NAVY PLANES PLAN "HOP OFF" TODAY

C-5, BLOWN OUT TO SEA, IS PICKED UP BY SHIP

NC Machines Refuse to Rise From Water Until Portion of Loads Are Removed—Weather Favorable.

BULLETIN.
By United Press:
ST. JOHNS, N. F., May 16.—The dirigible C-5 was picked up, deflated and taken aboard the British steamer Clan Davidson at a point 88 miles east of here today. The blimp, which broke away from its moorings late yesterday is now being brought to this port.

By United Press:
TRIPASSAY, N. F., May 16.—Commander Towers announced today that the three seaplanes, NC-1, NC-3 and NC-4, would be started on the trans-Atlantic flight this afternoon if it is possible to get away.

Weather conditions in mid-ocean are the best reported since the Nautilus arrived here according to the navy's official forecast. There is a stiff breeze along the Newfoundland coast. The planes will jump off carrying 1,620 gallons of gasoline.

Urge Start Today.
The aviators declare it is most important that a get-away be made today. Dispatches from Washington also are urging a quick start. It is understood.

All the planes are expected to leave together. Their loads were reduced by 600 pounds, so they now have aboard 2,820 pounds, including 1,620 gallons of gasoline, and crews of six men each.

A new motor was placed and three tractors installed in the NC-4 this morning. If it is not able to jump off with the one and three, it will follow as soon as possible.

Look Over Starting Place.
Officers of the planes looked over Mutton harbor this morning to decide the best direction for the run along the water before rising for the start.

"We made every effort to get away yesterday," declared Towers. "We are determined to leave nothing undone to make this afternoon's start a success."

There will be no formalities attendant on the departure. Constant radio communication is expected to be maintained. The radio of the NC-4 worked 400 miles during yesterday's flight from Halifax.

EIGHTY-NINTH MOST SUCCESSFUL DIVISION

By United Press:
COBLENZ, May 15.—Records of the inspectors of embarkation section of the A. E. F. show the 89th division was the most successful unit to date in completing preparations to return home. Profiting by the experience of other units, the 89th's start for the coast was managed expeditiously and without confusion. The last train load left for Brest on Tuesday. The division was reported to be in excellent condition.

Feed Milk to the Hogs 'no Market' South Bend, Cry

Milk and butter high in price. Many householders think so. Yet a large portion of St. Joseph county's milk production is being fed to hogs, for want of a market in South Bend. One dairyman asserts that he is being compelled to haul from 20 to 40 gallons of milk back home every day. And once home the milk goes in the hog trough for want of any other use.

Milk now is at the peak of its production period, say the dairymen, because pastures are in excellent condition and grazing is at its best. On the other hand the consumption is not great. Retailers say this is because the use of ice is not general this early in the season.

Dairymen operating below their capacity are offering to take the dairymen's cream if he will separate it. They do not buy whole milk. That is one suggestion for preventing the waste.

No one thought of suggesting a price reduction might remedy the situation.

TROOPS OCCUPY COAST; DAY IN GREEK HISTORY

By United Press:
ATHENS, May 15.—(Delayed)—One of the greatest events in modern Greek history occurred yesterday when military and naval forces occupied a portion of the coast of Asia Minor. This was a realization of Greece's dreams of five centuries.

Permission for the occupation was given by the peace conference on the quest of Premier Venizelos, following official confirmation that the Turks were stirring up trouble in Asia Minor.

An entire division of Greek troops was landed at Smyrna and occupied considerable territory on either side, including Aivali, 100 miles to the northward and Vourla, 40 miles to the southward.

Convicted Thief Admits Desertion.
Authorities Probe Story of Charles Klinger, Held in Jail.

Charles Klinger, jr., of Rochester, Ind., who was sentenced to serve from one to eight years at the Jeffersonville reformatory, following his conviction of a petty larceny charge by Judge C. R. Montgomery of the superior court a few days ago, is being held in the county jail awaiting an investigation to ascertain whether he is a deserter from the United States army.

In his cell at the jail Thursday he told Sheriff Lew Duck that he was a deserter from the army. The sheriff immediately told Judge Montgomery and the judge issued an order to hold him here until the case is further investigated.

According to Klinger's story, he was given a disability discharge from the army more than a year ago, but three weeks ago, he says, he enlisted in the army at Laporte, Ind., for a period of three years. While waiting orders to report at Indianapolis, he says, he was arrested for stealing a suit of clothes and a gold watch from Forrest Fisher in Mishawaka.

Sheriff Duck will visit Laporte to find out if Klinger really did enlist. In case he did he will probably be turned over to army officials.

ITALIAN DELEGATES OPTIMISTIC AGAIN

By United Press:

MILWAUKEE POLICE TO PREVENT I. W. W. MEET

REPUBLICANS IN AGREEMENT UPON TEN MEASURES

Repeal of Luxury Tax and Suffrage Amendment Are Favored Bills.

By United Press:
WASHINGTON, May 16.—A legislative program of 10 important measures was taken up and agreed upon by the house republican steering committee today for submission to the entire republican membership in caucus tomorrow night.

The program, if adopted will be regarded as a promise to the country to see that the 10 measures are carried through congress with all possible speed.

They are:
Repeal of the luxury tax; return of the wires; adoption of a shipping policy; settlement of the railroad problem; passage of a constitutional suffrage amendment; enactment of a national budget system; tariff revision; aid for men coming from the service; economy in public expenditures and passage of essential appropriation bills.

Appropriations First.
The work on appropriation bills will, of necessity, be the first matter taken up, but repeal of the luxury taxes and perhaps suffrage will be rushed through the house very early in the session, party leaders said.

Return of the wires will also come up for early consideration. With the exception of the wire return, luxury tax and suffrage questions, the committee did not attempt to commit the party to any policy. This will be left wholly in the hands of the various legislative committees which have charge of measures.

May Add Others.
Rep. Madden, Illinois, who suggested the outline of a party slate to carry before the caucus, said that more measures might be added in caucus. There are suggestions that immigration restrictions be made a part of the republican program.

The steering committee also decided to ask the chairman of one of the three house elections committees to challenge Victor Berger, Milwaukee socialist congressman, when he presents himself to be sworn in next week.

Minor patronage matters were discussed.

TAXES TO BE BIG ISSUE IN 1920

By United Press:
WASHINGTON, May 16.—Taxes, say many congressmen in Washington, will be the big issue of the 1920 campaign.

This is one reason for the great interest being displayed in congressional circles in the efforts of senate progressives to prevent Sens. Penrose and Warren from heading the finance and appropriations committee, respectively. The finance committee stipulates the taxes for the people, the appropriations committee spends them.

"It will be necessary to raise probably $5,000,000,000 yearly in taxes for some time to come," said Sen. Borah, exponent of the progress view. "The American people will not stand for having this money taken out of the pockets of the great mass of workers while big business is let off easy."

DANGER UNDER SURFACE OF PEACE SETTLEMENT SEEN BY THOSE AWARE OF SITUATION

By United Press:

PARIS, May 16.—Grave dangers are lurking beneath the surface of the peace settlement in the opinion of persons in close touch with the general situation. This rests in the fact that everybody is too ready to fight. Against the theory that the European nations are too exhausted to fight further it is pointed out that history shows all countries in past have been more warlike at the end of a long struggle than after an era of peace. After the Civil war, for instance, the United States defeated both France and Great Britain.

Criticism Everywhere.
From Belgium—in fact, from everywhere have come criticisms of the peace treaty. And one of the knottiest problems of all disposition of Fiume—is yet to be settled. The Italians are playing an entirely new game. Instead of pushing their claims they apparently are cooperating to the utmost in other work.

They have not shown any inclination to abandon their claims, but they are not pushing the subject.

Many Minor Wars.
Through American influence, it is believed an arrangement will be made whereby the Ukrainians and Poles will cease fighting. But this is only one of the numerous minor wars that are being waged in Europe. Establishment of peace between the Poles and Ukrainians would mean that Gen. Haller's army, recently transported from France to Poland through Germany, would be available in helping to keep back the bolshevik. So this would merely be stopping one war to assist in carrying on another, and such a notion could not be construed as a real step toward world peace.

SPLITS DISAPPEAR IN G. O. P. RANKS

Approach of Actual Business Finds Leaders Determined Against Breaks.

By United Press:
WASHINGTON, May 16.—On the eve of organizing for business "near splits" and bickerings among both republicans and democrats in congress appeared to be wearing themselves out today. Republican leaders are determined that there shall be no party breach as the result of the effort to increase the republican steering committee from five to nine members by adding four supporters of Speaker Gillett and so giving him the majority of the committee.

Rep. Madden of Illinois, one of the leaders of the Mann faction, has called on Gillett to deny the report that there would be an effort to unseat Gillett as speaker if the steering committee increase was insisted upon.

Will Fight Clark.
Democrats who are opposed to ex-Speaker Clark for minority floor leader, say they will carry the fight on Clark—and reform in party organization—on to the floor, but they are doing little or no campaigning to increase their strength.

Only a few of the anti-Clark men have reached the capital and the friends of the former speaker today predicted that his election as floor leader would take only a few minutes in the democratic caucus tomorrow noon.

PACKERS AND STOCKMEN WOULD LOWER PRICES

By United Press:
CHICAGO, May 16.—Plans for cutting the price of beef was the principal topic of discussion by representatives of packers and livestock producers in session here today. It was proposed to put the cattle industry on such a cooperative basis that prices could be lowered and at the same time yield a fair profit to dealers.

It was the opinion of many livestock men that cost could be materially reduced by arranging for faster transportation, more efficient handling of livestock at the markets, elimination of waste and a steady, rather than a spasmodic flow of cattle to the packers.

Members also said they would fight any attempts made for government control of the stock yards.

ANTI-AMERICAN PROPAGANDA IN BRAZIL PAPERS

By United Press:

Business Men Mystified at Attacks on U. S. Policies by Periodicals.

By United Press:
RIO JANEIRO, May 15.—American business men here today were discussing the recent mysterious anti-American propaganda which appeared in several Brazilian newspapers.

It was pointed out that while sporadic anti-American articles appearing in various papers might not indicate more than individual grievances, the fact that all the attacks were reprinted in the "by request" columns of the Jornal Comercio indicated an established propaganda campaign seeking to antagonize Brazilian public opinion against American interests. These columns are always devoted to propaganda articles costing certain stipulated rates per line. It was further pointed out that recent publication of anti-American articles totalling an expense far beyond the reach of individuals.

Madelros Albuquerque, special writer of A Noite, whose first attack against the United States struck Americans here following a visit to the United States, is understood to be planning a series of articles attacking American interests and aims. His next article, it is said, will point out that the United States entered the war declaring she wanted nothing for herself but that the peace negotiations have revealed she is playing a different role.

ADVISES GERMANS TO SIGN TREATY

British Labor Leader Points Out Defects in League of Nation's Plan.

By United Press:
PARIS, May 16.—"My advice to the Germans would be—Sign the treaty," Arthur Henderson, British labor leader, declared in an interview here today.

Henderson has been aiding in preparing the report of the "big four" regarding the German's labor recommendations and recently participated in a three day conference of socialists of various countries, who adopted resolutions partly endorsing and partly condemning the treaty.

"We are bound to recognize that certain injustices, attributable to past wars, have been repaired," he said. "Some peoples long kept in subjection have been liberated. We welcome creation of the league of nations. In its present form, however, the league is an association of governments and executives, rather than peoples and parliaments."

Fall to Renounce War.
"It fails to compel members to renounce entirely recourse to war. Instead of being an organ of international justice it has the appearance of a victorious coalition dominated by the five great powers. Failure to include Germany and Russia should be righted speedily as possible if prevention of war really is desired."

"The whole treaty shows the nations are still menaced by the policy that to the victors belongs the spoils, in utter disregard of the inevitable consequences. However, Germany should sign and await the coming of the western powers who will be more democratic. There is every indication she will not have long to wait."

PLAN COMBINED LABOR BUREAU

State Commissioner Submits Proposal to Mayor Carson Friday.

Plans for a combined federal municipal and Indiana employment office in South Bend were submitted Friday to Mayor Carson by H. H. Buskirk of Indianapolis, chairman of the Indiana employment commission and director of the U. S. employment service, calling for a combined appropriation of about $1,500 from the city and county, the state also to pay $1,500 for the purpose.

The plan is to absorb the present union adv. and make it a part of the national system of bringing the man and the job together, undertaken during the war by the department of labor, but crippled in part by the failure of the senate to appropriate money for its continuation. It is estimated that the cost of maintenance of the local office will be about $2,000, or if more, the federal government at the coming session will make up the deficiency.

Similar agencies are to be established in Fort Wayne, Gary, East Chicago, Michigan City, LaFayette, and other employment centers.

Theory Back of Plan.
"It is on the theory," said Mr. Buskirk, "that every progressive municipality in the state is anxious to protect its own interests that we are proposing to ask South Bend, as we are asking other Indiana cities, to make an appropriation equal to at least half of the cost of maintaining a free public employment office here. For there is no better industrial insurance available at any cost, and this is particularly true in view of the inevitable shortage of labor, both skilled and unskilled, now confronting the state and nation."

"If South Bend or any other Indiana city expects to develop its peace-time industries, make such public improvements as are imperative and which have long been deferred, maintain the prosperity of the agricultural community contributory to the city, it must plan a highly intensive conservation of its man power. That is exactly the function of the free employment agency."

Kept Labor on Move.

BERLIN, May 15.—(Delayed)—American and British officers today were ordered to wear muft outside their quarters, lest the Germans be invited to acts of violence. American couriers in uniform are compelled to remain inside the Hotel Adlon.

The feeling prevails in American quarters that the demonstration against the peace treaty before the Hotel Adlon, in which 15,000 persons participated Tuesday, may be only the forerunner of even greater occurrences. Despite the fact the president of police has warned the people there must be no repetition of the Adlon incident, the spirit of unrest in the city is obviously growing and, according to allied officials, must soon find some outlet.

In a food riot at Stettin, 80 miles northeast of Berlin, 10 persons were wounded yesterday, according to dispatches received here.

By United Press:
BASLE, May 16.—A great crowd staged a demonstration against the peace terms in front of the Atlantic hotel in Hamburg, headquarters of the American commission, according to dispatches received from that city today.

Several orators protested against "assassination of the German people." An interpreter translated the speeches for the benefit of the Americans. There was no violence.

BASLE, May 16.—The Vorwarts and Lokal Anzeiger urged today that a nation-wide referendum be held on signing of the peace treaty.

The Munich Post, the most important majority socialist paper in Bavaria, said:

"We neither can accept nor refuse. We must sign under protest hoping the enemies will come to its senses."

BASLE, May 16.—Cardinal Hartmann, according to a dispatch from Cologne today, has sent a formal request to Pope Benedict to "save the German people from threatening ruin."

BERNE, May 16.—"Only an idiot would stir such a peace," declared Herr Graf, majority socialist in addressing a session of the Prussian assembly, a Berlin dispatch reported today.

Assemblyman Herzog charged President Wilson with both faith while Assemblyman Meibohm said the treaty is a travesty on Wilson's principles.

Matches have become in great demand by members of the South Bend police department who are on duty during the night hours.

Once it was that the members of the night force had to particular use for lucifers, but the flickering lights from safety and ordinary matches may be seen almost any now of the night in dark alleyways and in obscure alleys.

Under former administration, night patrolmen were provided with searchlights, and this was true for a time under the present administration. But not any more.

No More Searchlights.
For some reason, those in charge of the department have decided that searchlights are useless in the hands of a police officer. The officials argue that matches are just as useful, and they have decided that matches are to be used in searching for wrongdoers in the dark hours of the night.

"If you see a lot of little lights in the alleys at night, don't get excited, we are just looking around with our matches," said one member of the department when explaining the lack of searchlights as part of the equipment of members of the South Bend police department.

"I don't understand the new system," continued this member. "I always had searchlights before, but they don't give them to us any more."
