

EAST CHICAGO AND INDIANA HARBOR

EAST CHICAGO. Will Attend Reunion.

Mrs. Col. J. J. Funkhouser will leave Thursday for Lafayette, where she will attend the reunion of the famous Wilder's Brigade. Among the notable officials who will attend the reunion of the civil war veterans are General Wilde himself, Generals J. H. Wilson and O. O. Howard, Colonel Fort, who commanded a South Carolina regiment during the battle of Chickamauga and the governors of Indiana and Illinois.

The reunion of this year may be the last in the history of the fast expiring brigade and a special inducement fare of one-half rates has been secured over all railroads running into Lafayette. Colonel Funkhouser was Colonel of the Ninety-eighth Illinois Infantry during the war and since his death, Mrs. Funkhouser has been an active participant in the keeping of her husband's memory before his fellow-soldiers.

Want New Lights.

An attempt will be made at a meeting of the council in the near future to demand the installation of electric lights on Beacon street. Residents of that section of the city are emphatic in their denunciation of the city's carelessness in this matter. Lights were ordered several months ago but the residents have received only promises ever since. A sidewalk from the corner of Wegg and Chicago avenues to the heart of the city will also be asked for. These are improvements that should not be overlooked, as Beacon street is one of the finest residence sections of the city.

Holds Business Meeting.

Miss Kate Smith, of Grasso, has returned from a summer vacation spent in New York and Pennsylvania. Her health, for the benefit of which she went East, is vastly improved. Miss Smith has always been a school leader in the chemical town and her return presages the return of jolly good times among Grasso's "four hundred."

William McKenzie, former superintendent of the Interstate Iron and Steel Company is visiting friends in this city for a few days. Mr. McKenzie is now located with the Western Reserve Insurance Company, of Muncie, Ind., and expects to write a few policies in East Chicago before he returns.

The Bee Hive department store on Olcott avenue, has installed a gasolene lighting system purchased from the Mose Specter agency.

Mrs. Harry Specter returned yesterday from a visit with friends in Chicago.

Charles Mendellsohn, Saloonkeeper, Refuses to Pay His Fine.

SPENDS NIGHT IN JAIL CELL

Thinks Company Is Trying to Rob East Chicago and Wants to Get Even.

[Special to THE TIMES] East Chicago, Ind., Sept. 16.—Charles Mendellsohn, the Oklahoma saloonkeeper with a police record as long as a rope ladder, is again in trouble, and on this occasion will be charged with using obscene language on one of the new C. L. S. & B. cars.

INDIANA HARBOR. Breaks Two Ribs

William Evans of Grapevine avenue, sustained serious injuries yesterday morning. While walking down the rear stairs Mr. Evans fell the entire length of the area-way, breaking two ribs. Although Mr. Evans is 70 years of age, it is not believed that his injuries will prove fatal. A local physician has charge of the patient and reports him as doing nicely.

Chief Detective Wilhelm of the C. I. & S. railroad was a Harbor visitor this afternoon.

A small fire broke out in the Cohen building on Parrish avenue about 6 o'clock last night. The fire department turned out in fine shape and succeeded in locating the blaze. An old mattress had caught fire in some mysterious manner, filling the house with smoke and alarming the inmates. A liberal dose of water quenched its burning.

Mrs. S. W. Leech, of Michigan avenue and a friend from New Albany, were Chicago visitors yesterday afternoon.

C. P. Burdick, manager of the Lake County Lumber Company, was in Chicago yesterday.

George H. Peelen, of the Harbor Hotel, has resumed his duties at the hotel desk after an eastern vacation of two weeks. Glad to see you back.

The Booster Club, under the direction of Kaiser Stickers, is preparing for a mammoth smoker, to be held in the club rooms one week from tonight. Several valdeville stunts have already been engaged and the Kaiser promises a good time to all the members who join in the evening of fun and merriment.

Most of the Harbor attorneys were present at the opening of the superior court in Hammond yesterday.

Dr. Sauer was a Chicago visitor yesterday afternoon.

Miss Edna Fairman has resigned her position with the Goldberg store on Michigan avenue and will accept a temporary position with a Chicago firm. She will leave in a few months for a Pennsylvania town, where she will locate permanently.

It is rumored that a short order and oyster house will be opened by a Chicago proprietor in the building vacated by Sternberg's restaurant on Block avenue.

The East Chicago company held its monthly directors' meeting yesterday afternoon, under the direction of its president, Robert E. Todd, of New York. Nothing of special importance was discussed although all present conceded the fact that business showed a marked increase during the past two or three weeks.

About fifty invitations have been issued to guests for the Royal League dance on Friday evening. Manager Meyer, of the Promotion committee has been active in arranging for the affair and it will undoubtedly be one of the brilliant social features of the year.

The invited guests are congratulating themselves upon their good fortune and there will be an unusually large attendance.

Whiting, Ind., Sept. 16.—(Special)—The Whiting Sun, a weekly newspaper here, yesterday changed hands. Frank Vance, the editor of the paper turning this partnership over to William Hickey, who was one of the partners.

Mr. Vance is out of town at present, although his family still resides here. Editor Hickey will follow the policy which was carried out by Editor Vance as far as is known.

To those who contemplate buying jewelry or have repairing to do, I would advise them to go to Mr. Goldstein, Michigan avenue, Indiana Harbor, Ind.

He has convinced me that he is the best mechanic I have ever met. He is a gentleman and deserves your patronage.

I have had my watch repaired in many places by Mr. Goldstein. It is the only one I have found to repair it right and keep it in first class running order.

I recommend him to those who have had the same experience.

ANOTHER STINGER BILL.
N. Lajoie's Cleveland handed the Sox another wallop behind the ear yesterday and took second place away from them. Most unkind, especially as the Detroiters happened to win a game, which means the Sox dropped back another notch behind the leaders. Mr. Comiskey's athletes couldn't get any runs for Ed Walsh, so he was beaten by Liebhardt, 3 to 0.

It was tough on Manager Jones to get his trump card trimmed. He naturally figured Walsh was in a pretty soft spot and morally certain to take Liebhardt's measure, but Liebhardt surprised everybody by pitching just three times as well as Walsh and winning in a walk. Two doubles over third and an infield scratch were all the Sox could manufacture, while the Cleveland finger was looking. The three wallops were unattached, so of course they didn't get the home boys anything.

CUBS CAN'T STAND PAY DAY.
Boston, Sept. 15.—Pay day and the opening of the eastern invasion brought woe unto the cubs today. They lost the opening game with the doves, 3 to 2, Steinfeldt letting two runs leak past him at third base and the cubs, by ill-judged base running, throwing away their opportunities to win after that. The defeat dropped the champs to third place—three games behind New York.

Worn out and weary from their long jump from St. Louis, minus their bats, arriving hours late and hungry, the cubs ran out to pluck a few feathers from the doves—and got badly scratched, suffering the severest blow to their pennant hopes they yet have endured. Brown pitched—and although he pitched superbly, Lindaman beat him.

YOST SETS FOOTBALL MACHINE IN MOTION.
Michigan Coach Has Eleven Candidates Out for First Practice of the Season.
Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 15.—Yost and eleven of his University of Michigan gridiron warriors and would-be warriors were at Whitmore for the opening practice today. Wasmund, quarterback; Alleridge, half back; Captain Schultz and Walker are the old men while P. P. Douglass of Martinsville, Ill., who played sub last year; Benbrook, the Chicago giant; Green of Saginaw, Gamble of Maryland, H. H. Brennan of Lansing, Primeau of Marquette, B. V. Ralston, Louisville, N. Y., and W. Edmonds of Youngstown, Ohio, all men ineligible last year on account of the being freshmen, were also present. Seven more are expected tomorrow.

MATCHED HANDBALL TEAMS.
The next contests at J. J. O'Malley's handball court at 106 56 Torrence avenue will take place next Sunday when two matched teams will play for a prize of $50. The game played will be between Jack Fleming and James McNulty vs. Manck Brothers. The game will be called at 2:50 o'clock and it is expected there will be a large crowd in attendance as the game will be a close one and each team is anxious to capture the prize. In fact, O'Malley's court is expected to be one of the most important and interesting places among the lovers of all kinds of sport during the coming winter.

MAY CREATE SENSATION.
Another intercollegiate imbroglio, involving the amateur standing of George Capron, the newly elected captain of the University of Minnesota football team, threatens to disturb the peace of the "big eight" schools on the eve of the gridiron sason. Whether or not the gopher leader is the same Capron who played professional baseball in the is the leading outfielder of the Eastern league.

President Dobbins of the Atlantic league is at work mapping out a new circuit for next season. Reading, Wilmington, Brooklyn, Elizabeth, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Shamokin and either Pottsville or Easton will form the new organization.

The Pennsylvania and West Virginia league has had a nice race and gone through the season in fairly good shape. Several of the clubs exceeded the salary limit and this has been the only complaint.

To 1908 crop of minor leaguers gathered by major league clubs looks to be a fine one. While a majority of the boys no doubt will be sent back to the small leagues a large number will make good in the big city show.
