Gilson, Mrs. Hickok, Mrs. D. Hirsch, Mrs. Chartier, Mrs. Flynn, Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Davies, Mrs. Lund and Miss Dollie Knotts. Too high praise cannot be given to the committees for their successful manner in handling the large number of guests and members. The Christmas thought was beautifully carried out in decorations, small lighted Xmas trees ornamented the tables and the favors were spigs of holly. After the luncheon a great deal of amusement was aroused by the Xmas grab bag in charge of Mrs. Charles Wilson and Mrs. R. H. Harrington. After calling the club to order Mrs. J. O. Thompson, president, invited the following prominent guests to the platform and in her usual pleasing way introduced them to the audience. Mrs. J. C. Gibbs, first vice president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, who gave a short and very pleasing address, telling the members that the Woman's Club of Kokomo wouldn't take "No" for an answer to an invitation to hold the convention there next year and how the homes were to be opened to all visitors. Mrs. Ethel and Mrs. Minnie Kline of the Litchfield, Mrs. J. A. Patterson, county secretary, Mrs. Canine, president of East Chicago Woman's Club, and Mrs. Jennie Wheeler of Crown Point. Mrs. Wheeler announced she would like to have all information in regard to all war activities, news and names of all soldiers and sailors in Lake county sent to her as soon as possible for the state records. Mrs. C. Rucker Adams, chautauque lecturer and member of the National Speakers' league of Florida, addressed the club with warm greetings from the land of sunshine and fruit. Mrs. Adams stated the Woman's Clubs of Florida meant as much to the people of the state as the sunshine did to the earth. The following program, in charge of Mrs. O. C. E. Mathies, was most highly appreciated: The solos rendered by Mrs. Alice Gear Ferguson of Gary, accompanied by Mrs. Lida Breckenridge White of Gary were as follows: (a) Passing By; (b) When Love Is Kind; two French selections. (a) Chaminade; (b) Welbruck; two Christmas carols. (a) Old English Carol by Walthall; (b) Old French Carol by Lehman. Responding with an encore, The Little Irish Girl; after a short intermission Mrs. Ferguson gave an imitation of Mr. Dooley, a satire called, Mr. Dooley on the four-minute men. This is one of her own compositions and was received with much applause and laughter. The second part of the program was a group of original songs, the music of which was written by Mrs. White: (a) Gypsying; (b) Friendship Song; (c) Isn't It True?; (d) Johnny Darlint; (e) Lass With The Smile; (f) Little Miss Breeze; followed by original readings, which displayed Mrs. Ferguson's remarkable ability. (a) "A Tribute to Captain Knyvitta." This is truly a gem as the poem, "In Flander's Fields," the rendering of which by Captain Knyvitta at Gary shortly before his death, inspired Mrs. Ferguson to write the poem. (b) "To The First Hundred Thousand." Mrs. Ferguson then sang "The Americans Come" and closed her program with two original songs, "My Mother" and "Some Sister." Mrs. Thompson closed the afternoon's entertainment with this selection: "Put the true Christmas spirit. Into everything you do. Then you'll find it will be Christmas In your heart, the whole year through." The club adjourned to meet again after the Christmas vacation. MRS. POWLEY, Reporter for the day. Mrs. J. J. Anderson's display of hand-painted china on exhibit in the store, 625 Ann street. 12-16-18. Corns, Bunions and Ingrown Nails removed. Flat feet treated. 412 Hammond Bldg. Honors 7 to 9 p. m. J. T.
