FISH PREPARED IN MANY WAYS

Caroline Coe Helps to Solve the Problem of Lenten Dishes With Some of Her Tested Fish Dish Recipes.

BY CAROLINE COE.

Turbot. Any dry fish may be used, but those having much oil or color to flesh do not make as pleasing looking dishes. Halibut or white-fish are the nicest. Steam three pounds of fish until tender. Remove bones, skin and flake the fish. Sprinkle with a little salt and white pepper. Make a sauce of three cups of milk, six tablespoons of flour blended with five teaspoons of butter. Put milk in double boiler. Add flour and butter. Stir to avoid lumps. Let cook 20 minutes. When slightly cool add two well beaten eggs, one teaspoon of minced onion and one tablespoon of minced parsley. Put layer of fish, then layer of sauce in baking pan until all is used. Sprinkle top with crumbs and dots of butter and bake until brown.

Crabmeat Cutlets. Boil and flake two cups of crabmeat. Make a thick white sauce, using one cup of milk and two tablespoons of flour blended with two even teaspoons of butter. When smooth put into milk. Turn into double boiler and cook 20 minutes. Add 1-2 teaspoon of salt, one teaspoon of parsley, dash of nutmeg and 1-2 teaspoon of minced onion. Cayenne if desired. Turn in the cooked crabmeat and stir all together. Allow to cool a little. Make this mixture into little heaps or balls and allow to stand an hour in cold place. When ready to serve form into outlet shape. Dip in beaten egg and then fine bread crumbs. Fry in deep fat. Drain and serve with slices of lemon or hot tartar sauce.

Salmon in Molds. Remove bones, oil and skin from fish in one can of salmon. Mince fine with fork and rub into the fish cure tablespoons of melted butter until smooth. Beat three eggs until light and foamy. Add to them 1-2 cup of fine bread crumbs. Season fish to taste with salt and pepper. Put in well buttered mold and steam one hour.

Hot Tartar Sauce. To 1-2 cup of thick white sauce add 1-2 cup of mayonnaise dressing, 1-2 teaspoon of minced chives and one teaspoon of lemon juice. Put into double boiler to heat, not boil. Stir into this 1-2 teaspoon each of cucumber pickle, parsley and 1-2 teaspoon of minced fine. Serve at once piping hot.

Escalloped Fish. The ingredients are one and one-half cups flaked fish, 2-4 cup white sauce, 3-8 cup buttered crumbs, small slice onion, sprigs of parsley, a bit of bayleaf, salt and pepper. To make the white sauce heat 2-4 cup of milk with the bayleaf, onion and parsley and remove the seasonings. Combine the flour, butter and milk as in previous recipe. Put fish and white sauce in a buttered dish in alternate layers. Cover with buttered crumbs, and heat through, browning the crumbs.

Macaroni, Oysters. The ingredients for this scalloped dish are one cup macaroni, one pint oysters, one cup white sauce and one-third cup buttered bread crumbs. Make the white sauce by melting two tablespoons of butter in a square. Draw pan to one side, add two tablespoons flour, stirring until perfectly smooth, then pour in one cup of milk gradually. Boil three to five minutes over the open flame, stirring continually. Season with pepper and salt. Break one cup of macaroni into medium lengths, wash, and cook 15 to 20 minutes in two quarts boiling salted water. Drain, rinse in cold water, and drain again. Put a layer of cooked macaroni in the bottom of a buttered baking dish, then a layer of oysters, season with butter, salt and pepper, and cover with white sauce. Repeat until all ingredients are used. Cover with buttered crumbs and bake until thoroughly heated through and until crumbs are brown.

(These recipes are estimated in quantities to serve six persons.)
