NOR IS WORLD PEACE A DEAD DREAM

FINLEY JUNIORS TO ENJOY PROGRAM FOR ARMISTICE DAY

Armistice day comes but once a year and as far as we can learn, everyone is going to make good cheer on that day. Programs will be given in all the public schools of the city. The tercentennial of the landing of the Pilgrims will also figure in the celebration.

The following program is planned for the enjoyment of the boys and girls of Finley school:

1. Patriotic songs.
2. Flag salute.
3. Allegory of Peace, "The Wind and the Sun."
4. War stories, "The Reason for Armistice Day."
5. Pledge to the flag.
6. Song, "The School-house Flag."
7. Play, "When Columbus Discovered America."
8. Play, "First Thanksgiving Day."
9. Exercise, "The Pilgrim."
10. Pageant, "Scenes from the Life of Lincoln."
11. Song, "Lincoln's Birthday."
12. Negro melodies.
13. Pageant, "America Saves the World in 1918."
14. Pageant, "Peace."

GOOD ENGLISH PLAYS WRITTEN AND GIVEN BY GARFIELD PUPILS

Garfield's English students the past two weeks have been busy writing compositions in the form of plays for Better Speech week. The best one from each class was selected by the teacher to be acted on Thursday in each of the other English classes reciting at that hour. The successful authors of these selected plays were: Mildred Gardner, Janice Smith, Alta Dove, Florence Rogers, Alberta Craft, Maxine Saine, Orville Slier, Northrop Elmer, Jean Shiveley, Catherine Eye, Willard Crandall, Stewart Binkley, Louise Sloane, Charlotte Spalding, Thelma Boswell, Goldie Martzell, Cecelia Elstro, Virgie Long, Freida Longster, Lillian Hill, Eva Ramay, Louise Weidner, William Campfield, Goldie Brown, Claire Evans and Harold Nuss.

Boy Scouts Troop 1 Have Raised Money Pledged to Church

Boy Scouts of Troop One met on Wednesday evening, Oct. 27, in Grace M. E. church. Two new members and two old members joined. Money was received from treasurer of old troop. The troop has enough money to pay the church the amount pledged. The money is to be deposited in the Second National bank.

Tenderfoot badges were given to Donald Essmacher, Wilbur Pond, and Robert Thomas. Members of the church were trying out the new picture machine. The Scouts were invited to look at the picture. Calendars were given out. The oath was said and the meeting adjourned.

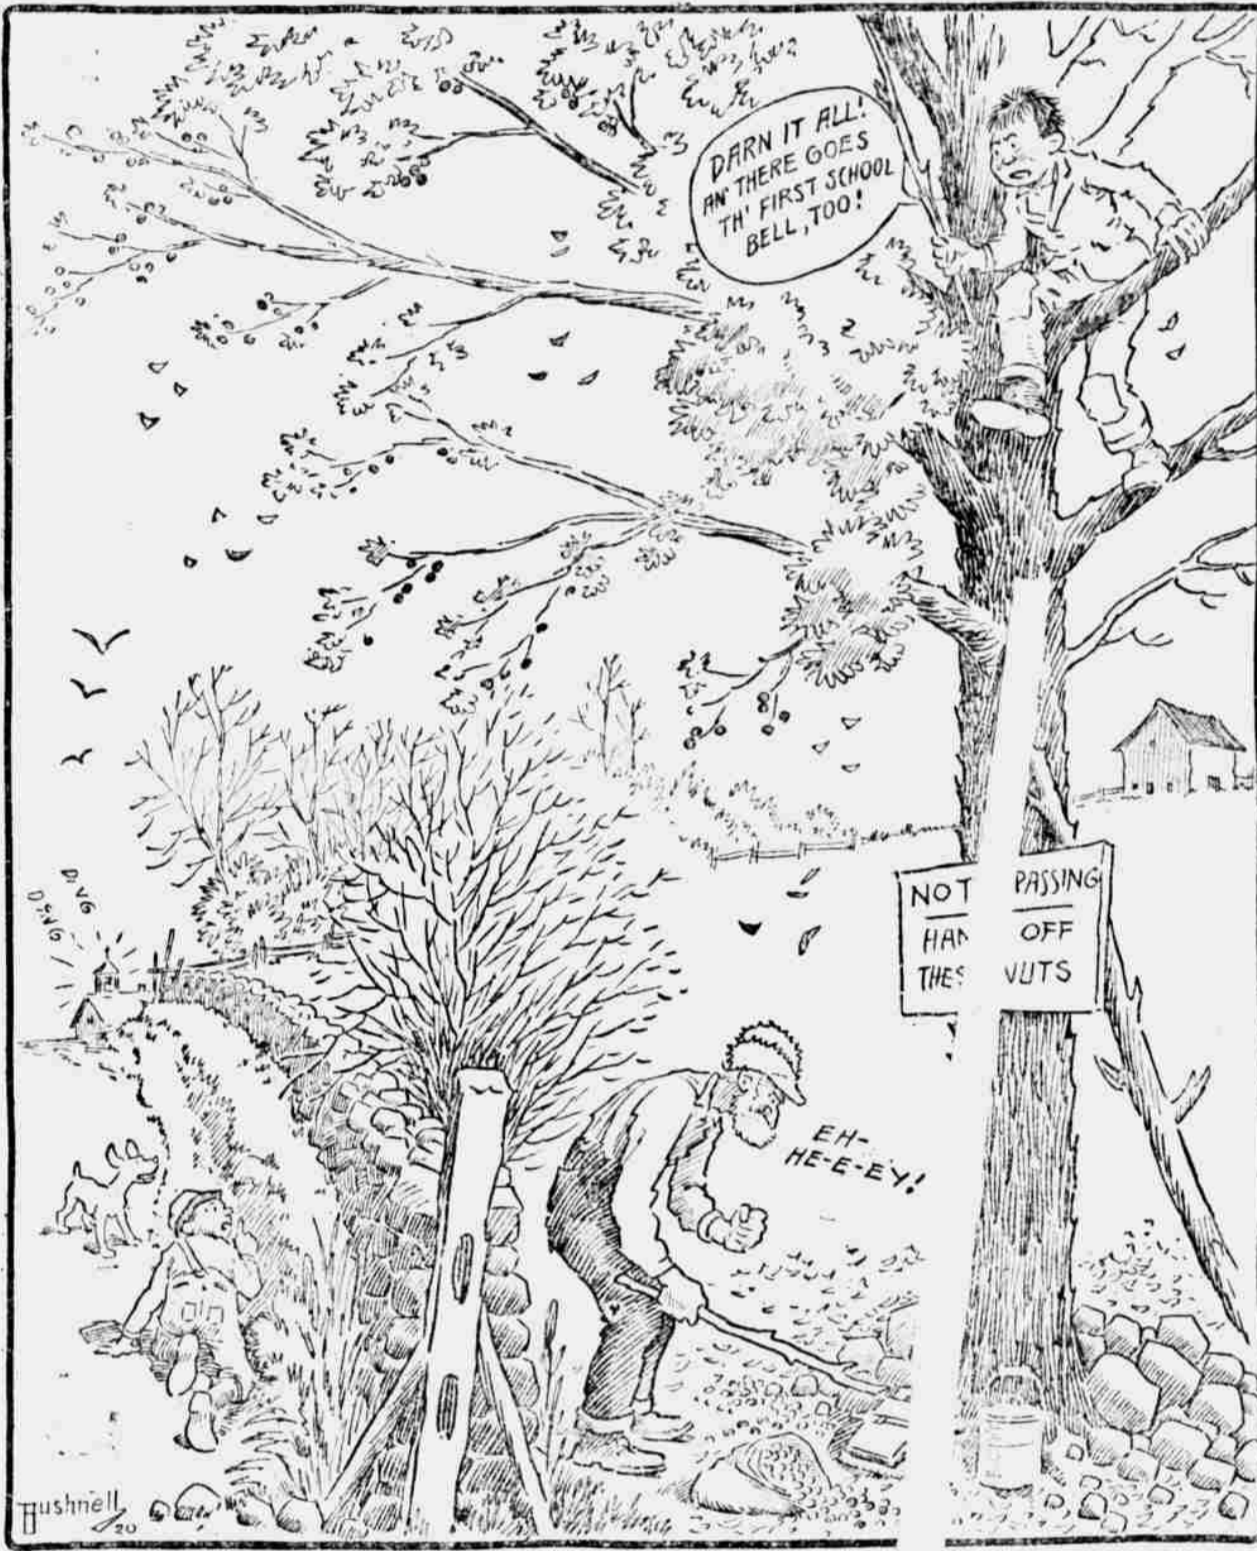

The Boy Scouts of Troop One wish to express their thanks to the Epworth League, whose party they helped to enjoy.

[Ed. Note: This came in too late for publication in last week's Junior. This news should be in the Palladium office as early on Thursday as possible to be in the Junior of the same week. We wish to say that we consider these stories of Troop One's weekly meetings good news stories and would be glad if the author would sign his name.]

English Classes To Exchange Plays

The English classes are exchanging plays about good English. Some of the plays are based on stories or books. They will be acted Thursday, Nov. 4, 1920. We are expecting some good ones.—C. N.

TREED! AN IDOL OF THE NUTTING SEASON.

STUDENTS PRESENT GOOD ENGLISH PLAYS IN GARFIELD CHAPEL

As this goes to press, Wednesday evening the following program is announced for the Garfield Better Speech Chapel exercises, Friday afternoon, Nov. 5.

Address—"Value of Good English in Business."

"Speak Good English"—Song, in "round" form sung by the entire school.

Play, "The Princess of Golden Language," written by Marion Chenoweth.

Pantomime, "Columbia Has the Headache," written by Catherine N. Fye.

"What Can Be Done for Better English?," double quartette.

Play, "G's Hardships," played by pupils 8A class.

Play, "Good English, An Able Servant," 7A class, co-operative work.

Salutemus—Paraphrase of the school song for Good English week.

OUR HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Last Friday afternoon after recess we masked and Miss Vore guessed us. We had animal crackers and played games with them. Miss Klenker and Miss Pane came in and watched us. Then we had lunch, we had popcorn and apples. I was dressed like Red Riding Hood. Miss Vore couldn't guess some of us. Bernice Harris was the last one guessed. We had a nice time.—Robert Pitman, 5A Sevastopol school.

THEY HAVE POSTERS TOO

The art classes are making posters for Good English. The posters are all over the school and are exceptionally good. Posters are still coming out.—C. N.

When We Went To The Art Gallery

Wednesday afternoon the fifth grade went to the art gallery. We saw many kinds of pictures.

Some were tin types and there were some painted on brass.

And some were called original oil paintings; you can always tell the oil paintings because you can see the strokes that the brush makes. After we saw the pictures Miss Williams told us to sit down and we did.

Then she asked us some questions after we did what she asked us to, she told us to pick out a picture that we liked the best. She asked us some more questions, then we went back to school.—Ethel Godsey, Sevastopol, 5B.

High Freshmen Defeat Garfield

Wednesday afternoon, the Freshman team of Senior high school wrestled a second victory from the picked team of Garfield. Five games have been played this fall by these teams, out of which Garfield has emerged as victor of three.

The present standing of the Garfield Room League teams is:

	G.W.	G.L.	Pct.
Room 3	4	1	.800
Room 1	3	2	.600
Room 25	2	2	.500
Room 5	3	2	.600
Room 2	2	2	.500
Room 6	2	2	.500
Room 4	1	3	.250
Room 14	1	4	.250
Standing of the second teams is as follows:
	G.W.	G.L.	Pct.
Room 25	2	0	1.000
Room 3	1	0	1.000
Room 2	1	0	1.000
Room 14	1	1	.500
Room 1	0	1	.000
Room 4	0	1	.000
Room 6	0	2	.000

ASTRONOMY CLUB WELL ENTERTAINED AT PROF. HOLE'S

In honor of his birthday anniversary Allen David Hole, Jr., entertained the members of the Garfield Boys' Astronomy club at his home, 615 National Road West, Tuesday evening. Stereopticon slides furnished part of the entertainment of the evening. Later refreshments were served. A good time was enjoyed by all the guests who numbered 16.

I Learn Something Of Portrait Painting

I walked up to the high school. When I got there Miss Williams was up there. We waited a little while then we saw Paul Cousin. We went in the high school and looked at the pictures. I learned many things about chalk pictures, oil pictures, learned to tell the difference between both of them. The artist must know what you do and the color of your hair so he can fix the back ground of you so he could paint the background. If your hair was black he would paint the background white. If your hair is white he would paint it a dark color. I saw nice pictures of children and men, women and scenery.—Carl Schneider, Sevastopol school 5B grade.

BOYS' DEPARTMENT GETS A BRIGHTENING UP

The walls in the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. are being redecorated this week. New pictures are being framed for these rooms. For information about picture framing see Social Secretary Cox.

MUSICIAN'S PORTRAIT IS FAVORITE WITH THE JUNIOR ART VISITORS

Appreciation of beauty in music and in painting, and of the artist who could portray both on his canvas is shown in the choice of the boys and girls of the fifth and sixth grades of the public schools when the majority vote for the best liked picture in the recent exhibit was cast. The picture chosen was Leo Ornstein (at the piano) painted by Leon Kroll of New York city. This portrait received 270 votes, more than 100 votes beyond that received by any other picture in the exhibit.

The portrait of little Miss Mary Carolyn Edmunds, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Edmunds of North Thirteenth street painted by Mrs. Maude Kaufman Eggemeyer, won second place with 158 votes.

Other portraits which received from 30 to 75 votes were: Kurt by Wayman Adams, Mr. Francis Brown by S. P. Baus, Faithful Frank by Gerrit A. Beneker, Mr. J. E. Bundy by Miss Anna Newman, Mrs. Will J. Davis by Robert W. Grafton, Ann Delia by Ernest L. Ipsen and Mrs. M. F. Johnston by Robert Grafton. Two of the prints were popular too—those of George Washington and Mrs. Roare. The former has been purchased for Sevastopol school.

All the juniors of the fifth and sixth grades in the public schools, in the Junior high school and the Senior high school art classes visited the exhibit. There were 1,067 visitors altogether. Miss Williams supervisor of art in the city schools was in charge of the grade and high school visiting afternoons.

J. H. S. Girls Win Contest.

In a contest as to which would be present at the art gallery in the greatest number for Garfield afternoon—Sunday—the girls won over the boys. There were three times as many girls as boys. The program which was in charge of Miss Mawhood and Mr. Brown was interesting and well given throughout, and the crowd present was the largest ever present on a Sunday afternoon to a school reception in the local gallery.

The following program was given:

1. Selection by the orchestra.
2. Talk, "Different Ways of Making Portraits," William Webb.
3. Solo, Walter Reinhard.
4. Talk, "A Permanent Exhibit," Elizabeth Smith.
5. Soprano solo, James Coe.
6. Talk, "Portraits of Richmond People in the exhibit, Mary Jane Schillinger.
7. Duet, flute and clarinet, Edward Nusbaum and David Marvel.

New Exhibit to Open.

Sunday afternoon, Nov. 7, a new exhibit that of the Richmond artists will open in the art gallery.

NEWS OF SOCIETY

Miss Josephine Thorn entertained with a Hallowe'en masquerade party at her home on North Twentieth street Friday evening, Oct. 29. The rooms were decorated in Hallowe'en colors and the little guests came masked. Games and music and dancing were enjoyed. The children that were present were: Inez Bish, Katherine Meyers, Edith Warner, Mary Cowles, Constance Leech, Maxine Leech, Mragaret Justice, Margaret Tillson, Betty Clark, Reba Thomas, Dorothy Lowe and Josephine Thorn.

Mildred Kenworthy has re-entered Garfield school after an extended visit with members of her family in California.

J. H. S. SLOGANS FOR BETTER SPEECH WEEK

Mrs. Graves' 8A composition class has been sending around slogans on Good English. The slogan's are changed each day. They are very good.—C. N.
