HOME TESTIMONY. VALPARAISO, Ind., Dec. 5, 1859.

Dr. C. W. Roback—Dear Sir: I write this for the benefit of the suffering and afflicted. This is to certify that our daughter, Almira Franer, 12 years old, has been afflicted for nine years with Inflammatory Rheumatism, or Neuralgia. She was attended by the most skillful physicians, but instead of being relieved she continued to grow worse till she became as helpless as an infant, her hands and knees all drawn and enlarged so as to cause her to suffer the most excruciating pains, and worn down to a mere skeleton.

At length I was induced to try your Blood Purifier and Pills, and she began to amend, and is now comfortable and going to school. We believe your remedies to be the best ever tried.

Yours with great respect, A. T. HEMPHILL, Mrs. M. HEMPHILL. See advertisement. may 9 w1

THE MONITOR, EDITED AT Concord, Mass., U. S. A.

It is designed to fill a place until now occupied by no American publication. Its columns are freely open to any sinner, fearless thought, on any subject. It allows free discussion on both sides of any topic, leaving the moral to winnow itself from the chaff of words. It offers a brave opinion to-day, but reserves the right to offer a braver one to-morrow, even if it contradicts itself. Its many editorial departments are under the control of one mind, which, after hearing all opinions, decides for itself. It is not doubted that America will support this, its first Weekly Review of Literature, Science, Art, the Drama, Wit, Music, Poetry, Temperance, Politics, Mechanics, Patriotism, Liberty, and Truth.
