

SENATOR ASSAILS COVENANT FOES

Attacks on League are False, Insists Defender, in Three Hour Speech.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The League of Nations was supported in the Senate Wednesday by Sen. McCumber, of North Dakota, republican member of foreign relations committee, who argued in a three hour speech that the league covenant offered a just and practicable plan for the preservation of world peace. The North Dakota senator replied to arguments of Sen. Knox of Pennsylvania and other republican leaders and declared he could not be influenced against the league plan by party consideration. "Partisan that I am," he asserted, "I hope I shall never be so hidebound or so blinded by party exigency as to oppose a just undertaking or a truth declared by a member of any opposition party. I could not cast my vote against any reasonable plan for the preservation of world peace without a conviction that would follow me to the grave that I had committed an unpardonable offense against all future generations."

The North Dakota senator charged there had been a campaign of misrepresentation against the league. He opposed as a proposal calculated "to sound the death knell of any scheme to preserve peace," the resolution of Sen. Knox, which would declare the senate's opposition to accepting the league covenant along with the peace terms.

Terms Misrepresented.
"In 20 years of service in the senate," said McCumber, "I have known but one instrument whose terms have been so wilfully misinterpreted and so grossly misrepresented as the covenant of the League of Nations. That some of it is vague, I know, and some portions objectionable from particular viewpoints. But that it discriminates against us, is unfair in its treatment of our country, or that it imposes on us any obligation or burden that is not equally borne by every other nation, I must emphatically deny. It is regrettable that the mighty power of eloquence is used to defame and distort the true meaning of an instrument, the most important that ever appealed to the heart of the soul of man."

"Suppose we now refuse to join with the rest of the world in some scheme to prevent war, what will happen as surely as the sun shall rise, every great nation will proceed to devise means for the wholesale destruction of nations. So desperate will be the next war that all the hate and all the venom created by this struggle will be infinitesimal compared with the next. And against what race will all these weapons of death be used? Against the white race?"

Isolation Gone.
Quoting the declaration of Sen. Johnson, republican of California, that America by virtue of her isolation does not need the European power "as partners," Mr. McCumber said isolation had long since broken down, a European quarrel having cost this country in the past five years 20,000 lives and $40,000,000,000.

"You talk about our entering this war for a great world principle," he continued. "The man who makes that assertion knows that he falsifies the record. We based our fight of action solely on the ground that by the acts of Germany she had made war on us. I want to put ourselves in such a position that we shall never feel it necessary to reiterate such a falsehood."

Would Not Interfere.
"We knew all along just what Germany had in mind. We knew her purpose of world domination. But we had not the right under international law or under any agreement to demand that she refrain from the hellish purpose. We do not want this country or any other country to be again placed in such a position of impotency."
"The members of the league undertake to preserve the territorial integrity only against external aggression. It has been asserted and reasserted in all the false attacks on this instrument that the United States would be compelled to help Great Britain preserve her dominion against her own internal revolutions or rebellions. Nothing could be more false. It is only against external aggression that the league assures its protection."

Would Reduce Armament.
"The members of the league agree to the reduction of national armaments. We have preached the reduction of armaments for years."

Best Way to Wash the Hair

We find you can bring out the beauty of your hair to its very best advantage by washing it with canthrox. It makes a very simple, inexpensive shampoo, which cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly of all the dandruff, dirt and excess oil, leaving a wonderfully clean, wholesome feeling. After its use you will find that the hair dries quickly and evenly, is never streaked in appearance and is always bright, soft and fluffy; so fluffy, in fact, that it looks more abundant than it is, and so soft that arranging it becomes a pleasure. Just use a teaspoonful of canthrox, which you can get from any good druggist's, dissolve it in a cup of hot water; this makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head.

Now present to me, if you can, a better or a safer plan than that provided in this treaty, or else acknowledge frankly that we never intended to conform our acts to our declarations.

Referring to charges that the United States would be at a disadvantage in the league because it has only one vote, the speaker said the important decisions would be made in the council, where the only votes would be one each for the five great powers, with unanimous action required to effect a decision or to transfer consideration of a question to the assembly.

Mr. McCumber also declared he personally would be opposed to leaving Germany out of the league, fearing that action might lead to future divisions and jealousness.

'Humanity Flag' Casts Shadow in Ford Libel Suit

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., June 19.—A shadow of Henry Ford's "flag of humanity" was unfurled in Judge Tucker's court Wednesday in course of the hearing of Mr. Ford's libel suit against the Chicago Daily Tribune.

Evidence in the case has quoted Mr. Ford as opposing flags of nations as obsolete—"something to rally around" or as "the refuge of scoundrels," and as advocating a "flag of humanity," the creation of which he was said to have referred to in 1915.

Irving Bacon, an illustrator in the photographic and advertising departments of the Ford Motor Co., was called to the stand.

"I think," said the witness, "that the idea of designing such a flag was put to me either by Dean Marquis, head of the educational department, or Mr. Brownell, the advertising

MUST FEAR MORE BOMBS, BELIEF

Palmer Asks $500,000 Appropriation to Aid Hunt for Anarchists.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—That the menace of bomb outrages still hangs over the country is the belief of officials of the department of justice.

William J. Flynn, chief of the department's bureau of investigation, says that he believes there "are bombs to come" but said it was impossible to say when the next attempt to create a reign of terror by explosions might be made.

Supplementing Mr. Flynn's statement, the department Wednesday night made public testimony of Atty. Gen. Palmer before the house appropriation committee, asking for a special fund of $500,000 to carry on the hunt for radicals. The attorney general told the committee, as the testimony revealed, that government officials had been advised of a day set for another attempt by radicals "to destroy the government at one full swoop."

Expects Another Attempt.
"We have received so many notices and gotten so much information," Mr. Palmer told the committee at his recent appearance, "that it has almost come to be accepted as a fact that on a certain day in the future, which we have been advised of, there will be another serious and probably much larger effort of the same character, which the wild fellows of this movement describe as revolution, a proposition to ring up and destroy the government at one fell swoop."

Mr. Flynn said he knew of no plot for independence day and emphasized that every precaution was being taken by police throughout the United States. He expressed the belief that eventually those involved in the recent outrages would be brought to justice.
"We know the source from which the bomb operators have come," Mr. Flynn said. "The agitation is purely domestic and has no foreign connection, although there may be some foreigners active in it. It will take some time to clear up the cases, but we are making progress."
