VETERANS WEEP WHEN THEY HEAR OLD TIME SONGS

Women Who Cheered Them as They Marched 50 Years Ago, Repeat the Melodies on the Gettysburg Field.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., July 1.—Over the field of Gettysburg, where 150,000 men in blue and gray fought with the weapons of war 50 years ago, the soldiers of peace from the north and south, the east and the west trooped Monday to the tented city of brown where they will live in the four days of semi-centennial celebration. It was an army united in sentiment and armed in fact, for the blue linked arms with the gray. They marched the dusty road together from the village, they sat down at the same mess tables, and they talked over the war before the same camp fires Monday night.

Officials of the regular army in charge of the camp Monday night estimated that nearly 15,000 veterans came in during the day bringing the total close to 40,000, probably the greatest army that ever assembled on Gettysburg field after Lee and Meade. "It is to glory and to history. Although the program of the celebration will not be taken up until Tuesday, there was a reception Monday by the survivors of Buford's division of Meade's army and Wheeler's division of Lee's. The meeting was held in the big tent set aside for the speechmaking of the celebration and began 50 years to the hour from the time when the first shot preceding the battle was fired. The gray cavalrymen who fought the skirmishes that led up to the three days' fight pledged themselves in the shadows of the stars and stripes to "forget" and their brothers in blue swore by the stars and bars that the fight was over for all time.

Women Sing Old Songs. There were several women from the village in the tent and six one-time school girls, gray-haired and aged now, sang "Rally 'round the Flags, Boys," while the veterans wept like boys, but with pride. The six women who sang the battle song were among those who thronged the streets of Gettysburg after the advance guard of the southern army left it 50 years ago. "I'm afraid we can't sing like we sang 50 years ago," said the matronly woman who acted as leader as she led the way up the steps to the platform. "We don't care; just sing again," shouted the veterans.

Four governors came into camp Monday. Gov. McGovern of Wisconsin was the first arrival; Gov. Tener of Pennsylvania was close on his heels and Governors Mann of Virginia and McCreary of Kentucky arrived later.

Gen. Sickles, the only corps commander of the union army on the field, was the center of attraction of hundreds of men in gray. He sat on the porch of the Rogers' house on the field near the spot where he was shot and there stood handshaking with all those present.

Before the southerners left the Rogers' house they shouldered the general, carried him out into the battlefield and stood him up before the camera fire and moving picture machines.

DOES NOT THINK SON COMMITTED SUICIDE

Inquest to be Held Tuesday on Body of Lucian D. Tennant Who Died at Boston.

BOSTON, July 1.—At the request of Richard S. Tennant, an attorney of Terre Haute, Ind., an inquest will be held next Thursday into the death of his son, Lucian D. Tennant, a post-graduate student at Harvard university, whose body was found with a bullet in the head on West Boston bridge April 22. Tennant wrote the police that he did not believe his son committed suicide and it was announced Monday that his wish for a thorough investigation would be respected. An inquiry by the police at the time of the young man's death revealed the fact, it was said, that he was mentally unbalanced from over study. A revolver was found on the body and the authorities considered it a clear case of suicide. After the autopsy the body was removed to Terre Haute.

FOUR GIRLS DROWN WHILE IN BATHING

Clothing Found on Bank Near Elkhart Shows Eldest Girl Tried to Rescue Her Younger Sisters.

Special Correspondence.
ELKHART, Ind., July 1.—Four girls, only daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Schwin, living two miles and a half from Elkhart, were drowned in the St. Joseph river at Myers' landing three miles above the city—some time Monday afternoon. The girls range from 5 to 15 years of age and are: Alice 15, Clara 12, Ida 10, and Grace 6. They have three brothers.

A mute testimony of the eldest girl's heroism was shown in the arrangement of the clothes on the bank. The clothes of the three younger ones were carefully folded in a pile on the bank while those of the eldest were scattered about on the bank. It showed that she must have seen the plight of her younger sisters and hurriedly undressed to go to their rescue. The clothes were found by two boys who started an investigation. Later a launching party helped in finding the four bodies.

BOY IS KILLED WHILE VISITING HIS UNCLE

NEWCASTLE, Ind., July 1.—Wycoff Cregger, 11, son of Dr. Cregger, former state senator from Indianapolis, was killed near here Monday night when an automobile driven by James Baird, the boy's uncle, turned turtle and pinned the boy under the car. According to Baird the car skidded and he was unable to right it. Wycoff had been spending his vacation with his uncle and when his father came for him Sunday the boy pleaded to be allowed to stay longer and was granted permission to remain until Tuesday. He was taking his last automobile ride when the accident happened.

OFFICERS ARRIVE IN TIME TO SAVE LIFE

Miners Had Adolph Philcoic Already For Hanging When He is Rescued.

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—With a noose around his neck and members of a mob endeavoring to throw the end of the rope over a limb of a tree, Adolph Philcoic, aged 40, a miner, only escaped summary violence Monday by the arrival of county detectives in an automobile at Beading, below this city. With drawn revolvers the county officers pushed their way into the crowd, unfastened the rope from Philcoic's neck, rushed him to the automobile and, amid a heavy fire from revolvers in the hands of the infuriated miners, escaped unscathed towards this city. Philcoic is accused of assaulting a seven-year-old girl.

When the offense became known a mob formed and captured Philcoic in a woods. It was decided to lynch him, but while a rope was being sought some person telephoned to the county detectives' sub-headquarters at Bridgeville, Pa.

The authorities at St. Mary's have decided that hereafter the grounds of the institution will not be opened to the public.

Owing to the imposition of some persons who have been freely allowed the use of the grounds, this decision has become necessary. The speeding of automobiles, besides being a menace to safety, has also aided in damaging the driveways and shrubbery.
