

GAY DON JUAN HAD FIVE "SOUL MATES"

The Names Will Be Revealed In Suit to Break Millionaire Snell's Will.

UPHEAVAL IS PROMISED.

SOCIETY IS ASTIR FOR FEAR THAT MANY PROMINENT CLINTON, ILLINOIS WOMEN WILL BE DRAGGED INTO LIMELIGHT.

Clinton, Ill., May 25.—The names of five "soul mates" will be revealed when the love letters written by women to the late Colonel Thomas Snell, the eccentric millionaire, whose son is contesting the $1,500,000 will, are read in court.

This was admitted today by one of the lawyers, who said that three women in addition to the wife of Rev. E. A. Hamilton and Mabel Snell McNamara are involved in the burning messages found in the old man's trunk after his death.

When an adjournment was ordered until Monday it had already become apparent that the intention of the contestants of the will is to force into record letters from dozens of women and girls written in such a vein as to support the claim that Colonel Snell was a paranoiac and incapable of transacting business when the will was made.

Every phase of the fight to break the will of the "iron-willed" millionaire has been watched closely on behalf of many women whose names may become connected with that of the dead Don Juan if all the letters are admitted, and it is no secret that with the introduction of the late Colonel Snell's collection of love letters will come the most startling social upheaval ever known in the state's history.

SO DECEPTIVE.

Many Richmond People Fail to Realize the Seriousness.

Backache is so deceptive. It comes and goes—keeps you guessing.

Learn the cause—then cure it. Nine times out of ten it comes from the kidneys.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Cure every kidney ail from backache to diabetes.

Here's a Richmond case to prove it. Patrick Mitchell, of 412 North Fifth street, Richmond, Ind., says: "My wife thinks Doan's Kidney Pills is a great remedy for backache and other pains that come from the kidneys. She was weak and miserable for a long time with kidney trouble and suffered a great deal of pain in the back and in other parts of the body. She tried many remedies but did not find much benefit until she began using Doan's Kidney pills. They helped her from the very beginning of their use and she was soon cured. We both think a great deal of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

LILLEY CASE CLOSED

House of Representatives Will Take No Further Action.

MAY BE NO EXPULSION.

Washington, May 25.—No action looking toward the expulsion of Representative George L. Lilley of Connecticut from the house is contemplated. This statement has been authoritatively made. The following authorized statement is conclusive: "The house of representatives has nothing more to do with Mr. Lilley, so far as the investigation episode is concerned. The special committee investigated fully Mr. Lilley's charges and reported its findings to the house. The house, by a substantial majority, adopted that report. No further action in the matter is contemplated. The case is closed."

Pretty Young Thing With Joe Weber Refuses to Don Directoire.

SHE GETS HER RELEASE.

Chicago, Ill., May 25.—All the Rialto is seething and abounding and giving off a prodigious steam of words because of the following note received by Miss Ida Doerge, the triggest young thing in Joe Weber's company: "My Dear Miss Doerge: Your engagement with me will terminate in two weeks, as per contract. Very truly, Joe Weber."

Miss Doerge was asked to wear the Directoire gown in State street yesterday, but flatly objected, saying it was indecent. She wears tights in the play but says that is business. So Miss Carlisle wore the Directoire gown and nearly precipitated a riot and Miss Doerge is out of a position.

SCIENCE AFTER ALL

Weather Man Tells Why Corns Act as Good Barometers.

REASONS ARE GIVEN FOR IT

Chicago, Ill., May 25.—After all there is scientific basis for the old rhyme: "Coming storms on shooting corns presage. Your aches will throb, your hollow tooth will rage."

It's the low barometric pressure that sets the aches "to throb" and "the hollow tooth to rage." Professor Cox, the weather man, had to admit that United States Judge Bethen's rheumatic twinges were, after all, good signs of rain, and so he explained scientifically what caused it, thus: "When there is a lower barometric pressure, the weighing down of the air is diminished, and accordingly the air in the bloodvessels and skin expands, causing pain. A lower barometer always precedes rain, and this explains why rheumatism always is more painful just before a storm. When the barometer rises, the outside air becomes heavier, the pressure of the air within the body is lessened and the pain ceases." According to Professor Cox, this is the basic principle of all the old-time weather saws.

"Old sinners who have all 'Points of Compass' in their joints Can by their pains and aches find 'All turns and changes of the wind.'"

Humidity has nothing whatever to do with all these "signs." Joints are just as likely to ache during a "dry low" as a "wet low" barometer; so says the weather man.

"Brimble seems to have a good deal more money than brains." "Yes. All he inherited from his father was the money."

LOCKS ARE FOUND

Placed in a Tree Fifty Years Ago by a Shelby County Man.

A DISEASE PREVENTATIVE.

Shelbyville, Ind., May 25.—Hugh L. Dobbins of Shelby county has in his possession locks of hair which were clipped from his head and that of his sister, Miss Frances A. Dobbins, now of Indianapolis, fifty years ago. The Dobbins family resided in Shelby County on a farm. When they were quite young a disease was raging in this part of the country which resembled the present-day grip. It was called phthisis. The story went the rounds that if locks of the hair were removed and placed in a tree and plugged up, the persons from whose heads they were clipped would never have the disease. Hugh Dobbins, Sr., clipped the hair of his son and daughter.

A few days ago the tree in which the locks were plugged up was cut down by Shelby Stafford, who resides on the farm. Mr. Dobbins was given permission to find the plug and he finally located it six inches from the bark and several feet from the ground. Both locks of hair were still there, well preserved. They were of a red tinge, made so by the tree, which was walnut.

GIVES UP HIS CLAIMS

Grandson of Great Liberator Of Mexico Enters Catholic Order.

WILL WRITE OF THEOLOGY.

Washington, D. C., May 25.—Prince D. Augustine Iurbide, grandson of the great liberator of Mexico, heir to a throne, highly educated and a member of the "Jeunesse Dorée" of European capitals, has forsaken the ways of the fashionable world and joined the Third Order of St. Francis.

In Washington society Prince Iurbide was prominent for many years. Suffering from a severe illness he has of late spent many months in the hospital. He now asserts that he has renounced all political ambitions and that he will never make any attempt to regain his claims in Mexico. He expects to devote his life mainly to writings of a theological character.

The Third Order of St. Francis controls the monastery in Brookland, known as the Mount of the Holy Sepulchre. While the Prince will wear no habit his life will be one of quiet devotion and far from all worldly amusements. This order was founded in the thirteenth century by St. Francis of Assisi and numbers many thousands in its ranks, some of the members belonging to the mendicant orders.

Governor Hanly Not in Race For Presidential Nomination.

HE IS A BLACK SHEEP.

Wilmington, Del., May 25.—Governor J. Frank Hanly, of Indiana, here, belittled the Presidential boom started in his behalf at the Methodist General Conference in Baltimore, at which he is a lay delegate. What the Governor said applies to the present year and also to 1912. His friends say he is not in accord with the politicians because of his independence.

The Menace of the Red Flag

Do you know to what an extent the crime of anarchy has imbedded itself in the vitals of the country—your country? The continued growth of this most vicious and abnormal creed will mean widespread red revolution. This cancer must be torn, root and tendril, from the heart of the nation, and it's up to the thinking American citizen to perform the operation. "The Menace of the Red Flag" by Broughton Brandenburg is the clearest, most direct article that has ever been written on this subject. Read it in the

BROADWAY MAGAZINE For JUNE

Every article and every story contained in BROADWAY for June is of the type that appeals to the best that's in you—that makes you think big like a life-sized American citizen. In BROADWAY you meet, face to face, the men who are building history. For example, in the June number you find the men and women who are slowly but surely crowding the saloon off the map. It's an uphill fight but the progress of this great temperance movement in spite of the obstacles encountered, will surprise you. Carrington Phelps tells the story in his article, "The Greatest Problem Since Slavery."

"The Tangled Web," a short serial story by Ethel Watts Mumford Grant is a little masterpiece of fiction that will hold your attention till you've finished it.
