MANY CITIZENS CUT BARBERRY

Campaign Against Obnoxious Plant Brings Good Results in City.

Many more Mishawaka people demonstrated their patriotism following the announcement Friday of the patriotic removal of a barberry hedge that four years before cost $2000 by Robert Robertson of Mishawaka av., George E. Williams, who lives at 814 Lincoln way E., after a consultation with W. H. Lloyd, the agricultural advisor of the Dodge Manufacturing Co., decided to cut out a beautiful border of 25 purple-leaved barberry plants in the rear of his residence.

In addition the Mishawaka hotel removed several of the offending bushes from around their porch. The majority of the bushes here, were of the harmless Japanese variety, but off in one corner some of the detrimental shrubs had been planted. Lloyd, who had charge of the local campaign, reports that there are still a large number of residences in the city which have not heeded the patriotic call. One home on Lincoln way E. has a large bed of the purple variety in the front lawn. Several homes on Lincoln way W. and several homes on Mishawaka av., have one or two or three of the shrubs on their lawn.

Persons desiring information as to the character of their barberries should call W. H. Lloyd at the Dodge Manufacturing Co. Our city's most harbor no shrubs which might work serious harm to the farmers of the country.

DEFENSE RESTS IN PRAGER CASE

Evidence Will Probably Go to Jury Early Saturday.

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill., June 1.— The 11 men charged with the murder of Robert Paul Prager, enemy alien who was lynched by a mob at Collinsville on April 5, testified in their own behalf Friday and each disclaimed any responsibility for the crime.

The defense rested Friday night and the case probably will go to the jury Saturday.

Joseph Riegel, a minor and cobbler, who before his appearance before the coroner's jury was quoted as having made a confession, was the last of the 11 defendants to take the stand and flatly repudiated all statements attributed to him and described himself as one person in the crowd who counseled calmness. He urged Mayor Siegel says, to spirit Prager away, asserted that he had no part in the crime. In order to prevent distress and suffering next winter, it is the highest of patriotic duties and advantage for every American citizen to buy coal for delivery as fast as it can be produced and transported. Every householder, as well as the larger consumers of coal, should store a substantial portion of his winter's requirements.

"There is another decided element of advantage in buying coal now," the mining conditions are better, there is not the rush that always comes with winter, and the coal is available now in a much cleaner and of a better grade and quality than that which sold last winter, and which likely will be sold next winter. All of this is in part attributable to better railroad transportation conditions which exist at this time, and which will be maintained in the summer months when the coal is drawn to the full capacity. Labor teams and trucking facilities are better now than they were last winter and decidedly better than they can possibly be next fall or winter.

"I want to call upon the public utilities and industrial consumers to make the same steps to accumulate a surplus to the extent of at least 50 days supply in order to assist in the equalization of the production and distribution of the coal through out the year. I believe that the public utility that fails to lay in coal this summer should not be given so much consideration when the crisis comes next January and February. The storage of coal now is vital to the welfare of the country; it is one of the most important measures in the winning of the war.

"Indiana has gone over the top" in every battle for a war-time response. We have led in furnishing men to the colors, in responding to the Red Cross, in giving to the Y. M. C. A. in buying Liberty bonds, in saving food. Let our coal bins be filled in the same record-breaking manner.

"I therefore proclaim that the week of June 2-8 shall be 'Coal week' in Indiana, and ask that a patriotic response to the national and state welfare appeal.

"JAMES P. GOODRICH, Governor."

TESTIMONY TO SHOW PROFESSOR PRO-GERMAN

LINCOLN, Neb., June 1.—Testimony introduced to show that Prof. C. E. Pershing of the American history department of the University of Nebraska is anti-German in his attitude was given at Friday's session of the municipal exchange of charges by the state council of defense that some of the university's instructors were not aggressively American. Prof. Roy E. Cochran of the university's faculty took the stand today and declared that Prof. Pershing was a man who was highly in favor of war against Germany. Prof. Pershing, the witness said, was an applicant for overseas duty in the Y. M. C. A. service, and had expressed the hope that the Germans would be given a taste of what they have given to other countries.

GOV. GOODRICH NAMES COAL WEEK

Designated June 3 to 8 as Period to Buy Coal.

News-Times Special Service: INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 1.— Gov. Goodrich Friday issued a proclamation, in which he designated the week of June 2-8 as "Coal week" in Indiana, and urged the people of the state to place orders for stored coal at that time "to avert a national calamity next winter."

The proclamation follows: "I hereby specify the week of June 2-8 as 'Coal week' in the state of Indiana and call upon its people to give active support to this movement to avert a national calamity next winter.

"The people of Indiana can serve themselves, as well as their nation and state, in no better way than by storing coal now and giving this matter their special attention next week.

"I urge that every effort be made to place orders early. All who are able to get their coal moved prior to June 25, when the government's price order increasing coal freight rates goes into effect, will save money. In addition to this saving of higher freight cost, there is a reduction of approximately 10 cents a ton on Indiana coal, which has just gone into effect. Prior to May 1 there had been more or less uncertainty in regard to the price of coal at the mines, but the recent announcement of the recent revision in prices, this element of doubt is removed. It seems certain that the price of coal will not be lowered during this summer and fall. There is always the possibility that there may be increases. The saving in freight alone prior to June 25, however, constitutes at least one big item of saving.

"Last year the coal consumers of this state confined their purchases during spring and summer months to actual current requirements. They did not make any provision for accumulating a surplus. This was due somewhat to uncertainty of prices, but the dire effects of such a course were realized last winter. We know, by the operation of the mines for the first five months of the year, that there will be a most serious coal shortage next winter and those who store their coal now will be in an enviable position. This applies to public utilities and industries as well as individuals. Now that the prices are fixed by the government, and in view of the fact it is absolutely necessary that the maximum amount of coal be produced and distributed during the summer months in order to prevent distress and suffering next winter, it is the highest of patriotic duties and advantage for every American citizen to buy coal for delivery as fast as it can be produced and transported. Every householder, as well as the larger consumers of coal, should store a substantial portion of his winter's requirements.

"There is another decided element of advantage in buying coal now," the mining conditions are better, there is not the rush that always comes with winter, and the coal is available now in a much cleaner and of a better grade and quality than that which sold last winter, and which likely will be sold next winter. Sink Submarine Watching for American Troops

AN ATLANTIC PORT, June 1.—

A German submarine U-51, in wait for transports carrying American troops was rammed and sunk by a large British transport of the Irish coast during the second week in May, according to authentic information brought here Friday by a prominent American returning from an important mission to England.

The ship which sank the submarine is one of the largest liners known to American and European travelers, and hit the U-boat full amidships after a torpedo had been fired and the transport was maneuvering to make way for accompanying destroyers to drop depth charges.

It is possible, the American said, that the submarine might have been forced to the surface by one of the explosions, but at any rate it came up less than 30 yards in front of the liner. In full view of the soldiers assembled on her deck the great steamship rammed her way into the submarine and cut her like a piece of cheese, the American said.

HOUSE PASSES ARMY MEASURE

Largest War Appropriation Bill in History Goes to Senate.

WASHINGTON, June 1.— The largest annual army appropriation bill in history, carrying $12,041,582,000, and authorizing the president to call into military service all men who can be trained and equipped, was passed late Friday by the house and sent to the senate.

The house broke its record for speed on an army bill by taking the final vote after three days of debate.

The measure is framed to provide for an army of 3,000,000 men during the coming year, in accordance with the government's revised program for rushing soldiers to France. Some of the big items are $6,315,000 for the quartermaster corps; $3,386,000,000 for ordnance; $1,628,000,000 for the engineers; $500,000,000 for aviation; and $287,000,000 for the medical corps.

A provision prohibiting the use of stop watches or other speeding up devices in plants where money produced by the organization is spent, was adopted by a vote of 63 to 59. The house also adopted an amendment by Rep. Anthony of Kansas forbidding "cost plus" contracts except in emergencies.

During the debate Rep. Longworth of Ohio and others condemned what they called overoptimistic statements concerning the number of American soldiers sent overseas and the amount of arms and equipment provided for them. Mr. Longworth referred particularly to a statement by Sen. Lewis of Illinois at Chicago, that there now are a million American soldiers in Europe.

Rep. Caldwell of New York predicted that the million mark will be reached by July 4.

SECY M'ADOO ASKS KITCHIN TO MAKE LOBBY RETRACTION

WASHINGTON, June 1.—

Secy McAdoo has called upon Rep. Kitchin of North Carolina, democratic floor leader in the house, to retract his assertion in a recent speech that the publishers' lobby working for repeal of the zone system of increased postage rates influenced the decision of the administration to insist upon revenue legislation at this session of congress.

Mr. Kitchin told the house in the speech he did not believe Secy McAdoo thought about the newspapers and magazines one way or the other, but believed a lobby had made itself felt with some in whose judgment the secretary had great faith.

From White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., where he is recuperating from an illness, McAdoo wrote in a letter made public Friday night: "Please let me assure you that no one near me or in whose judgment I have the slightest confidence has been influenced by any newspaper lobby or any other kind of a lobby; that I have not been approached directly or indirectly by any such lobby, and that if I had been, it would not have made the slightest impression upon me, or have affected in any manner whatever my judgment as to the necessity for revenue legislation at this session of the congress. The men associated with me as assistant secretaries of the treasury together with the commissioner of internal revenue, are serving with such exceptional loyalty, industry and patriotism in trying to solve the colossal problems of the treasury successfully and in the interest of the whole country, that I cannot respect myself if I permitted them to suffer from any implications whatever of so unjust a character. It is for them particularly that I should be glad if you would make an appropriate correction."

The secretary added that he had hoped revenue legislation at this session would not be necessary, but that with actual expenditures exceeding $1,500,000,000 in May, and war expenses growing at the rate of $100,000,000 a month, he "could not look upon the future without genuine concern unless prompt steps were taken to strengthen the position of the treasury."

LONDON, June 1.—The greater part of Friday's proceedings in the trial of Noel Pemberton-Billings was taken up with a cross examination of Capt. Harold S. Spencer, who gave startling testimony on direct examination. Few new developments were brought to light.

RECEIVE 16,000 LETTERS FROM U. S. SOLDIERS

WASHINGTON, June 1.—

Sixteen hundred and thirty-five letters from American soldiers overseas to their homes on Mother's day have been received at Atlantic ports and are being delivered. Rep. Lusignan of Connecticut, who asked the post office department Friday about the Mother's day letters, was told of the number received and assured that their delivery would be expedited.

YANKEES AGAIN SMASH ENEMY

Conduct Successful Raid and Destroy German Positions Friday.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—A successful American raid Friday in the Woivre sector in which the enemy's advanced positions were destroyed and losses inflicted on killed, wounded and prisoners is reported in Gen. Pershing's evening communique.

The dispatch follows: "In the course of a raid executed this morning by our troops in the Woivre, our technical detachments destroyed the enemy's advanced positions. At the same time our raiding party inflicted losses in killed, wounded and prisoners.

"In Lorraine artillery fighting has diminished.

"There is nothing to report from the other sectors occupied by our troops.

"Early in the day our aviators shot down a hostile machine."

I. W. W.'S BURNED UP THRESHING MACHINES

CHICAGO, June 1.—

Burning of threshing machines in the harvest fields of Washington and Montana by Industrial Workers of the World was taken up by the government late today in the trial of 112 leaders and organizers for seditious conspiracy.

Chief Prosecutor Nebecker sought to show that destruction of machinery and numerous fires in these grain regions were direct results of teachings of officers of the organization and that sabotage was practiced for the purpose of blocking the war program as well as for injuring employers.

J. N. Banks, a farmer of Canyon, Wash., testified that fires were numerous in his district, and that on one occasion a threshing machine was burned after an I. W. W. had filled it with grain. On this and other occasions, the prosecution charged, matches had been hidden in the grain.

I. W. W. bulletins declaring that last summer was the most opportune time in history for the organization to come into power and defy the established laws, were read into the records by Special Prosecutor Porter. They told of expulsion from the organizations of members who had joined the British army.

Cross examination of Frank Wormkee, a private in the American army, and a former organizer of the I. W. W., failed to shake his story that the organization had charged, matches had been hidden in the grain.

Rail Employees Refuse to Heed McAdoo's Orders

MOLINE, Ill., June 1.—

In spite of Director Gen. McAdoo's appeal to the men to remain at work until their wage demands could be given consideration and announcing the government's view of the railroad men who deserted their tasks at this time, work at the St. Louis shops of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific road was suspended Friday afternoon. Two thousand strikers failed to return to work after the noon hour. The craftsmen at the Rock Island shops, the largest on the Rock Island system, are understood to be acting in conjunction with the shop men of 35 other roads.

The workers in the St. Louis department of the road at St. Louis went at their posts this afternoon but it is thought they may join in the strike later. Over 300 are employed in the storerooms.

Both the men and the union officials declined to discuss the situation or to forecast what their action would be, but the impression prevails here that they will adhere to their demands for a minimum wage of 72 cents an hour and an eight-hour day with time and a half for overtime.
