

BROOKVILLE AMERICAN

BROOKVILLE, DECEMBER 3, 1855.

"Horticulturalist" will receive attention next week.

Sickness of the Editor will account for a want of editorial matter in this week's paper.

Mr. W. H. Jones, late student of Brookville College, has taken up a school at the Independent School House, near Union, in this township.

By a recent change on the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Railroad, the Hack from Sunmanville will hereafter reach Brookville about 5 o'clock P.M.

We have the facilities for executing, in a neat and expeditious manner, every variety of Job Work.

Our merchants have been quite busy during the last few weeks. People must have their winter clothing, and now is the time to buy at bargains.

That turkey, that big turkey, that great big turkey, which we did not eat on Thanksgiving day, will do as well for Christmas, with a smaller one for New Year's day.

The snow and rain during Saturday and Sunday swelled our rivers, so that for several days they could not be forded.

We see many of our Exchanges are acknowledging receipt of the "Village Blacksmith" from the Cosmopolitan Art Association.

Prof. A. Sinks is engaged in teaching a class in penmanship at Blooming Grove.

All kinds of Country Produce will be received at this office on subscription.

To Fathers and Mothers. You know how important it is for your children that you should keep good health.

The Musical World is a weekly periodical published in New York, by R. Storrs Willis, at $2.00 per year.

The Brookville Brass Band propose giving a concert in this place on Friday evening the 31st inst. (New Year's Eve).

Malcolm Lowes, Esq., is at present engaged in canvassing Franklin County for the sale of a work entitled "Livingston's Travels in South Africa."

News from Virginia. Dr. C. M. Jackson. Dear Sir—I take pleasure in adding one certificate to your list, and recommending Hoofland's German Bitters to all who may be afflicted with Dyspepsia or Piles.

The season of the year is nearly at hand, when persons are in the habit of making up clubs, and subscribing for newspapers.

See advertisement under head of "wanted." The "Scientific Artisan" is an indispensable assistant to every mechanic, and should be subscribed for largely, by the mechanics of this county.

Dr. Roback's Scandinavian Blood Medicines.—At last, in Sweden, the ingredients of two Remedies that disinfect the blood of every corrupt element, have been found.

At which every article will be sold. Give us a call. It will afford us pleasure to exhibit our Goods, though we should not sell you a whit of a penny.

Watches & Jewelry. A fine assortment of articles in the store. GOLDEN SYMPHONY.—The very best article in the market, kept constantly on hand by W. MORROW & CO.

WOOD, WOOD, WOOD.

The cold weather admonishes of our want of something to keep us warm, besides clothing and a house.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.—Issued by the clerk of Franklin County for the month of November 1855:

Eliphaz Barber to Hulda Simmons, King D. Stephens to Catharine Brislin, John Biddinger to Elizabeth Otter.

The stock of Millinery and Fancy Goods at Mrs. Holman's is superb.

Some of our subscribers complain of not receiving their paper regularly.

John P. Williams, Esq., is assiduously engaged in Pork Packing in this place.

Prof. A. Sinks is engaged in teaching a class in penmanship at Blooming Grove.
