A LONG FELT WANT.

Yesterday this paper carried the news that there is to be built in Gary at a cost of $40,000 a twenty-apartment house, each apartment having four rooms each. Residential buildings of this character are much needed in Gary. This one will help to supply a want of long standing and owner and tenants will benefit from its erection. It is safe to say that the net income from this building will be very high, although the rents will be reasonable. The big apartment house with small apartments has been demonstrated a great success in Chicago and New York. Why can't it be made so in Lake county.

COUNTRY CLUB PLANS SUCCEED.

Hammond's capacity for doing big things was never more splendidly demonstrated than in the country club project. It is really remarkable that thirty-six Hammond men could be induced to subscribe $2,000 each to aid a scheme that is primarily a social project and secondarily an investment. But Hammond has risen to the occasion and all of the broad acres across from Homewood in Illinois will soon be converted into attractive country club grounds.

The fact should not be overlooked that the project was made possible by the enterprise of John E. Fitzgerald, F. S. Betz, A. M. Turner, W. H. Gostlin, Peter W. Meyn, Fred Mott and a few others who first financed the purchase of the property and afterwards sold it to the country club at cost.

Then as a result of the activity of those who have taken up the country club project the city of Hammond will soon be the only town in the middle west to have an intown country club.

BLACK DIRT AND SAND.

The Gary board of education is in the market for 400 or 500 car-loads of black soil, 12,000 yards in all, for which it is willing to pay about a dollar a yard. This black earth is needed as a top dressing for the sandy surroundings at the new Froebel school.

We also note that Chicago is in the market for more sand. Gary will supply some of it, but when it comes to black dirt the outside will have to come to the rescue. We now witness the spectacle of black soil communities clamoring for sand and this sandy municipality buying black dirt at a high cost.

Can't we trade a lot of sand for some black dirt?

RANDOM THINGS AND FLINGS

ELINOR Glynn has written another naughty book. Police! Police!!

WE are to have the "revised" skirt this winter. Wonder whether it will be revised up or down?

THERE is little betting on the outcome of the Gary bribery trials. As a rule people seldom bet on a pipe.

IN the meantime, what does our own little Madeline Force think of marriage as far as she has gone?

SOMEBODY suggests that Italy at least should have waited until Thanksgiving before beginning war on Turkey.

PRESIDENT Taft had to shuck his silk hat while talking to the Kansas insurgents and that is how hot Kansas is.

THERE are more little picayunish school boy threats banded about in the Gary graft cases than you can shake a stick at.

SUBSCRIBER asks us to rake the boxing game fore and aft again. This is the land of the free and the home of the brave, isn't it ho?

THE esteemed Indianapolis News is still running a "wet" and "dry" column. Evidently there are some thirsts that cannot be quenched.

HAVING seen a picture of Miss Blanche Scott in her aviation attire, we are convinced more than ever that Blanche is a regular little balloon herself.

GERMS in kisses and germs in handshakes. But a lot the present generation or the generation to come care about the germs when they make love.

TALK about the Mona Lisa smile. It doesn't begin to compare with the smile on the face of the man who stole the "power" of the champion of the "peepul."

WE are bending strenuous efforts to abolish war, but in modern times war kills its thousands, while preventable accident kills its tens of thousands.

THIS IS MY 63RD BIRTHDAY.

T. P. O'Connor.
 Thomas Power O'Connor, the noted journalist and Irish parliamentary leader, was born in Athlone, October 5, 1848. His education was obtained at the College of the Immaculate Conception, Athlone, and Queen's College, Galway, from which he was graduated in his eighteenth year. He entered journalism as a reporter on a Dublin newspaper in 1867, and migrated to London in search of a situation in 1870. Subsequently Mr. O'Connor was employed in the London office of the New York Herald. He entered the British house of commons for Galway in 1880, and in 1885 was returned for both Galway and Liverpool. He chose the latter constituency, which he continued to represent for many years. As a journalist he is known throughout the English-speaking world. He was the founder of no fewer than eight daily and weekly journals that now exist in the British metropolis. Mr. O'Connor was married in 1885 to Miss Beasy Pascall of Austin, Texas. Both he and his wife have paid frequent visits to America.

Obadiah Gardner, the new senator from Maine, is a practical farmer.

A meeting of progressive Republicans of Minnesota is to be held in St. Paul on October 30 to promote the La Follette presidential candidacy.

ARREST FAKE SALESWOMAN.

A woman giving the name of Mrs. Alia Chrisman and saying she was 50 years old was arrested at Michigan City yesterday on charges of a wholesale fleecing of housewives by a fake soliciting scheme. It is alleged she took orders for silk skirts and other articles of wearing apparel, collecting advance payments in any amount she could get, and promising to have the goods shipped from New York. Scores of women reported to the police that they had been duped. The woman admitted to the police that she had been taking fake orders and that she had operated in the state of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan and South Bend and LaPorte before she came to Michigan City.

ARRESTED FOR GIVING DRINK.

Ernest Weber, 17 years old, is dead from the supposed effects of alcoholic poisoning. Frank Burns, William Casey and Charles Codrington have been arrested, and at police headquarters at Richmond it is said they will likely be charged with involuntary manslaughter. It is reported that the men admit having given the Weber lad whiskey.

Weber and two companions were driving south of Richmond, when they met the three men now under arrest. The men desired to ride and the boys accommodated them, in return for which the men gave them a whiskey bottle from which they drank. Weber became unconscious from the effects of what he drank, and was found dead during the night.

WAIVES PRELIMINARY TRIAL.

William Lee, of Boonville, who has confessed to killing his father, mother and brother while they were sleeping, has waived preliminary hearing and will not be brought to Boonville until Oct. 12, when his trial will begin. The preliminary was to have been held yesterday. The grand jury which will inquire into the case was to have convened yesterday, but Prosecutor Ora Davis caused a postponement until Oct. 9th.

ENDANGER LIFE AND PROPERTY.

Floods in Lawrence county are endangering life and property. All the streams have spread their waters over the bottom lands and swept away standing corn. Several persons have narrowly escaped drowning.

High water washed out part of the bridge of the Southeastern railroad, and an engine attached to a freight train went down into the muddy water. The engineer and fireman barely reached shore alive. They jumped when the bridge gave way and swam to land after a struggle against the strong current.

NEGRO BECOMING WHITE.

William Arnold, of Bloomington, age sixty, a colored drayman, is gradually turning white. Following an illness which was believed to be tuberculosis, white spots appeared on his hands. The skin became tender and the white spots grew larger. At the same time Arnold improved in health until he is now in excellent physical condition. His body is covered with large white spots which are so tender he is compelled to protect his hands and face from the sun.

Members of the faculty of Indiana university have tested his blood and are now observing the various stages of his transfiguration. Their blood tests show nothing out of the normal condition.

CRUSHED BY FALLING TREE.

While cutting timber on his farm near Degonia, Warrick county, Frank Barton was crushed to death by a falling tree. Just before starting to his work, Barton told his friends of having had a dream that he was going to be killed. His death came half an hour later.

GREENLEAF FOUND GUILTY.

The jury in the trial of George Greenleaf, of Terre Haute, who shot Ralph Conover, Sr., two years ago this week, bring through a window of Conover's house when he says he saw Conover abusing his wife and Ralph Conover, Jr., returned a verdict of manslaughter, after six hours' deliberation.

Indictments against Mrs. Conover and young Conover as accessories have been quashed.

IN CRITICAL CONDITION.

Edwin Venis, street car conductor at Lafayette, was struck by an automobile driven by Frank Yundt of Mulberry Tuesday evening and probably fatally injured. Venis was guarding his car against a Monon train when the auto struck and dragged him ten feet. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, and his condition was critical. One of his legs was broken and he is injured internally. Mr. Yundt, the owner of the auto, is one of the largest land owners in Clinton County.
