CITY-WIDE PICTURE CONTEST HAS BEGUN; GROUPS COMPETE

The Famous Picture contest, scheduled to begin March 13, was postponed until March 20 on account of delay in receiving pictures and slides. The list of pictures which the different grades will study next week was announced in last week's Junior Palladium. Study of some of the pictures, however, was commenced Tuesday morning when the sets of pictures were delivered to each school.

Pictures in Local Stores

Sets of the pictures to be studied in the contest will be on sale in Nicholson's Book store, the Art Store and the Violet Ray studio.

Any contestant may compete in a number of groups and any junior wishing to learn the complete list of 50 pictures which the older people are learning may sign up for that work as well. All the work will be done as a part of the regular art work.

The following groups will be represented: Parent-Teachers' associations, adult Sunday school classes, family, junior high school, school rooms, parochial and district schools.

For each of these, valuable prizes will be offered. Individual prizes will also be given.

ST. ANDREW'S MAKES TOY DUTCH VILLAGE

The first grade of St. Andrew's school made a Holland village, which is on display in their room.

The houses are made of heavy paper. Each house shows a different room. The first house shows the kitchen and the table is all set ready for a feast; the others show the parlor and bedrooms.

They also have a very realistic looking pond, which is constructed of a piece of glass with blue paper beneath it. On this pond there are ducks and boats; around the edges of it tulips are growing.

They also made some March posters.—Herschel Oler, reporter for St. Andrew's school.

BAXTER LEARNS OF PIONEER RICHMOND

We have been studying early Richmond. One day we drew a picture of a house made of logs in a forest. We drew a picture of a frame house with two trees around it. Then we drew a forest with a log house, and a wagon, horse, man and woman. And then we drew a covered wagon. But before we drew the log house we drew a house by itself. After we drew the horse by itself we drew a covered wagon with a horse pulling the wagon. The last thing we drew was the old court house.—Mildred Pheanis, 3A grade Baxter school.

GRADE ORCHESTRAS WILL GIVE CONCERT

All the grade school orchestras of the city will play together in a concert to be given April 7, probably in the Coliseum. Professor Maddy announced last Thursday. Each of the orchestras is in need of a small size bass viol and the money raised from this concert will go toward purchasing these instruments for the schools.

VISITS SEVASTOPOL

Mr. Ratliff visited and told the children of the fourth and fifth grades about the birds. He also told them about his stuffed owls.

One interesting thing that he told us was about Bob, his owl. Whenever Mr. Ratliff would go down to feed Bob potatoes he would fly on his arm and dig his claws into the flesh. Mr. Ratliff finally filed his claws down.

He also brought some relics, such as Indian beads, tomahawks, and a powder horn carved from a bull's horn which a white man carved a hundred years ago.—Ada Van Voorhis, grade 5A, reporter for Sevastopol school.

GRADES TO SEE FILM OF BEAUTIFUL NIAGARA

Boys and girls of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades will see a splendid film of Niagara Falls, next Thursday, March 23, in the High school auditorium, Miss Payne, supervisor of the grade schools, announced Tuesday.

SCHOOL REPORTERS

Ada Van Voorhis

This is Ada Van Voorhis, Junior readers, and if you can not see from her picture that she has all sorts of lively and interesting things to tell you—things that happen at Sevastopol school—you will have to look at the Junior's news stories carefully and see the stories which are signed with her name and find out for yourself how much news she discovers in her school. Ada is 9 years old and is in the 5A grade. Her daddy and mother's names are Mr. and Mrs. Foster Van Voorhis, and they live at 1306 Harris street.

PICTURES IN COLOR SHOWN IN LIBRARY

All the pictures with which we will become acquainted during the Famous Pictures contest will be on exhibit in the Morrison-Reeves library during the weeks of the contest. Mrs. Bernhardt announced Monday. Many of these will be in color and some will be rare prints, difficult to secure. While you are studying these pictures, plan without fail to see these prints, as you will enjoy the pictures more, after seeing these. The pictures will be shown, some in the children's room and many on the second floor in the grown-up's department.

HELP CHINESE BABY

The children of Room 3 have spent a very enthusiastic week working for gold stars. Every perfect lesson deserves one. The pupils in each grade who have the greatest number of stars at the end of the week are entitled to a front seat. Last week Mary Jane Kruse, Marcella Crosby, Marjorie Schneider, Catherine Mitchell, Mary Elizabeth Fihe, Mary Alice Harrington and Anthony Mercurio were leaders.

Enough sacrifice pennies have been given last week in Room No. Three to buy a Chinese baby. That means another soul has been purchased for Heaven. The baby is to be called Little Theresa.—By Gerard Harrington, reporter for St. Mary's.

MEMBERS OF DENNIS SCHOOL ORCHESTRA HAVE BEGUN WORK

Although knowing itself very strong in the number of violins and feeling the lack of cellos and bass viols (which, however, they expect to get soon), the Dennis school orchestra has been organized with high hopes and plenty of enthusiasm under the leadership of Miss Kohler. Regular rehearsals are held every Wednesday and Friday from 12:30 to 1:30 o'clock.

Lloyd Outland has been elected president of the organization; Edith Johnson, secretary; John Evans, treasurer. Tracey Evans and Hervey Cook are librarians.

The following juniors form the orchestra: First violin, Lloyd Outland, Richard Little, George Daub, Roger Lindley, Herman Mitchell, Louise Overman, George Hayward, Martha Evans, Betty Estelle, Tracey Evans, Franklin Walls, Naomi Isenhardt, Bernice Simpson, Mervine Loper, Frances Peacock, Harold Green.

Second Violins: Martha Hobson, Alma Jack, Gracia Dickson, Mary Foster, Ione Srieves, Ruth Reynolds.

Cornets—John Evans and John Smith.

Clarinet—Rolf Wadman.

Piano—Edith Johnson.

BIRDS WE HAVE SEEN

Song Sparrows, Meadow Larks. We try to keep the cats from killing the birds.

The birds are kind.—Joe, Warner school.

Starr Platoon School Has Largest Grade School Orchestra in Richmond

SCHOOL HAS PLANTS

We have five boxes with tomato seeds in the south window of the third grade room at Whitewater school. We help water them every day. They have been planted almost a week and we are looking for the young plants to show any day now. Miss Wuenker will give the plants to us when the weather is warm enough to set them out in the garden.—Heloise Burton, 3A grade, Whitewater.

The Starr school orchestra is the largest grade school orchestra in Richmond, for it has a membership of 22. This orchestra was organized in November, 1920, under the direction of Mr. Maddy with the constant assistance of Miss Bishop, teacher of music in Starr school. This year's work has added to its ability, its enthusiasm, as well as the number of its members. Miss Dorothy McAlpin has been director of the orchestra this year.

This orchestra planned to play during the supper hour for a social held at the Whitewater Friends church Friday evening, March 17. Other places in the city where it has played are the First Methodist church, the Reid Memorial church, and the Hicksite Friends church. It has also played before a meeting of the school's Parent-Teachers' association.

Sunday morning, March 19, it is to play in the United Brethren church.

Several new selections are now being practiced by the orchestra. Miss McAlpin said. Among them are: "Onward Christian Soldier" (march), "Arcadia," "American Liberty" (march), "Waltz Over the Waves," and "Waltz Dearest."

It certainly makes one want to step lively when this orchestra starts playing a march.

WERNLIANS, GUESTS

Children of Wernle Home will be special guests of the Murray theatre management in the Murray theatre on Saturday morning, March 25. They will see Jackie Coogan in the film story, "My Boy."

The Vaile orchestra, with the membership it had last term, will play for this entertainment. The selections it will play are "Trumpeters' March" and "In the Starlight."
