HAMMOND MAN LANDS IN BASTILE

Daggers and Young Cannons Adorn Person of John Doe, Who Was Ready For Trouble at Crown Point-Hammond Ball Game.

Crown Point, Ind., May 15.—Gollmar Bros. circus which recently exhibited in Hammond must be minus their sword swallower and gun man if one John Doe person arrested here yesterday at the ball game, is correct in his impression that he traveled with the circus troupe.

He was arrested on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. The sheriff's force however ought to be lenient with Mr. John Doe, for any man who could successfully conceal the armament that he carried on his person is a genius and could be used to success in transporting arms across the Mexican border.

A BELATED EXPLANATION

Robert O'Connor of the Finneran-Carmody triumvirate said in Hammond today that an injustice had been done him by the statement that he was to be sued for a thirty dollar hospital bill, which accrued when his wife lay dying at St. Margaret's hospital and while he was mixed up in the Heins' wine-room case. He said the money was now in the hands of an attorney to be paid the institution, but upon questioning admitted that he had only placed the money in the attorney's hands on Saturday.

LATEST NEWS

Washington, D. C., May 15.—The Gompers case was today remanded by the Supreme Court to the lower court with instructions to impose a fine instead of imprisonment for contempt of court in the famous Buck's Stove Co. case of St. Louis.

Westville, Ind., May 15.—The discovery of a large quantity of gunpowder, dynamite and fuse in the barn of Henry Harrold here leads the police to believe robbers are in this vicinity planning another attack on the local bank. When the bank was entered before, Wesley Reynolds, a boy watchman, was killed in a pistol fight. Herrold is a wealthy resident and the citizens are aroused at the supposed robbers' "cache."

New York, May 15.—"It is simply another disappointment. The body is not that of Dorothy Arnold." This was the declaration today of John Arnold, brother of the missing New York woman, after a night passed in examining clothing and jewelry of a young woman whose body was found in the East river late yesterday.

Goshen, Ind., May 15.—Myrtle Arnold, a comely young widow of Goshen, whose husband, Frank Arnold, died a year ago, has filed surety of the peace proceedings against her brother-in-law, Charles Arnold. She alleges that he demanded that she marry him and threatened to kill her with a knife when she refused. Arnold has been arrested.

Juarez, Mex., May 15.—From a scene of jubilation over rebel victory this city has suddenly been transformed into an armed camp awaiting attack. News that Generals Rabago and Luque have effected a junction of their federal forces south of here and are moving rapidly for a bold stroke to recapture the city has today diverted Badero from new dickering for peace and from the internecine turmoils in which he and his leading lieutenants have become embroiled. Residents of the town, who have barely caught their breath since last week's three days of battling, are again in alarm over the prospects of renewed carnage in the streets.

The golden jubilee of Cardinal Gibbons' ordination to the priesthood and the silver jubilee of his elevation to the cardinalate was celebrated in New York. The number of such ceremonies at Rome was carried out.
