A pretty April wedding was that of Miss Clara Steiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Steiner, Edwardsburg, rd., Roseland, and Otto A. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker, Edwardsburg rd., which took place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the First Methodist church, the Rev. Albert E. Monger officiating.

The ceremony was performed before the altar which was beautifully decorated in red and white. Preceding the ceremony, Prof. McHenry sang "Elysium." As the bride party entered, Fred C. Haas played "The Bridal Chorus," from Lohengrin. The bride entered on the arm of her father, and was met at the altar by the groom. The ceremony was solemnly accompanied on the organ by "The Venetian Love Song," by Nevin. Prof. McHenry sang, "Lift Thine Eyes," at the close of the ceremony, and Mr. Haas played "The Wedding March" by Mendelssohn as the recessional.

The bride was gowned in brown silk taffeta with a picture hat of the same shade. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and valley lilies.

She was attended by her cousin, Mrs. Ellsworth Holt, of Chicago. Mrs. Holt wore a gown of grey crepe meteor, and a black picture hat. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of Columbia roses.

Wilbur Harlan acted as groomsmen, and the ushers were Gall Steiner, Albert P. Hill, Edgar Hoel and Allan Minkler.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Atwood, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. George White and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Case, Mr. and Mrs. William Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steiner, all of Niles; Mrs. Hattie Stahl, of Berrien Springs, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pears and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Curtis, all of Buchanan, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baker of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steiner of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Alfred of Goshen.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker will be at home after May 1.

Marked as one of the three of the most important social events of the year for the students of the university of Notre Dame and although restricted to the upperclassmen, the annual sophomore cotillon given on Saturday evening at the Oliver hotel was a pronounced success. The program of dances was played by the Miller-Anderson orchestra. From 8:30 o'clock until 12. The affair was given in the entire mezzanine floor of the hotel and was attended by 125 couples, with approximately 75 out of town guests. Wicker baskets filled with spring flowers made the rooms most attractive. Leslie Logan, class president, was chairman of the committee in charge of the affair which consisted of: Dance—John M. Montague, August G. Desch, Percy J. Wilcox, Paul Breen and J. Stanley Bradbury; program—Maurice J. Dacy, Linus C. Grotzbach, Edward J. Lennon, Raymond Wegman and Leo P. Enright; music—Edward W. Gould, William H. Brown, John H. Flynn and Joseph P. Henneberry; and hall committee—Paul H. Castner, William Durcan, Cornelius J. Hayes and A. Clara Morgan. Officers of the class are: P. Leslie Logan, president; George P. Barry, vice president; Albert Plicks, Jr., secretary, and Edward G. Degree, treasurer. Patrons and patronesses for the evening were: Prof. and Mrs. K. K. Rockne, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Halas, Prof. and Mrs. William L. Benitz, Prof. and Mrs. John P. Tierman, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Foulis.

The younger girls who attended Camp Eberhart last year held a camp reunion at the Y. W. C. A. Friday night. Supper was served to 72 girls at 6:15 o'clock. Miss Alice Russell acted as toastmistress, and toasts were responded to by Miss Leah Ostrander, Miss Nina Palmer, Miss Elizabeth Lloyd and G. A. Cooper. Miss Helen Lang, chairman of the camp committee, announced that the camp would be held for 10 days this year, from April 22 to 31 inclusive. The second meeting of the open forum will be held at the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday night, April 19 at 8 o'clock. The subject to be presented will be "The City Management Plan" and the speaker will be Dalton Monmaw. The meeting is open to the public, and both men and women are
