

OVER THE TEA CUPS

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

The members of the Rusch family in Hammond and a few out-of-town relatives will celebrate Mr. Rusch's forty-ninth birthday anniversary tomorrow by going to Cedar lake for an all-day's outing.

LEAVES FOR LAFAYETTE. Professor George A. Bollinger, former manager of the Hammond Chicago business college, left this noon for Lafayette, where he will spend a few days before going to St. Louis, where he takes up a new position.

FLATTERING INDUCEMENTS have been offered the young man to go to St. Louis as manager of the stenography department in the St. Louis business college. He has made a contract for ten years and has in all probability a life time position if he desires it.

He has a host of friends in Hammond who regret his absence from this city and wish him success in his new position.

DON'T LOOK 'DUMPY.' "No teacher," said Dr. Stanley Hall, in his recent able address at Winona, "has any right to go into a school room 'dumpy' and cross, for the children catch contagion. A child has the right to be happy and should not be subjected to the influence of a 'dumpy' teacher."

Similar doctrine might be preached about everybody, in anybody's presence, and it would be sound. No one has the right to inflict his "dumps" on another. The rule holds good in families and communities.—South Bend Times.

EAGLES WILL ROOST AT SEATTLE.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 7.—The Grand Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will convene in this city, the birthplace of the order, next Tuesday. The judiciary committee met yesterday and reviewed one thousand proposed amendments offered by subordinate aeries, many of which will be rejected. The ritual committee is considering a new ritual which will be offered to the convention. Frank Hering of South Bend will be chosen grand worthy vice president.

NORTH SIDE WEDDING.

Invitations are out for the coming marriage of Miss Augusta Tangerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tangerman, 848 Hickory st., and Mr. Irwin Roseman. The wedding will take place August 19, at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony will be very simple and only the relatives and near friends of the young couple will be present. The young people are popular on the North Side and have a large circle of friends who wish them all happiness.

ENTERTAINS AT PARTY.

Mrs. Charles Roth entertained a party of friends very pleasantly Thursday evening at her home in Claude street. The evening was passed with informal dancing and music after which a dainty luncheon was served. Among the guests were: Misses Cosy Carry, Anna May Carry, Myra Beam, Mrs. Beam, Messrs. and Madames Oliver Anderson, Huber and sons, Clarence and Raymond and Morris Hudson, Gaa, Leach and daughters Pearl and Della Leach and Mrs. Smith.

RETURNED FROM MILWAUKEE.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schwab of South

Hohman street returned this morning from Milwaukee, to which place they crossed the lake yesterday. They were passengers on board the whaleback Christopher Columbus, the story of which is told in another column, and say that there were thousands of people on the docks when the C. C. came in.

WILL BE ENTERTAINED.

Many Hammond Catholic Foresters and Columbia League men will go to Schererville next Sunday, where the local lodges entertain them at a picnic. Big preparations are being made by the Schererville lodges for the day and local lodge men will respond in large numbers. The proceeds will be used toward enlarging the parochial school of the congregation.

WILL ENJOY OUTING.

About fifteen of the local telephone operators will cross the lake to Michigan City tomorrow and spend the day. They anticipate a very pleasant day's outing.

DINNER AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Misses Grace Ducomb, Marie Stout, Ethel Ehrlicht and Idabell Daugherty went to Chicago this afternoon where they will meet friends and have dinner at the Auditorium this evening.

ATTENDS HOUSE PARTY.

Miss Mary Krost of Doty street has gone to Greencastle, Ind., to be a guest at a house party given by Miss Ruth Baker, formerly teacher of German in the Hammond high school. From there Miss Krost will go to Danville to visit Miss Plaster, a niece of Rev. H. M. Plaster of this city.
