Report of Grand Master Shows Great Growth of Order; 500 Members in Service—Invest in Liberty Bonds.

$91,000 IN HOME FUND

Rebekah State Assembly Elects Officers and Hears Report of President—Social Function Tuesday Night a Success.

The Grand Lodge session of the I. O. O. F., opened Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A major portion of the afternoon was taken up with the report of the Grand Master, George B. Schweiger of Twin Falls, which showed that the order had experienced the most remarkable growth in its history...

The grand master recommended action in connection with the Odd Fellows Home to be built at Caldwell, announcing there was $91,000 in the home fund and the estimated cost of the building as planned and the furnishings was $125,000. The Odd Fellows membership in Idaho now numbers more than 5500.

OFFICERS ELECTED. At its session Tuesday night, the Grand Lodge elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: John P. Isaacs, Spirit Lake, grand master; Thomas E. Buckner, Caldwell, deputy grand master; M. Reese Hattabaugh, Grangeville, grand warden; Presley F. Horne, Caldwell, grand secretary; W. A. Coughanour, Payette, grand treasurer; George B. Schweiger, Ashton, grand representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge for the one year term and General Frank Martin, grand representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge for the two year term.

REBEKAHS ELECT. The Rebekah State Assembly elected its officers Tuesday afternoon as follows: Mrs. Lillian Lanktree of Emmett, president; Mrs. Bertha Bowby of Rupert, vice president; Mrs. Ella M. Farmin of Sandpoint, warden; Mrs. Frances Croson of Riverside, secretary; Miss Leahy Simpson of Boise, treasurer; Mrs. Sarah P. Driscoll of Payette, trustee; Mrs. J. P. Burns was elected musician for the assembly and Mrs. Margaret Pomeroy delegate to the national assembly to be held at Baltimore.

Scrivener were working. The injuries are not serious but painful. D. R. Hubbard left Monday for American Falls on business connected with farm loans.

A daughter was born Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. James Arnett. The baby died immediately and was buried Monday in the Kuna cemetery. The mother, Anna Reynolds Arnett, is seriously ill at her parents' home. The father was in France when last heard from.

Wallace Craig is visiting at the J. F. Hogue home, also with his son Vernal, who lives with Mr. and Mrs. William Syra.

W. H. Beckdolt is out again after an attack of influenza. Mrs. J. Beckdolt is improving as are all other flu patients in town except Wayne Bell whose condition is unchanged.

The Kuna schools plan to reopen Monday, Jan. 27.

Mrs. Thomas Green died Monday afternoon from influenza and complications.

BASKET BALL LEAGUE WILL BEGIN SCHEDULE TONIGHT AT Y. M. C. A.

The fast Up-to-Date team will clash with the White-Runyon five, and the Boise-Payette aggregation will tangle with the Idaho Power company quintet at the opening of the Commercial Basketball league at the Y. M. C. A. tonight, the first game being set for 8:30 sharp.

Governor D. W. Davis, donor of a handsome loving cup to be given to the league champion, will throw up the sphere between the centers, and thus start off the league schedule. Both games will be played after the annual banquet of the association.

Games will be played each Wednesday night at the "Y." Many fast players have been signed up, and the race for the gonfalon should be fast and furious from start to finish.

"BABE" BROWN WILL TAKE ON FAST SWEDISH WRESTLER OLSEN SOON

Charley Olsen, fast mat artist who will wrestle "Cyclone" Workman at Nampa Thursday night, winner take all, will probably be matched with the speedy local boy, "Babe" Brown, in a match that will be pulled here in the very near future.

Olsen represented this country in the Olympic games at Stockholm, Sweden, in 1912, and is a fast, shifty piece of wrestling machinery who knows all the tricks in the game. He has met and defeated some of the best in the business, and wrestled Walno Ketonen, considered the best of the present day champions, for two hours and 40 minutes without a fall. He weighs 168, stripped. Brown weighs in the neighborhood of 174.

Brown is a promising youth who only needs more experience to make a reputation for himself, and a match between he and Olsen should be a classy exhibition. Nick Collins will probably promote the match.

SCHOOL BILL IN HOUSE TO CAUSE LIVELY DEBATE

Proposes to Change Present System of Providing Funds for Support of Public Schools in Idaho.

It is anticipated that the Hunt-Nielson-Monson bill introduced in the house of representatives, providing for a complete change in the present system of providing funds for the support of the schools, making a direct state tax, will cause a lively discussion before the present legislature. This is not the first time the change has been proposed. For the last several sessions similar bills have been introduced but were not passed.

The real object of the bill, it is said, is to provide for a fairer and more equitable distribution of school funds, so that all may be treated alike. It is claimed that under the present system school districts fortunate in having heavy assessed valuations, such as railroad mileage, raise a surplus for the support of their schools, in proportion to their valuation, while other districts having no public utilities on which to assess, but with large school populations, are badly handicapped for want of funds.

The new bill changes this by substituting the following system as outlined in its provisions:

"The state board of equalization shall levy annually upon all the taxable property within the state an amount which, when added to the income derived from the common school fund, will produce a fund sufficient to provide $20 per capita for all children of school age in the state.

"The state board of education shall annually certify on or before the fourth Monday of August, to the state board of equalization, the school census of the state, showing the total number of children of school age, and the income from the state school fund for the preceding 12 months, together with an estimate of the income from said school fund for the ensuing 12 months."

Four years ago the state board of education recommended the passage of a similar act, but it did not survive both houses.

WOMAN VOTERS PLAN BANQUET: HEAR PROGRAM ON PROPOSED NEW LAW

The Susan B. Anthony banquet on February 15 was decided upon Tuesday night at a meeting of the Council of Woman Voters, held in the city hall.

The program of the evening was purely legislative, and in addition to the bills already before the legislature, in which women are especially interested, the council voted to have their legislative committee draw a bill prohibiting the employment of girls in cigar stands and places which are only frequented by men.

Mrs. Carrie Harper White and Dr. Emma Drake, the women legislators, spoke on measures introduced by them, the former the homestead law and the latter on her bill abolishing capital punishment. Miss Fannie Irvin spoke on needed legislation for the traveling library, and Miss Mahan on the administration measure.

PLAN FINAL ACTION IN DRAINING 1000 ACRES LANDS NEAR PAYETTE

Payette, Jan. 22.—At a meeting to be held here next Monday final action by the settlers is to be taken in the matter of draining Payette on the north and west. A district has been organized under the name of Drainage District No. 1 of Payette county. This district connects with Crystal drainage district comprising 1500 acres.

It is believed the settlers will vote in favor of draining district No. 1. The land under this project is said to need both surface and under surface drainage. M. G. Riebeling of Payette, is the attorney for the petitioners. F. H. Lyon, Ira W. Kenwood and John H. Norris are the attorneys for the objectors.

MINIMUM SCHOOL TERMS NECESSARY

This Construction Placed on Law if Districts Expect to Share in State and County Funds—Trustees Given Implied Power.

If school trustees are responsible for closing schools in their districts and fail to hold the minimum terms of nine and seven months they are not entitled to participate in either state or county funds, but if their schools are closed by order of the health authorities so they cannot hold the minimum terms then they may participate in both funds. An opinion to this effect was handed to Miss Ethel E. Redfield, state superintendent of public instruction by the attorney general's department late Tuesday afternoon.

The holding is in substance that the trustees of both common and independent school districts have implied power to suspend school temporarily any time, subject only to the absolute requirement that not less than the minimum term of seven or nine months, as the case may be, be held during the year.

Trustees of neither class of districts have any power to suspend school for such a length of time as would invade the minimum term for the year. The minimum term is seven months in school districts having less than 75 pupils and nine months in districts having more than that number. On the other hand, the local health authorities have express power to close the schools at any time and for any length of time.

If the schools are closed by order of the health authorities, as distinguished from the district trustees, the school receives its share of both county and state funds, but, on the other hand, if the district trustees themselves keep the school closed to such an extent that the minimum term is not held, the district is entitled to participate in neither the state nor county funds.

CENTRAL HIGHWAY IS DESIGNATED

State Highway Commission Establishes Route Via Hailey—Cataldo Bridge Contract Let to Lewiston Firm.

The old state highway commission, in session Tuesday afternoon at the statehouse, definitely established the route of the Idaho central highway as extending from Mountain Home through Elmore, Camas and Blaine counties via Hailey, Payette and Carey, through Butte county by way of Hows and Fremont county by way of Dubois, connecting with the Idaho-Montana highway.

The contract for the construction of the Cataldo bridge across the Coeur d'Alene river in Kootenai county was let to the Security Bridge company of Lewiston. Authority was given to the secretary to advertise for bids for four miles of highway from the Albion Highway district line to Declo, to connect with the Idaho-Pacific highway. The Burley highway district will pay the cost, about $25,000.

The commission plans the drafting of a bill to enforce traffic regulations, power that it does not now have. Present at the meeting were W. A. Erod, head of Mackay, R. O. Jones, secretary of state, and H. C. Allen, state highway engineer.

BOISE COUNCIL TO ASK CHANGE IN LAWS

City Decided to Memorialize Legislature to Amend Two Statutes and Protest Against Passage of Another.

At a meeting of the city council Tuesday afternoon, the members agreed to memorialize the legislature in session now regarding three bills of interest to the city of Boise; amendments to two of them being requested of the law-makers.

The bills which it is requested be changed are as follows: The law requiring a two-thirds vote of the taxpayers of a municipality on bond issues.

Amendment of highway laws which will re-allot the auto tax division between city and county.

The council will protest to the legislature against the passage of a bill now pending making the positions of city clerk and city treasurer elective.

The council is also of the opinion that the two-thirds vote necessary now for bond issues is discriminatory, and the city attorney will be instructed to draw up an amendment to present laws, making a majority vote sufficient on bond flotations.

Mayor S. H. Hays talked at length upon the matter of returned soldiers and sailors securing employment, saying that many of them who were forced by the city, he declared the bureaus in the city are doing good work in placing men, and that he did not deem it necessary at this time to advocate the starting of any road work to provide employment, as was suggested by a communication from a local labor union asking that special efforts be made to start work and provide employment for the men.

Councilman W. D. Stevens brought up the subject of the inefficiency of lights on city street intersections. Mayor Hays will take the matter up with the power company, and endeavor to remedy the trouble.

The council ratified a recommendation from Chief W. A. Foster of the local fire department asking the reinstatement of C. R. Kennedy, Roy Palmer and Frank Jackson in the department, the men having enlisted in the army and returned to their duties here. Five more will return in the very near future; 15 of the members of the department having gone into service, but many enlisting the navy for a four-year term.

The council declared a public nuisance a barn situated on Dora street between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, and the owner will be asked to remove it.

FREAK ADVERTISING PLACED UNDER BAN

Solicitors Must Have Approval of Boise Ad Club—Earl Wayland Bowman Given First Honorary Membership.

By EARLE F. BRADEN.

The recreation of associate memberships in the Boise Ad club to be open to invited merchants of the city, was determined upon at the club's meeting Tuesday. These memberships on the part of merchants will be evidenced by large cards issued by the organization, to be conspicuously displayed in the offices of such merchants.

Behind the plan of these memberships is the big idea to keep advertising appropriations of such merchants from being invaded by freak and other illegitimate advertising schemes, to end that advertising will be limited to recognized channels and will be kept clean. A condition to membership will be the merchant's agreement to require of all advertising solicitors, other than those representing recognized sources, to first have the written approval of their propositions from the Ad club before such propositions will even be discussed by the merchants.

There was so much ginger at Tuesday's meeting that it was hard to crowd into the allotted hour and 15 minutes for the meeting all of the constructive things the members were desirous of presenting.

Contest conditions covering the slogan plan of the club were made the special order for next week's meeting, following which time the contest will be gotten under way.

Recognition of the work done by Earl Wayland Bowman in a publicity way for Boise and Idaho, and particularly in connection with war work, won for him the first honorary membership in the club, that was in fact created in his behalf. Following the unanimous vote to accord him this distinction and upon the call of "speech," Idaho's poet was so overcome by the entirely unexpected compliment that he had difficulty in telling the members how greatly he appreciated what they had done for him. Tuesday's discussion was largely of subjects that must necessarily for a few days be kept quiet, but the public may be assured that the club is on the point of pulling something that it believes will get Boise "on the wire" and make it a much talked of town from coast to coast.
