

More About Drafting.

The Adjutant-General has issued General Order No. 73, dated August 16, from which we copy the following:

Extract from General Orders issued Aug. 16, 1842, from the War Department:

2. Volunteers to fill up the new regiments now organizing will be received and paid the bounty and advanced pay until the 22d day of this month, and if not completed by that time will be consolidated and superfluous officers mustered out.

3. Volunteers to fill up the old regiments will be received and paid the bounty and the advanced pay until the first day of September.

The draft for Three Hundred Thousand Militia, called for by the President, will be made on Monday, the 4th day of September, between the hours of nine o'clock, A. M., and 5 o'clock, P. M., and continued from day to day between the same hours until completed.

Additional Special Orders Respecting Enrollment of the Militia in the State of Indiana.

In addition to former orders the following are issued for the guidance of Commissioners and Enrolling Officers:

1. The Commissioner is instructed to have the township lists completed in all respects by Tuesday, 26th day of August, inst., at which time the Commissioner and his Deputies will meet at the Court-House in their county and organize themselves into a Board and will proceed to determine all claims and applications for exemption from military duty.

2. Notice of the time and place of the meeting of said Board, setting forth the object thereof, must be given immediately upon the receipt hereof, by handbills to be prepared under the direction of the Commissioner and posted in at least three public places in each township.

3. A surgeon will be appointed in each county, to meet with the Board and carefully and impartially examine all persons who claim exemption on the ground of physical disability. The instruction contained in General Order No. 64, respecting certificates of practicing physicians and requiring the same to be filed with the County Auditor, is superseded.

4. When a person is found by the Board to be justly entitled to exemption, a red line will be drawn through his name so as to leave it still legible on the list, and the cause of exemption will be noted in the column for remarks.

5. To enable the quota which may be due from the county to be correctly ascertained and apportioned among the several townships, it is important that the names of all volunteers furnished by the townships, respectively, and mustered into the army of the United States for any term of service, should be entered upon the "volunteer list." It is equally important that the name of every man who may be liable to draft, residing in the township, be enrolled on the other list. The enrolling officers will be particular to see that this is done.

6. Persons who have served in the army and who are now discharged are not for that reason, exempt from draft.

Should the Board be unable to hear and determine all claims for exemption on the day fixed for their meeting, they will continue in session for a second day, and if absolutely necessary, for a third day. They are enjoined however to complete their investigation at the earliest moment, possible.

8. As soon as the Board shall have noted all exemptions and completed the lists, the Commissioner will, without any delay, report in person and deliver the lists to the Adjutant General, who will determine the quota of drafted men required from each township, and will prepare instructions for the same.

It is expected that the Commissioners and their Deputies will be active and prompt in completing the work entrusted to them. The failure of one county will delay the whole.

By order of O. P. MORTON, Governor.

LAZ. NOBLE, Adj. Gen. of Ind.

Send Back the Old Members.

The Cincinnati Gazette's correspondent, "Agate," referring to the nomination for re-election of Mr. Colfax, very sensibly holds forth as follows. The extract is peculiarly applicable to this Congressional District:

"The people of his District show their wisdom by retaining the services of such a man, instead of yielding to the importunities of interested rotationists, and virtually depriving themselves of a representative in Congress by sending a raw man, whom it would take a couple of years to learn how to be of any use there."

"Why cannot other Districts be equally wise?"

"Now, above all other times, we need the services of our most experienced publicists. It is not the season for experiments in training law-makers. We want the best efforts of men already trained, the highest wisdom of men familiar with the whole secret as well as public history of our legislation since the rebellion began. At other periods we may perhaps be able to indulge again our peculiarly Northern folly, of disbanding our public men as soon as they learn to be useful, that the wishes of new aspirants for Congressional honors may be gratified;—but now we want a few raw bones at the helm as possible."

"If there is any reason therefore why such men should not be properly re-nominated and returned at the approaching elections, I confess myself unable to see it. Let the ambitious lawyers who would like to take a turn at Congress next year wait a little while. When the machine is not traveling over so dangerous a road, we can better afford to let them try their inexperienced hands in learning to run it."

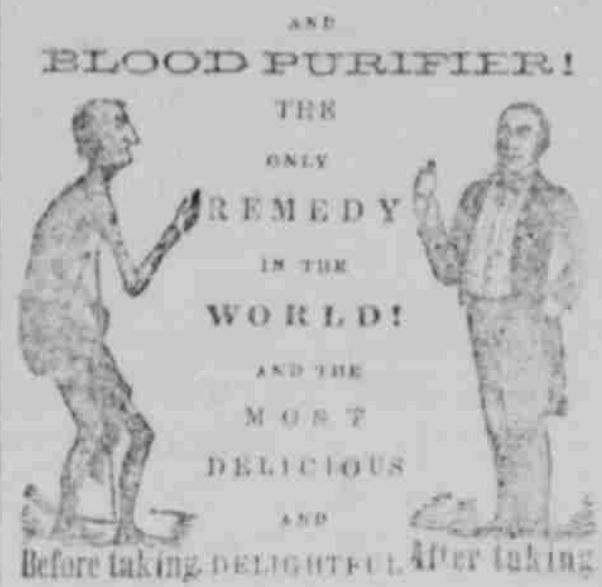

"Agate" talks sensibly and to the point. Every man who does not love office better than his country, or whose soul is not full of envy and malice, will endorse what he has said above. Yet a number of great men in this District oppose the re-election of Mr. Julian. They are writing their names on a page of history that they will be ashamed to see if they ever get to be sensible of the baseness of their conduct.
