Maybe it was just one of her false eyelids or eyelashes slipping a bit. For these are the latest aids to beauty. Above, Nina Whitmore, one of the three famous dancers of that name, is shown donning a false eyelid.

M'CRAY TO APPOINT WOMEN ON BOARDS

(By Associated Press) INDIANAPOLIS, April 21.—Governor McCray has announced as a definite policy, which will be carried out throughout his administration, the appointment of women to boards of trustees of the various state institutions in which there are both men and women inmates.

"I believe that women should have representatives on the boards of trustees of the benevolent institutions in which women, as well as men, are inmates," the Governor said. "For that reason I expect to appoint at least one woman to each of the boards as vacancies occur."

Heretofore the membership of the boards of the insane hospitals have all been men. Although there are women in all of these institutions, there is now no woman on any of the boards. The same is true of the village for epileptics and the farm colony for feeble-minded.

Women have had representation on other benevolent institution boards, however. There has been a woman member of the board of the school for feeble-minded youth at Port Wayne and the state sanitarium for some time. The statutes require women on the boards of the soldiers' home and the soldiers' and sailors' orphans' home.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Gift to Portugal of the two seven-inch and two three-inch guns used during the war at the American naval base at the Azores is favored by Secretary Denby who in a letter today to the speaker of the house recalls that after the United States entered the war Portugal permitted the navy to mount the guns at Ponta Del Gada. The base is being abandoned and instead of dismantling the guns the secretary suggests they be turned over to the Portuguese navy "as a slight indication of appreciation."

Former action was recommended by former Secretary Daniels but congress never authorized the transfer.
