TWO JOITS OF THE BLUEING BOTTLE.

Mrs. Thomas Moore of 140 Russell Street was very busy with her household duties yesterday afternoon and, in order to keep him quiet, she gave Gordon, her 16-months-old boy a bottle of laundry blueing to amuse himself with. Then she went on with her work and thought little more about the baby until some minutes later, when, to her amazement she noticed that he had taken the cork from the bottle of indigo and was drinking the fluid with evident relish.

She hastily took the bottle from the little fellow and placed it on the window-sill, while she ran to a neighbor's house to summon aid, fearing that the washing fluid was poisonous. When she returned in a minute she found that Gordon had again taken possession of the bottle and seemed bound to drain it. She again seized the bottle and tried her best to make the boy vomit what he had consumed. Dr. Weis soon arrived and administered an emetic and little Gordon is apparently none the worse today for his experience.

ED V. FITZPATRICK The Hustling Republican Nominee for Clerk of Supreme Court.

Ed V. Fitzpatrick of Portland, Jay county, candidate for clerk of the supreme court, is probably best known in every county of the state as "the man from Jay." Few citizens of Indiana have a wider personal acquaintance over the whole state than has Mr. Fitzpatrick. He is a native of Wells county, born in 1866, the son of Dr. J. D. Fitzpatrick of Vera Cruz. Mr. Fitzpatrick removed from Wells to Jay county in 1887, settling at Dunkirk, where he engaged for several years both in school teaching and mercantile lines. As a school teacher he was a success, even as he was as a merchant. He was recognized as a keen-sighted business man, his foresight, judgment, honesty and sociability impressing whomsoever came in contact with him.

He has served as clerk of the circuit court of his county, being elected by the largest majority ever given before or since to a candidate for that office in Jay county, and his services were so eminently satisfactory that he was renominated without opposition and again elected by an overwhelming majority when the county was conceded to hang slightly Democraticward.

Mr. Fitzpatrick was married to Miss Ollie J. Gordon January 21, 1886. They have three children—two sons and a daughter. The candidate's domestic life has been ideal, his duty to those of his own fireside being first with him. He is a man of vigor, energetic, one who makes friends readily, then holds fast to them, and has in him all the elements of a strong and successful candidate, and one who will make a competent and honorable state official.

Chicago Gets Off Easy. Chicago, July 5.—Three deaths and ninety-seven persons injured was the penalty Chicagoans paid for the celebration of Independence Day. Reports from other parts of the country indicate that the day was unusually free of casualties referable to the celebration.

Iowa Socialists. Des Moines, Ia., July 5.—Socialists of Iowa in convention here nominated John E. Shank, of Sioux City, for governor; A. R. Gifford, of Davenport, for lieutenant governor; Charles R. Oylor, of Waterloo, for secretary of state, and Fred Splan, of Delmonque, for treasurer.

Says His Victim Stole a Horse. Pitkin, Colo., July 5.—George Campbell was shot and killed in a fight with Frank Vader, a ranchman, fought on horseback. Vader's clothing was pierced by a bullet, but he was uninjured. Vader says Campbell stole a horse from him.

They Were Planning for the Fourth. Oswego, N. Y., July 5.—Murray Kitts, the 13-year-old son of Nathaniel Kitts, was accidentally shot and killed at Fulton by Frederick Parker, a companion about the same age. The boys were planning for the Fourth of July.

McClellan Had Other Business? London, July 5.—Mayor George B. McClellan, of New York, did not attend either the reception at the United States embassy or the banquet of the American society on the Fourth.
