LIVE NEWS FROM THE TWIN CITIES

SCOUT BAND PRACTICE.
The first band practice of the Boy Scout Band will be held at the Elks hall next Friday evening at 8:30 p. m. Mr. Albert Cook, well known in East Chicago as the director of the Elks Band, will have charge of the instruction. It is expected that about thirty or thirty-five Scouts will start instruction at this meeting.

On account of the Hammond and East Chicago basketball game this evening Troop 4 and Sea Scout Troop Twenty-one will not hold their meetings as scheduled. The Scouts will attend the game and help East Chicago put over a victory.

Much progress is being made in the organization of the Troop Committee of St. Mary's church and it is expected that a meeting of the boys to organize the troop may be held next week.

The Boy Scouts of St. Stanislaus school are very much elated of the recent arrival of Father Godczek as assistant at their church. Father Godczek is an experienced Scout leader and will supervise the Scout work in St. Stanislaus parish.

OPEN HAMMOND OFFICE
Dr. Eli Levin, former intern at the Inland mill hospital, with Dr. J. W. Rites, a former East Chicago man, have opened offices at 4 State street, in Hammond. Both men graduated from East Chicago high school in the same year and both are graduates of the Illinois Medical College. They both served as first lieutenants in the medical corps during the war.

WILL OPEN NIGHT SCHOOLS
The East Chicago Board of Education is endorsing the Americanization movement which has been started by Mr. Goldman under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce signified their willingness to open night schools in an effort to help the Americanization program. All that the board asks of the Americanization leaders is that an attendance be assured and that once the classes have been started the persons in attendance continue until the entire course has been completed.

The evening classes will be started under competent instructors as soon as the leasing of the movement will assure the board of a sufficient number of students.

SPEAKS AT MEETING
Dr. A. G. Beskid formerly congressman of Hungary and representative of the Slavs at the peace conference in Paris will tomorrow night address a mass meeting in East Chicago at the Holy Ghost Greek Catholic Russian Church at the corner of 14th and O'cott avenue. Dr. Beskid is president of the Soviet of Carpatho-Russia (Ruthenia) and will speak in the interests of that country. He came to the United States about two months ago.

The meeting will start about seven o'clock and at the conclusion a party including the speaker will have a dinner party.

A number of members of Al-Hassan

Grotto will tonight leave East Chicago at six o'clock to attend the ceremonial of Arjan Grotto of Chicago. Henry W. Peterson, secretary of Al-Hassan Grotto has received an announcement of the ceremonial and vaudeville in which all Grotto members are invited to attend.

NEW JOB FOR FIREMEN
The East Chicago Board of Works yesterday voted to purchase a United States flag for the city hall and directed that the fire department take charge of raising and lowering it each day.

The hearing on remonstrances on assessments on the Public Road was continued until Thursday, February 25th. Josef Kosnia and Anton Burton were awarded $2,000 for damages to their property by the opening and widening of Biekey Place.

The Board of Safety which met directly after the adjournment of the Board of Works found Captain Tom Downey guilty of the charges preferred against him by Alice Clark and sentenced him to one day's suspension without pay. The suspension will be on March 1. The awarding of contract for 2,000 feet of fire hose was

Mrs. Charles Benford of Ivy was surprised last evening by a large gathering of friends, associate members of the Indiana Harbor Review Macabees. The evening was pleasantly spent in various ways and forms of entertainment with delightful refreshments served. This organization merits quite a status for holding complimentary affairs from time to time on their various members and when the occasion affords.

Mrs. Thomas McLahon, of 14th st., who contracted scarlet fever from her three children, ill with it, and now convalescent, is not quite so fortunate in surmounting the train of difficulties this malady always entails when it attacks the adult person. She has been very ill and her mother, Mrs. Nora Arthey is assisting in the care and quarantining in with the rest of the family. The worst affliction under embatement now is the arisal area which, is occasioning much alarm.

Mrs. R. W. W. Atcherson, of Grape vine st., is among the newly reported cases of those ill on the Harbor side. The ladies of the East Chicago Methodist church will meet Wednesday of next week at Pastor Jones' residence in Beacon st. and formulate plans which will be carried out for the season at hand and the many weeks to come when activities will be of a less or social nature.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Reppa of Melville ave., have returned from Winchester, Pa., where they were summoned on account of the death of Mrs. Reppa's sister. Mrs. Reppa suffered the loss of a sister a year ago also.

CROWN POINT
Do you know that the Sterling Woolen Mills, 171 State street, Hammond, have 600 different styles of cloth suitable for your Spring Suit. Easter Sunday is less than six weeks away—get busy and investigate. If you haven't ordered yet, ask your neighbor about them. 2-23 cod

LOWELL
Mrs. R. T. Sanders went to Rose Lawn yesterday to visit her niece, Mrs. Tracy Farley, who is very seriously sick. She had a stroke of paralysis Sunday.

Charles Sheard went to Indianapolis on business last evening.

Dr. J. A. Dinwiddie went to Chicago last evening to attend a dental meeting which is in session yesterday and today.

George J. Hoover went to Chicago on business yesterday.

Mrs. Mildred Carstens returned to her home in Chicago yesterday after a visit here.

The parent-teachers held their regular meeting Monday evening. The program was given by the pupils of the high school. The program was well rendered and was very pleasing to the large audience.

Better call up The Times and have it sent to your house every night. Then you'll be sure it will be there.
