SUNDAY MARKS BIG CHURCH DAY

WILD NIGHT IS EXPERIENCED BY INDIANAPOLIS RESIDENTS

LYNCHING ATTEMPTED

2,000 Storm Jail to Get Colored Ravisher; One Negro Is Shot.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 23.—After a night in which an unorganized mob of more than 2,000 persons attempted to storm the Marion county jail to get William Ray, 19, confessed negro slayer of 14-year-old Martha Huff, white girl, and thousands gathered around the downtown district were dispersed by mounted police and police reserves, Indianapolis was quiet today.

OAK GLENN IS NEARLY WIPED OUT

West Hammond's fire department received a call for help yesterday afternoon from Oak Glenn which is a part of the town of Lansing, Ill. A shed in the west part of the town was burning and as Lansing has no fire fighting equipment, it was realized at once that the situation was critical.

SUGAR HOGS ARE ARRESTED TODAY

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 24.—Government agents today charged six sugar dealers, three wholesalers, Schmidt and Ziegler, Charles Russell and Sons and Gordon and McCall, with pyramiding the margins in sugar and three retailers, Eugene Raboul and Son, H. A. Zahn and A. Tradico, with profiteering in sugar.

PACKER HEADS ARE INDICTED

NEW YORK, April 23.—Heads of the Brooklyn branches of Armour & Co., Swift & Co. and Wilson & Co. packers, were today indicted by the federal grand jury in Brooklyn on charges of profiteering in the sale of meat.

His Name Didn't Mean Anything

Pullman Porter Finds "Pleasant" Just a Password to Bad Luck.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Peeking covertly about him, an Ethiopian individual stole from the Pullman car "Baehus" early today with a large suitcase. Nearing the entrance to the railroad yards he was halted by a prohibition agent, who demanded to inspect the contents. The inspection revealed twenty-four pints of moonshine.

Important Sanitary Meeting

North Township Cities To Discuss Joint Sanitary District Tonight.

Official representatives of Hammond, East Chicago and Whiting together with representatives of the commercial organizations of the three cities, and some interested citizens will meet tonight at the East Chicago city hall for discussion of the sanitary district which has been under consideration for the past few years.

CARRIERS MAY ADOPT GRAY DENIM

Postal employees of Hammond will decide tonight whether they will embrace the new overall fad which at present is spreading to all parts of the country. A ruling issued this week by the Assistant Postmaster General grants employees the privilege in discarding the regular postman's uniform for gray overalls if the men as a body so desire.

REPEAL DAYLIGHT SAVING ACT

ALBANY, N. Y., April 23.—The assembly today passed the Epwiler bill repealing the daylight savings law by a vote of 58 to 35. The measure gives municipalities the right to determine for themselves the retention or repeal of the daylight law. The bill now goes to the governor.

AUTO ACCIDENT

While driving his automobile east on 5th avenue yesterday morning James Herbert, 1601 Carolina street, Gary, crashed into a horse and buggy, smashing the buggy and receiving minor injuries.

LOWDEN IN LAKE COUNTY SATURDAY

Word was received in Lake county by Lowden managers that Gov. Lowden is sick in bed and will be unable to carry out his speaking engagements in the county tomorrow.

Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, candidate for president on the republican ticket will come to Lake county tomorrow for a day's speaking tour and his itinerary has been arranged as follows: Indiana Harbor about noon. Crown Point about 3 p. m. Gary (Armory Hall) about 8 p. m.

WHAT WILL COMMISSION DO OVER FARES?

Citizens of Hammond, Whiting and East Chicago are anxiously waiting for the Indiana Public Service Commission's announcement of the date of the hearing on the petition of the H. W. & E. C. Ry. Co. for an increase in the fares. The petition of the company to have the commission assume jurisdiction in the matter was filed at Indianapolis Wednesday and it is believed that the hearing will be held about the middle of May.

HAMMOND WOMAN IS NAMED IN DIVORCE SUIT

Making dates with Mrs. Jewel Joyce of Hammond and going to dances and cabarets with her in Hammond, Gary, South Chicago and Chicago and buying bouquets of flowers for the "Jewel" are some of the reasons named today by Neva May Landell, of Gary, for wanting a divorce from her husband, Emil Nathaniel Landell. Emil called her dirty names, hit her in the face with his fists while she was in bed and limited the grocery and milk bill to a dollar a day, the plaintiff avers.

REAR ADMIRAL KILLS HIMSELF

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Rear Admiral C. L. Brittain, chief of staff to the commander of the Atlantic fleet, shot himself and died instantly yesterday afternoon, according to a cablegram received today by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, from Admiral Wilson at Guantanamo Bay. No details were given. The body is being shipped to the U. S. on board the Solace.

PETERSBURG, Ind., April 23.—Peb Tyler, son of George Tyler, of Augusta and Sophia Bush, daughter of John Bush of Augusta, were married here by the Rev. Golden Smith, at the clerk's office yesterday afternoon.

REFUSE TO GO BACK TO WORK

CHICAGO, April 23.—Fifteen thousand striking "outlaw" switchmen, called to a huge peace meeting today by John Granam, their president, smashed the hopes of their leaders that they would end the walkout when, shouting a fierce refusal to return to work, they rose to unanimously vote to adjourn.

SPECTACULAR CONVENTION IS PROMISED

Bryan and Edwards Expected to Clash Over Wet-Dry Plank in Frisco Platform.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Now that returns from Nebraska have made it certain that William Jennings Bryan will be one of the delegates-at-large to San Francisco, politicians here foresee one of the most sensational conventions in the history of the party. The Anti-Saloon League has summoned its forces for a descent upon both Chicago and San Francisco where every atom of its strength will be used, not only to keep out of the party platform anything approaching a "wet" plank, but to have inserted, if possible, a distinctly "dry" one.

U. S. OFFICIALS ASK FOR AMERICAN WARSHIPS

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The state department this afternoon requested the navy department to send two light draft gunboats to Mazatlan and Topolobampo on the West coast of Mexico. The general attitude of the state department was that the request for warships was a matter not to be taken too seriously, and it is evident that the state department was not anxious to create any unusual comment on the matter.

MEXICAN JUDGE IN TROUBLE OVER WOMAN

DOUGLAS, ARIZONA, April 23.—Ignazio Posqueria, chief justice of the Mexican supreme court, was arrested here today by agents of the U. S. department of justice. His arrest is said to be in connection with allegations that he brought a woman into the U. S. from Mexico, and transported her from Laredo, Tex., to Douglas. The woman in the case, also seized here, gives the name of Maria Rodriguez.

WAR ON SPUDS STARTS IN SOUTH

ATLANTA, Ga., April 23.—Local restaurateurs and a number of hotels have declared war on the solanum tuberosum, placing the following conspicuous signs in nearly all eateries: "We will not serve Irish potatoes in any form until the prices are more nearly normal. Eat sweet potatoes, a Georgia product."

HOW A SENATOR LOOKS IN OVERALLS

Senator Sheppard inspecting Senator Dial's overalls. U. S. Senator Nathaniel B. Dial of South Carolina is the leader of the overall movement in the senate. He was accosted on the street by Senator Sheppard of Texas, who was skeptical at first but after a careful examination decided to adopt blue denim as his congressional uniform.

5 P.M. NEWS FLASHES

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The United States destroyer Salem and McCawley will leave San Diego harbor at 1 o'clock this afternoon, bound for Mazatlan, Mexico, pursuant to orders from the navy department received today. The stock market closed weak today. The list was under increased pressure in the last hour, although some rallies occurred at the close. Steel common was forced down to 95 1/2, but rallied to 96 1/2.

WOOD IN GARY NEXT THURS. NIGHT

Valparaiso will be Leonard Wood's first stopping place next Thursday, April 23rd, when he is scheduled to appear in Lake county. He will arrive at Valpo at 10:30 in the morning where he will speak at a noon meeting. From Valparaiso he will journey to Michigan City where he will speak in the afternoon and will then skip back to Gary where he will attend a 4 o'clock dinner and will speak at a mass meeting at the Dorman and Sykes Fifth avenue garage at 8 p. m. sharp.

POOR CITY FOR RESTAURANTS

NEW YORK, April 23.—Petrograd was painted as a city of starving multitude, lacking all the necessities of life, by Lieut. Angus T. Ward, of Chicago just returned today from 15 months service in Russia with the American Relief Expedition. He declared the conditions in Moscow were beyond belief and that the entire nation was practically famished, fuelless and factoryless.

WOOD DENIES ANY REPORT OF BREACH

MARLETTA, Ok., April 23.—Any intimation that a breach had occurred between Gen. W. C. Proctor and Frank Hitchcock, my campaign managers, is unauthenticated and may be characterized as enemy campaign propaganda, said Gen. Leonard Wood, when questioned about a controversy between his two campaign managers. "Nothing in it at all," said Wood. "To my certain knowledge Gen. Proctor and Mr. Hitchcock are united in promoting my candidacy."

NEW YORK HEARS REPORT

NEW YORK, April 23.—Despite the denial from Gen. Wood that there had been any split between Frank H. Hitchcock, his field manager, and Col. Wm. Cooper Proctor, chairman of the Wood campaign committee, the report that Hitchcock and Proctor are fastly at odds persisted in political circles here today. Col. Proctor was to leave for Chicago, where he is scheduled for a conference with Gen. Wood. This conference, it is reported, was called by Gen. Wood, who wants to patch up the differences between his campaign leaders.

EXPECT LONG STRUGGLE

Expecting a long and drawn out rail strike, it was learned yesterday that several hundred workmen, the majority of whom were employed in the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company, have left the city in search of employment in some of the eastern cities. According to reports coming from the plant yesterday many of the men that left the city were rollers and skilled workmen. Although handicapped with a shortage, the American Sheet and Tin Plate company which shut down light following the strike is now working 12 mills and is planning on opening 1 more by the first of next week.
