One of the prettiest weddings of the month to occur at St. John's Lutheran church took place at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon when Miss Hilva Kehlenbrink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kehlenbrink, and Paul Nolte were married by the Rev. A. L. Nicklas, pastor of the church. The single ring service was used. The bride's gown was of white georgette over satin. Her long tulle veil was caught with flowers. She carried a shower of bride's roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaid, Miss Viola Blomeyer, wore a gown of pale green and carried pink roses and sweet peas. Carl Kehlenbrink acted as best man. A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents after the ceremony. Covers were laid for 20 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Nolte left immediately for a short wedding trip. The bride travelled in a blue tulle suit with hat and other accessories to match. They will be at home after July 1 at 621 South Eighth street.

Miss Mildred Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Martin, and Eugene E. Gehring, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gehring, of Cambridge City, were married at noon Wednesday in the First M. E. parsonage, the Rev. R. W. Stoakes, pastor of the church, officiating. The bride wore a gown of embroidered georgette fashioned over white satin, with a picture hat to match. Her flowers were Columbia roses in a shower bouquet. There were no attendants. A wedding dinner was served after the service at the home of the bride's parents on West Main street. Smilax and pink and white roses were arranged through the rooms of the Martin home for the occasion. The pink and white motif was carried out in the dinner appointments. The table was decorated with French baskets of Columbia roses and wreaths of smilax. Covers were laid for eight persons. Mr. and Mrs. Gehring will be at home for the present with the bride's parents at 707 West Main street. Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John Gehring, of Cambridge City, parents of the groom and Mrs. Ida Martin, of Greenville, O., an aunt of the bride.

Mrs. Rose Ladd, of Cleveland, O., is spending two weeks here the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. M. Shank, of 318 South Eleventh street. Mrs. Ladd has been with the home service section of the Red Cross at Parkersburg, W. Va.
