

FORMAL OPENING OF NOTRE DAME

President Burns Delivers Sermon on Essentials of Education.

Opportunities such as were never before presented to young men are now open in all walks of life, declared Very Rev. James A. Burns, C. S. C., at the solemn religious opening of Notre Dame university in the college chapel Sunday morning. As a prelude to his sermon the president paid a glowing tribute to Father Cavanaugh, his predecessor.

The services opened at eight o'clock Sunday morning with an academic procession in which priests and lay members of the faculty participated. Following the procession a solemn high mass was celebrated. Rev. Matthew Walsh, vice president of the university officiating and acting as celebrant; Rev. Thomas P. Irving, prefect of studies acting as deacon and Rev. William Galigan, prefect of discipline as subdeacon. Rev. William Swiner served as master of ceremonies. He was assisted by Messrs. Paul Scofield, Thomas J. Tobin, Walter Douglas, Alfred C. Ryan, Thomas J. Beacom and Paul Conaghan.

Rev. John F. O'Hara, prefect of religion at the university authorized Eugene McAlleman, the youth who was drowned in St. Mary's lake at the university last Sunday and announced that a high mass of requiem would be sung for him in the university chapel next Thursday morning. All students of the university will be required to attend.

Many Attend Services.

For the first time in the history of the institution seating accommodations were inadequate at the Sunday services. Many of the students were forced to stand and students of Holy Cross seminary were obliged to sit in the sanctuary. Gregorian music was furnished by the Holy Cross choir under the direction of the Rev. Charles Marshall.

Referring to Father Cavanaugh who is now a professor at Holy Cross seminary, Washington, D. C., Very Rev. James A. Burns said:

"In speaking to you, my dear young men, on this occasion, the solemn religious opening of the scholastic year, I think I may presume even in this sacred place, to say just a word about one who is, I know, very much in your thoughts at this time. This is not the place to speak in praise of any man, however much the praise may be deserved.

"But I believe I am only answering a thought or it may be a question in your minds when I say that my feeling is that those rare and noble gifts of mind, of heart, and of tongue which were so happily associated with the presidential office in this institution during the past fourteen years, and which are so unselfishly devoted to the single aim of making this university ever greater and more respected, have made the spirit and the ideals of Father Cavanaugh forever inseparable from the hallowed traditions of this place, even as his kindly image is forever enshrined in the hearts of those who have known him. I can no better believe for myself or for you than that we may be guided, in our mutual relations and our mutual work, by that same spirit and those same ideals through which he was enabled to accomplish so much for Notre Dame."

AIRMEN DESCEND AT NOTRE DAME

Bound for Waukegan, Ill., Shortage of Gas Forces Them Down.

Two stranded aviators spent Sunday night in South Bend, before being forced to land at the Notre Dame aviation field on account of a shortage of gasoline. Fish Hassell, pilot of the plane, and E. E. Kenyon, passenger, left Grand Rapids about 4:15 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and made the trip to South Bend in one hundred minutes.

Start From Grand Rapids.

They made their first start from Grand Rapids about 3 o'clock, but were forced to descend again on account of the high winds and driving rain storm. They maintained an altitude of 4,000 feet on the trip here.

The machine is a two-passenger plane made by the Rose-Swift Airplane Co., of Grand Rapids, who have been making machines for all kinds of commercial flying for several months. Hassell and Kenyon were on a business trip to Waukegan, Ill., and will resume their journey this morning.

POLICE RECOVER CAR STOLEN AT WILLARD

L. M. Riddle of Willard, O., was notified by the police Sunday that his Halliday Six car had been recovered here Saturday night, when Valentine McAuliffe and Edward A. Wiegall were arrested for the theft of the machine.

The car was stolen at Willard last Wednesday, probably by McAuliffe and his companion, who escaped arrest when the latter two were taken by officers Tuskowski and Leather Saturday night.

The $25 reward offered for the recovery of the car will go into the police pension fund.

McAuliffe and Wiegall will probably be turned over to the federal authorities for trial, as both are deserters from the army, being absent from their station over 10 days.

WOMAN'S LEAGUE WILL HOLD MEETING TUESDAY

The north section of the Woman's League of the First Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the parsonage on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The assisting hostesses are, Mrs. A. G. Brouse, Mrs. Eva Metzger, Mrs. Frank Casteel, Mrs. C. L. Featherstone, Mrs. J. B. Campbell, Mrs. Norman E. Leuler, Mrs. Warren Woodward, Mrs. C. G. Newell, Mrs. J. W. Kemper and Mrs. S. J. L. Meyer.

At the meeting officers of the organization will be elected for the coming year.

"MOTHER M'RAE" OF PURDUE DIES IN EAST

MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 22.—Mrs. Emma Mont McRae, in former years principal of the Muncie high school, and later for 25 years occupying the chair of English at Purdue university, died at her home in Newton Centre, Mass., Sunday. The body will be brought to Muncie on Tuesday for burial. One daughter, Mrs. Hardy Mitchell, and two brothers, Dr. James Speera Montgomery of Washington, D. C., and Edward Montgomery of Shelbyville, Ind., survive.

The deceased was one of the most prominent educators in Indiana and was familiarly known by university students as "Mother McRae." She came to Muncie when a young woman as a teacher, and became principal of the high school.

RETURN STOLEN CAR

Automobile thieves who stole the Jeffery car belonging to Mrs. L. Simpson, 605 N. Coburn st., Saturday night, abandoned the machine in Sample street some time during the night, and it was returned to its owner Sunday morning. The car was taken from in front of the Elks temple while Mrs. Simpson was within a few feet of the place where the car was parked.

ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT

Joe Naky, 795 1/2 W. Ford st., had an argument with Sam Weeks, 715 W. Ford st., and attempted to make his argument more forceful by brandishing a rifle. He was arrested by Officer DeLee for assault with intent to kill.

Costs Stranger $37 to Assist Fainting Girl

She was very, very pretty so it was no wonder that when she fell fainting to the sidewalk a multitude of males flocked to her assistance. It seemed that the dainty damsel, heavily armed with a powder puff and a rouge box had turned her ankle.

One man knelt, even as one Sir Walter Raleigh of by-gone days and soothingly bathed her brow with water furnished from a nearby store. Two men brushed her hair through the crowd to her side and out of her hair. She arose, much refreshed.

"Thank you kind sir," she said and went west on Washington av.

"Gee that was a peach of a dame," opined Sir Walter Raleigh, pro tem, who registered at the Oliver as Joseph Barth, Chicago. And a traveling salesman ought to be able to tell the peaches from the lemons.

He sighed heavily and thrust both hands into his pockets. The sight was cut short. His purse containing $37 was gone with the dainty damsel.

"Those two men that brushed against me. I'll bet—"

And this time it was a real sigh.

And he proceeded to agree with P. T. Barnum, that there is "one born every minute."

State Medical Congress Will Fight "Flu" Germs

A number of papers dealing with the various phases of influenza will be read at the annual session of the Indiana State Medical association, which will be held at Indianapolis next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The profession of the state is making a special study of the disease in view of the possible recurrence of last year's epidemic. Among papers dealing with the subject will be the following: "Influenza in Children," by Dr. Nettie B. Powell of Marion; "Clinical Manifestations and Sequelae in Influenza," by Dr. Charles P. Emerson of Indianapolis; and "Correlation of Bacteriological and Pathological Findings in Influenza in One Hundred Necropsies at Camp Taylor," by Dr. E. N. Kime of Indianapolis.

The session will open with a smoker on Wednesday evening, at which luncheon will be served and various cabaret features arranged for the visiting members. The scientific program will begin Thursday morning and continue through Friday. On Thursday night a dinner will be held in the Riley room of the Claypool Hotel. Business meetings will be held Wednesday evening and Friday morning. Among the other features of the session will be a reception to be held at the new Indiana University School of Medicine Building on Thursday afternoon. A special entertainment program has been arranged for the women who will accompany the doctors, including a visit to various clinics, a luncheon and musicale.

Anti's Plan to Put Liquor Ban on Whole World

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—"Death to Booze," cried the officials of the Anti-Saloon League of America at the close of their two day session here. Methods of enforcing the prohibition law were discussed after which plans were made to make the entire world dry.
