RESENT ABUSE; GET KNIFE

Bloody Climax to Family Picnic at Lake Front Fish Resort.

SCHAUB CUTS AND MAIMS

Excursionists from Chicago Set Upon by Hammond Man Who Provokes Trouble.

Ernest Armd and Edward Holler who came out from Chicago yesterday with their families for a day at the Lake Front park, were badly cut up by a knife in the hands of Martin Schaub of Hammond, who is alleged to have used insulting language in the presence of the women and then resented being called to account for it.

The fight occurred on Sheffield avenue between the lake and the White House and was the outcome of a quarrel which started at "Fisherman Charley's" resort on the lake front. When Armd and Holler left Charley's and started for the street car on their way home they were followed by Schaub, who continued to abuse the two men in the presence of the women. Finally Edward Holler went back and attempted to stop the abuse. He was attacked by Schaub who slashed at him with a knife.

Armd, seeing that Holler had been badly injured, sought to capture his assailant and cause his arrest, but was also cut up by Schaub. The two injured men were taken first to the White House where it was found advisable to hurry them to a doctor at Whiting, where the rapid flow of blood could be checked.

Weak From Loss of Blood.
Holler was taken in Jewett's grocery wagon to Dr. E. L. Dewey's office where Dr. Hoskins assisted in dressing his wound, and Armd was carried in a buggy to Dr. Putnam's office where Dr. Swan was also in attendance.

Holler was found to be cut over the eye, on the back of the neck, in two places on the arm and in several other places.

Armd was even more badly injured. There was a deep flesh wound in his right shoulder, a bad cut on the wrist, a wound on the back of the head and a slash across the throat about four inches in length.

Martin Schaub, the assailant, is known as "Max" among his friends, is a machinist, who lives at 517 Calumet avenue in this city. Edward Holler resides at 2926 Wallace street, Chicago, and Ernest Armd lives at 2800 Archer avenue, Chicago.

Schaub was arrested this morning by Officers Bunde and Morris and was brought to the local police station where he will be held for trial.

TOWLE OPERA HOUSE OPENS WITH THRILLER.

"Fast Mail" Produces Some Fine Scenic Features—Other Good Plays Coming.

Towle's opera house opened last night with "The Fast Mail." Every seat in the house was sold. Manager Towle has promised to give Hammond a series of good plays during the coming season. The season opened early and consequently it was impossible to secure the best in the beginning. Nevertheless "The Fast Mail" pleased the audience very much. It is one of Lincoln J. Carter's thrillers revised and produced with greater effect. The scenic features were a picture of Niagara Falls, a race between two trains and a big steamboat explosion. For the gallery "god" the evening furnished continual excitement. "The Fast Mail" opens its run at Indianapolis tonight.

GARY HOLDS ELECTION

First Gary Political Event Proves to be a Decided Success.

HAMMOND MEN CHOSEN

Tom Knotts Likely President of Town Board While Oliver Holmes Will be Town Clerk.

Gary, Ind., July 29.—The first corporate election of Gary is now a part of its rapidly growing history. On Saturday the formal election was held giving the city its first officers. The polls opened at 6 o'clock and the forty-nine votes, that being the total number cast, came in slowly during the whole day.

The election board consisted of John E. Sears, L. A. Bryan and John Stewart. Following the closing of the polls at about 5 o'clock, there being no more votes offered, the board proceeded to count the votes. Messrs Caldwell, Walsh and Holmes checking. The result of the election was as follows: Millard A. Caldwell, trustee from the first ward; Thomas E. Knotts, trustee from the second ward, and John E. Sears, trustee from the third ward; treasurer, Louis A. Bryan, and clerk, C. O. Holmes.

Mr. Caldwell is a young man formerly from Terre Haute and now working with the steel corporation. Mr. Knotts is well known as the man who held down Hammond's lid, and Mr. Sears as well as Mr. Bryan is a resident of South Gary. Mr. Bryan has been justice of the peace for eight years, the last term being a hold-over term.

The new clerk, C. O. Holmes took the election quite seriously having been a member of the Hammond Republican central committee from his ward. He has left no stone unturned to get himself acquainted with the residents of Gary and on election day worked as if the success of the republican party of Indiana were at stake.

The elected officers hold until 1910 and while their salary now is a mere bagatelle, by the time their term of office expires, it will likely amount to "something in the hand whilst." The officers were promptly sworn in following their receipt of the certificates from the election board and a report of the election was filed at Crown Point this morning.

The town board, consisting of the three trustees meet this evening to begin their work.

PONY BALKS; CLEARS SIX-FOOT DITCH.

While Eugene Lewis and two friends were out driving near Valparaiso yesterday their pony suddenly balked. When brought about to move again, it hurled itself bodily over a six-foot ditch, dragging the rig with it. The vehicle fell into the ditch although the animal landed on the other side. The pony was slightly injured and the rig damaged. Mr. Perrine and his nephew assisted Lewis in righting the rig. The three people who had the experience with the balking pony live in Valparaiso.

Will Play Three Games With Grays.

The Hammond team has scheduled what promises to be three of the most interesting games of the season. They are to play the Whiting Grays, a team which is fast regaining its splendid reputation of a few years ago. The series is the result of a recent challenge from the manager of the Grays, and the agreement is to play for $100 a side at each of the three games. The dates for the three games have not been decided upon, but word is expected from the Whiting manager late today agreeing to the dates that Manager Miller has selected. The Whiting manager is negotiating with Pitcher Brady of the South Chicago to do the slab work and feels sure of winning if he gets this man.

A QUIET SUNDAY IN THE COUNTRY.

—Rogers in New York Herald.

TAKE NO CHANCES.

There seemed to be a policeman looking out of every corner of the Moon depot last night as one of the Sunday excursionists came through Hammond on the way back from Cedar Lake. The crowds on the train were either cowed or much more respectable than the usual lot for they seemed disinclined to even leave the cars as they usually do. The police are evidently taking no chances with the Cedar Lake hoodlums.

ANOTHER STREET CAR SCRAPE.

The street car conductors are having their troubles these days. Yesterday Carl Kluck, who was intoxicated, made such a disturbance that the conductor found it necessary to put him off the car. He did so and the man tried to start a fight. The affair occurred at 119th street and Schrage avenue where the Whiting police soon caused the arrest of the disturber. He is being held for trial at Whiting.

HORSE AND BUGGY STOLEN.

A horse and buggy were stolen from A. H. Smith last night at Crete, Ill., and the local authorities have been advised of the theft. The outfit ought to be easy to locate as the probabilities are that it has not been driven very far. The horse is black, 20 years old and is swayback. The buggy is an old one and looks as though the body was black once upon a time, while the gear was red. The chief of police is waiting for information about the horse and buggy.

TWO CHILDREN DEAD.

Otto Fruehling, aged two months, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 305 State street, West Hammond. He was buried this afternoon at Oak Hill.

MEYN AND HIS NEW AUTO.

Friends of Peter Meyn will be glad to learn that he arrived safely after his 175 mile trip from Yokomo in an auto. Not long ago Mr. Meyn ordered a Haines-Apherson forty horse power machine and rather than have it packed and shipped, he decided to go after it and run it to Hammond himself. There were three in the party that left Kokomo yesterday. Joe Dunsing, Mr. Meyn and Mr. Barnes, the latter being an expert from the automobile works. The party left Kokomo at 5:30 a. m. yesterday, and arrived in Hammond at 5:30 p. m.

Mr. Meyn declared he enjoyed the ride thoroughly although the machine hit a 30-mile an hour clip in spots. Mr. Meyn and his son Julius went to the city this afternoon in the new machine.

SINGERS RETURN HOME—PRAISE ST. PAUL HOSPITALITY

Several Thousand German Singers Enjoy themselves from Wednesday Until Saturday.

The German singing fest which took place at St. Paul last week closed on Saturday night. Hammond had a strong delegation there and most of it is expected to be in Hammond again today.

A St. Paul paper said that "music was in the air continuously" while the singers were there. The depot on Thursday all day long resounded with the joyful strains of the local brass band as it welcomed the incoming visitors.

Every arrangement went off without a hitch and great credit is due to those in charge. The baggage of the visitors was looked after by the members of the local societies. The saengerfest information bureau stationed on the main floor of the depot did inestimable good and through its efforts no confusion resulted. The members of each society as they filed into the depot were informed as to their hotels and given other useful information.

A feature of the arrivals was the display of unique banners and accoutrements carried by many of the singers. Many of the singers wore white caps, others white coats, some carried canes, others umbrellas, but there was no attempt at uniformity in dress.

The Hammond saengerbund wore white caps. Many of the singers, carried old fashioned German winding horns slung to their belts, and these relics of the good old hunting days attracted considerable attention. Others carried steins, but for that matter the local board was capable of furnishing an unlimited supply of these useful instruments.

One society carried as its mascot a stuffed cat set on a pole and holding a fish in its mouth. Many of the women marched in the parade along with their husbands and sons, but most of them preferred to walk on the sidewalks or ride to headquarters.

FORESTER'S PICNIC.

Special to Lake County Times. Lowell, Ind., July 30.—The first annual picnic of the Independent Order of Foresters of Lowell was held at Oakland park on Saturday. Excepting the heavy rain that put an end to the ball game in the seventh inning, with a score of 8 to 5 in favor of Lowell, and also prevented the dance at the pavilion, the picnic was an enjoyable event and was fairly well attended. The address of Mr. Ibach of Hammond, was well delivered, showed much thought and seemed to impress his hearers deeply, who gave him close attention.

FISH WARDEN BLAMELESS.

State Fish and Game Commissioner Z. T. Sweeney returned from Muskoka lake district, in Canada, where he has been spending his vacation for the last month. He was surprised to hear that Deputy Prosecuting Meeker had threatened to have him arrested for authorizing the use of a sein to remove fish from Cedar Lake.

The charge was not that the fish warden used a sein to remove the undesirable fish from the river but that bass, pickerel and other game fish were not thrown back into the lake as should have been done. Instead the warden and his friends are alleged to have selected the choicest game fish of the haul for their own personal use.

LONELY HERE? NOT A BIT OF IT

The Stay-at-Homes Have Just as Good a Time as Those Who Hie to Inland Lakes.

(By Daisy L. Emery).

This is the height of the season at the summer resorts and the hotels are crowded to utmost of their capacity and the numerous cottages are filled. T. E. Bell's cottage at Pon-du-Lac is the scene of many little house parties and the new launch is very popular. Rev. and Mrs. Jones are enjoying an outing at the Dells in Wisconsin and the Gromans are also there. B. L. P. Bell and family are having a good time at Winnebago. The Reiters and several other Hammond people are spending many pleasant days at Sylvan Lake in Michigan. Thursday the regatta opens with "Venetian Night" at Macataw and Ottawa Beach and Tuesday Saugatuck will have a general illumination, and Waukazoo is to have a street fair two evenings this week. A number of our people will go over to attend some of these festivities.

The Hammond people have deserted Peacock, Mich., and have gone farther north. South Haven comes in for a great many week-end parties and Sunday saw several people from here there. St. Joe and Benton Harbor still have a prominent place on the list of popular resorts and each week finds some of our young people there. The mid-season festivities are in full swing at Paw Paw Lake and we have representatives there—indeed Hammond is well represented at all the resorts.

Not Lonesome at Home.

More of the real "joy of living" enters into the summer life of the stay-at-home provided he or she has mastered the lesson of comparison and has learned to philosophize. Envy is the making of summer resorts. One goes resorting because somebody else goes resorting. One leaves his or her happy home and betakes himself or herself to some stuffy, stifling rendezvous because the idea of staying at home and being comfortable might be taken as a confession of lack of wherewithal. One who does not care for the speech of people can conjecture up a vision of a battle with mosquitoes at the fashionable watering places. They can find it in their hearts and voices to paraphrase the song of the sailor on the deck of the tempest-tossed bark in mid-ocean: "A strong nor' easter's blowing, Bill, Don't you hear it roar now? 'O, Lor' how I pities them Unhappy folks on shore now." Think of the hot nights, the poor food, the able bodied mosquitoes and the rapacious landlords at the inland resorts and be happy. Think also of the fun that is to be had at the neighborhood porch party.

All Very Well, But—

The water has a charm for most people and the warm summer months take so many of our people to the resorts on Lake Michigan and the other big lakes and the smaller lakes are very popular too for they afford the same advantages for fishing, swimming, bathing and boating that the large ones do.

The impression that might be gained from this is that Hammond and surrounding towns are deserted but such is not the case.

The town folks who rejoice in the possession of automobiles—and the number is growing at a remark-
