

U. S. RECOGNIZES POLISH ARMY

Lansing Says Government Feels Deep Sympathy For Oppressed People.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The Polish army, under the supreme political authority of the Polish national committee, was recognized today by the United States government as an autonomous and co-belligerent.

Secretary Lansing today announced in a letter sent today to Roman Dmowski, president of the Polish national committee, who is now in Washington.

He also said it had not been unkindly of the Polish national committee, which has headquarters in Paris, has prosecuted the task of marshaling its fellow countrymen in a supreme military effort to free Poland from its present oppressors.

The action of the American government is similar to that taken recently by France, Great Britain and Italy. A Polish army is now fighting on the western front with the allied armies, being under the command of Money Big Figure In 11th., Hour Campaign By G. O. P.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—In a final pre-election statement last night, Homer S. Cummings, acting chairman of the democratic national committee, charged that "lavish use of money appears to constitute the eleventh hour program of the republican leaders."

"Efforts to swing the election away from the president by the lavish use of money appears to constitute the eleventh hour program of republican leaders," said Mr. Cummings.

"The great qualities of leadership shown by the president now bearing fruit in war-torn Europe, are appreciated by the people of the United States. They are willing to trust the president to continue the policies that have brought Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey to terms, stripped Germany of her allies, and which have sounded the death knell of militarism and Kaiserism."

ITALIANS TAKE SCUTARI

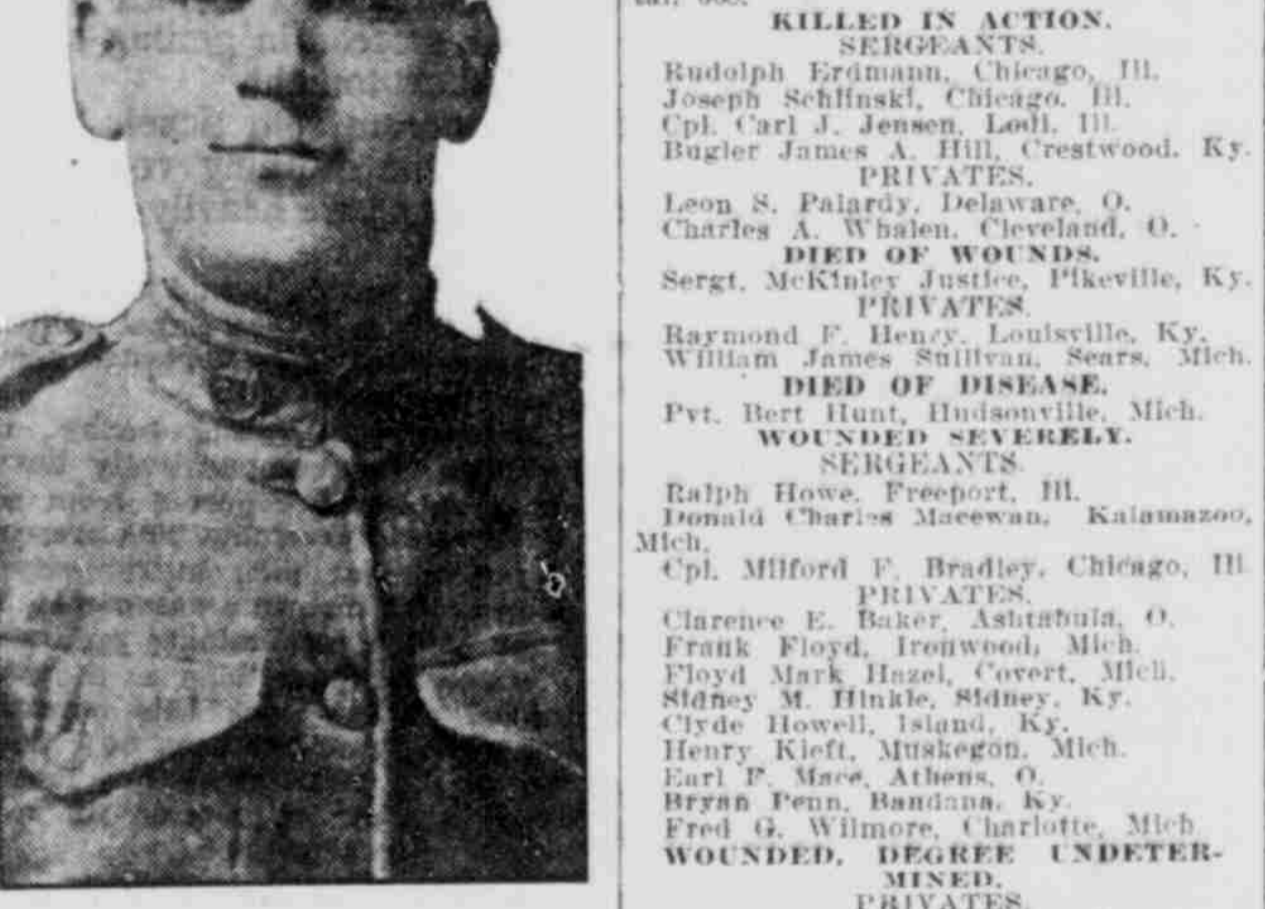

ROME, Nov. 5.—Italian advance guards occupied the town of Scutari in northern Albania, Oct. 21, according to the Italian war office communication issued tonight.
