwaukee and Peoria are becoming respectively famous just now.

As he went down the chute Mr Ramsey of the Wabash railroad did not even have time "to explain" that he was resigning.

Good For Locust.
 The Locust people are to be congratulated on the completion of their new schoolhouse, and the installation of their new heating plant. This is the first district in the county, it is said, to establish an up to date heating plant, and to provide a good system of ventilation. The trustees of this district Messrs. Wilson, Samuelson and Port are deserving of great credit for their foresight and wisdom, as well as for the energy, zeal and perseverance they have manifested in the erection and completion of this comfortable school building.
 The heating plant was furnished and installed by Oakley's skilled plumber Mr. West, and is said to work like a charm. The ventilation is said to be well-nigh perfect as absolutely fresh air is insured at least every thirty minutes. We hope that other districts will follow Locust's example, and even surpass her if they can.

The Snake River Implement Company—Successors to L. W. Robbins' Implement House—purchased two ideal business lots and a building in Twin Falls City on Friday last. They have secured, it is said, one of the most desirable business sites in the city, and then the purchasing terms were such as bear evidence of the business acumen of the members of this new firm. The company now has houses at Burley, Oakley and Twin Falls and expects to capture a large portion of the trade in the new irrigation project areas. We wish them unbounded success.

Locust Items.
 (From Our Regular Scribe.)

The most of the typhoid patients are able to sit up but J. J. McBrides little girl is still quite sick.

Mrs. Annie Barry received a letter from her brother that became dissatisfied and went back to N. C. two years ago, saying he and his wife had made a great mistake by going back and they would be glad to return at any time.

Word comes from Charley Jenkins that he has been operated upon at the hospital and is doing well.

M. I. A. meetings are held in the new school house until the meeting house is completed. We invite all to come at 7 o'clock sharp and help to make them a success.

Francis Samuelson is quite sick.

Aaron McBride is over the mountain at Almo putting up a rock house for Mr. Tracy.

The school teachers are boarding at the home of James Walker.

While Bishop Pickett was in Chicago he purchased a good phonograph.

Hallow e'en Party.
 A delightful hallow e'en party was given by Mrs. J. W. S. Emerson at her home on Tuesday evening. According to custom the guests were met at the gate by Mr. Ghost and conducted to the parlors which were tastefully decorated with autumn fruits and vegetables, and were lighted, of course, by the traditional Jack o' lanterns. The usual games were played, a few ghost stories were told, the candles were blown as of old, the inquisitive girls (which means all, of course) took their peep into the future, and promptly at twelve all walked home backwards, took their pinch of salt and went to bed to dream of their future husbands. Whether they did or not we

Sake River Valley for Sugar Beets.

On account of late rains the Nebraska sugar beets started a second growth, which reduced their saccharine quality 30 per cent. It came very near ruining the entire crop and will cut down the profits of sugar factories more than half. It is now quite thoroughly demonstrated that the only place to raise sugar beets successfully is in arid belt, where the water supply is under control.

A Cassia County Product.

Dr. A. F. O. Neilson, of Oakley, is Cassia county product of which we may all feel proud. He came to Cassia county as a mere boy whose only resources were a stout heart and a rugged body, accompanied by a moral character always in good running order. That is the sort of capital that will always win in any community but in Idaho and Cassia county the conditions are more favorable than in most other places. Mr. Neilson set to work out his destiny by working at anything he could find to do that would keep the wolf from the door. In the course of time he became a school teacher was elected two or three terms county superintendent. By teaching school during the winter months and attending medical school during the winter months and attending medical school during the summer time he finally graduated in medicine. He immediately began practice in the neighborhood where he had so valiantly fought his way to recognition and at once was honored with an immense practice. The Oakley people knew him and had confidence in him. Last Tuesday the doctor called to visit the Bulletin office and informed us that he was on his way to Chicago to take a post graduate course in medicine. He expects to specialize along the line of surgery.

Marion Notes.
 (From our Regular Correspondent)

Brick being scarce the Smith boys have taken to the woods. John says "I must get the house."

Mr. Ezekiel Briggs came home from his school Saturday for a short visit.

The many friends and relatives of Elder Moses Smith, who is at present in the mission office at Chattanooga, Tenn., are jubilant in the extreme from the fact that he will be home to eat Xmas dinner with his near kinsmen.

Wedding bells, wedding bells, what a song of pleasure their music tells; with flushed faces and trembling hands Miss Esther Nelson and Ed. Olsen appeared before a select party of friends and relatives at the home of the former, and answered the fatal "I will" to a marriage compact. They are both highly respected young people and we hope for them a long life of pleasure and usefulness. Ere the ecstasy had reached the normal, a carriage and four was halted at the gate and a ceremonial officer promptly escorted to a second scene of astounding propensities. The Whitby's cottage was the occasion of mingled anxiety and joy. Mr. Frank De La Mar, Oakley's tonorial artist, had made his last visit to procure the object of his love, the idol of his life, Miss Primrose Whitby. To solemnize the marriage was of little consequence compared with the worry and labor of courtship, so Frank said, and the composure of both evinced its truth. They are well-known to most of the readers of the Eagle and we wish for them unbounded happiness and prosperity.
