

Real Genuine
Bargain Givings
Here all the time.

F. C. Freidgen & Co.

At the New Main Street Clothing Store
918 Main Street. Next to Price's.

Clothing at almost your own prices
while we introduce ourselves to you.

Specials For This Week

In order to introduce ourselves to the many people here in Richmond, and to the many old customers of the Big Store, we are going to give special inducements and special bargains all this week.

You Cannot Call This A Sale

But just a few bargains to make you remember us. The new store aims to make friends. It is going to do things different; giving you Bargains when they say Bargains, and making it worth while to

Purchase All Belongings at This Store

Clothing Specials 550 Men's up-to-date Suits, something nice in the lot and at real, genuine bargains, too, values ranging from $5 to $22.50. Special all week from $14.90 to $1.98	Youths' and Boys' 450 Boys' and Youths' Suits, regular values ranging from $2.50 to $16.50. These Suits are of this season's styles, no old stock here. Special all this week for $10.50 to 98c	Special Furnishings Hats Up-to-date Soft and Stiff Hats, all new styles and brims, at greatly reduced price while they last. 39c	Railroad Overalls We have in stock, purchased direct from the factory, 12 dozen pairs of McDougal & Co's "Red Seal" Overalls for Railroad wear, 90c grade for only 79c
---	--	---	--

F. C. FREIDGEN & COMPANY

918 MAIN STREET. NEXT TO PRICE'S

MITCHELL WOULD TAKE NOMINATION

Thinks It Would Do Illinois Good to Have a Laboring Man for Governor.

TALKS OF THE PROSPECTS.

SAYS AN IMMENSE VOTE WOULD BE POLLED FOR ANY LABORING MAN—DECISION IN REFERENCE TO RACE DEFERRED.

Chicago, June 13.—John Mitchell, avowed candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Illinois, has arrived in Chicago to attend the sessions of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor.

Mr. Mitchell appeared to be in good health. He said that he felt better than for a long time. In discussing his candidacy he said he will defer making a definite announcement until after the state labor political conference to be held at Springfield on Sunday, June 21.

As to his chances of success in the event he is nominated the former miners' leader said he believed them to be good, inasmuch as he expects the solid support of 400,000 trade unionists in the state, including 60,000 miners.

"I prefer not to speak much about my candidacy at the present time," said Mr. Mitchell. "I consider the matter to be indefinite, as yet. I shall make a definite announcement following the labor conference on June 21. It depends a great deal upon what is done politically by the labor men taking part in that meeting.

"The election of a labor man as governor," he said, "would have had a tremendous effect on the development of the labor movement of the entire country and give it an impetus it never before possessed. The effect on labor legislation also would be considerable.

"Equally important, however, is the election of labor men to congress and to the state legislature. It is on favorable legislation that labor depends more than office. In this connection I would warn trade unionists against signing petitions that will deprive them of their vote at their party primaries."

SOPHRONIA:
Your grocer has Gold Medal Flour.

A BIG FRUIT CROP

Department of Agriculture Issues an Encouraging Statement.

LARGE INCREASES NOTED.

Washington, June 13.—The crop reporting experts of the department of agriculture have issued a statement that the farmer will put on the market this summer and fall more fruit of all kinds than the country has known for a long time, while apples, peaches, blackberries, raspberries, canteloupes, watermelons and such lowly other fruits as the cabbage and the smelly onion this year show an overflowing abundance. Last year only 37.4 of the peach crop survived. This year 73 per cent will reach the market. There will be a 15 per cent increase in the apple yield. There is a 94 per cent crop of blackberries and 91 per cent of raspberries. There is an increase of 11 per cent in the watermelon crop. Ninety-two per cent of good onions will bluish for the salad and bring tears with their very goodness, where only 87 per cent bloomed modestly last year.

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY FOR CORWIN F. LARSH

Former Local Resident Was Ill But Two Hours.

Corwin F. Larsh, formerly a resident of this city, died very unexpectedly at his home at Dublin yesterday afternoon. Mr. Larsh was a brother of Lafayette Larsh, of this city. He was 57 years old and is survived by the widow and three daughters. During his residence in this city, Mr. Larsh was a member of the firm of Larsh Brothers, which operated the flour mill south of the city. From here he removed to a farm north of Centerville and later removed to Dublin. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias. The funeral arrangements have not been made. The deceased was taken ill about 11 o'clock yesterday morning and had to retire at once. About two hours later he died from hemorrhages of the brain. Physicians were in attendance and the coroner was not called.

INDIANA ORGANIZES FOR FAIRBANKS

Hoosiers in Chicago to Push Candidacy of the Vice President.

A CONFERENCE IS HELD.

ALL DELEGATES WILL BE ORGANIZED INTO WORKING SQUADS TO PRESENT MERITS OF INDIANA CANDIDATE.

Chicago, June 13.—There was a roundup of Indianians at Fairbanks' headquarters today to perfect plans for the next few days to push the campaign of Charles W. Fairbanks for the nomination for president. The meeting was large and enthusiastic. A committee of five, consisting of State Chairman James P. Goodrich, George T. Dinwiddie, Elias Jacoby, F. A. Joss and H. K. Sills, was appointed to take charge of the Indiana delegates as they come in and organize them into committees whose business it will be to visit delegates from other states and present the merits of Indiana's candidate. A meeting of the general committee will be held every afternoon at 5 o'clock and the various sub-committees will make their reports at that time. The work will be prosecuted energetically and systematically, over-looking no opportunity to get a vote, on the theory that though William H. Taft seems to have the nomination reasonably well sewed up there is always a chance, and the old adage in regard to "many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip" still holds good.

Rank and File Organized.
The rank and file of Indiana republicans attending the national convention also got busy and organized themselves into about fifteen different working organizations. To each of these different organizations was assigned work in four or five states, preliminary work among the delegates of these states, so that the entire crowd of Indiana workers will get among the delegations of each state in the Union.
The meeting was called by the committee of five appointed yesterday to organize the Indiana republicans and give them definite work to do. Word was passed down the line that Indiana men were to meet in Room 1226 of the Auditorium Annex and the Indiana men crowded in there to get into the working organizations. As soon as the personnel of each organization to that decided on, and the states assigned to that organization, the members started out to work.

HETTY GREEN NO LONGER IN HOTEL

Leaves Her Expensive Suite in Hotel Plaza, New York, Unexpectedly.

IS PERFECTLY SATISFIED.

THE HOTEL HAD NOT TREATED HER SHABBILY, BUT SHE SAYS SHE CANNOT TELL HER REASON FOR GOING.

New York, June 13.—Mrs. Hetty Green and her daughter, Sylvia, have left the Hotel Plaza, and Suite No. 244—three rooms and bath, rate $30 per day—is vacant.
Mrs. Green and her daughter departed from the hotel with scant notice, their flitting causing quite as much surprise as did their arrival only a few weeks ago, when they exchanged a $19 a month Hoboken flat for the luxury of the Fifth avenue hostelry.

Everything Lovely; Just Leaving.

When Mrs. Green sent down to the office for her account she announced that she would give up her suite at once. Frederick Sherry, chief of all things at the Plaza, was amazed and somewhat perturbed. He did not want anybody to go away from a sense of dissatisfaction, so he sought Mrs. Green to ask the reason for her going.

There was no dissatisfaction. Everything had been most satisfactory, and the departing guest said she could not tell why she was leaving. No more could Mr. Sherry learn.

Going for Trip to Europe.

Three dress suit cases and two kit bags were ready in Mrs. Green's suite to be carried down to a cab. This was all the luggage the richest woman in the world and her daughter had. All their belongings at the hotel were in the five pieces. They were stowed in the cab which the two women entered and departed in, carefully withholding their future address.
One report at the hotel was that Mrs. Green and her daughter had left because they were going to Europe next week with friends and were to visit for a few days before sailing.

EVVELYN OR MONEY, THAW ULTIMATUM

Harry, If Ever Released, Has A Hard Situation to Solve.

DON'T WANT TO SEE HER.

EVVELYN WILL BE ALLOWED TO VISIT HER HUSBAND IN PRISON BUT HIS RELATIVES REFUSE TO RECOGNIZE HER.

New York, June 13.—While Dan O'Reilly, attorney for Evelyn Thaw, states, that she and Harry K. Thaw are fully reconciled and that harmonious relations will now continue between them, Col. Franklin Bartlett, Mrs. William Thaw's lawyer, refuses to discuss that feature of the case, declaring that all he is interested in at present are the efforts to secure the transfer of Thaw from the Matteawan asylum to the Middletown institution where Thaw can obtain homeopathic treatment.

One of the attorneys in the case, however, who refuses to be quoted, informed a reporter today that Mrs. William Thaw was absolutely opposed to any final reconciliation between Evelyn and Harry, and while no effort would be made to keep them apart so long as Harry is under restraint, nevertheless, if he ever regains his liberty he will have to choose between his family and Evelyn. As his mother is in absolute control of his money, it will be a choice between cash and Evelyn.

Evelyn Sees Mistake.

"Evelyn now sees the mistake she made in taking action for the annulment of her marriage to Thaw, but Mrs. William M. Thaw will under no circumstances agree to a resumption of the one-time friendly relations between Evelyn and the Thaw family," said the attorney.
"While Evelyn will probably be allowed to visit Harry while he is in the asylum, it will be arranged that she will never be there when any members of his family are likely to call. They do not want to ever see her again."
If a motion is made to have Thaw transferred to the Middletown asylum on the ground that he will receive more benefit from the homeopathic treatment, he will receive there. District Attorney Jerome will oppose it and will force Thaw's lawyers to bring

MARRIAGE CONTRACT IS NOW DRAWN UP

Mme. Anna Gould and Prince De Sagan Will Be Wedded Soon.

CEREMONY IN ENGLAND.

MME. GOULD DESIRES TO ESCAPE NOTORIETY IN FRANCE AND DESIRES SOME QUIET PLACE.

Paris, June 13.—It has just been learned that a marriage contract between Mme. Anna Gould and Prince Helle de Sagan was issued yesterday.

The contract establishes the separation of the property of the parties, neither to have control of the other's property.

While the contract is a mere formality under the French law, it is the custom for the wedding to follow within two weeks of the contract, which would make the marriage come before the end of the month.

May be Married in England.
On the highest authority it is learned that the wedding will take place in France. Mme. Gould wishes the wedding to be solemnized outside of France to escape undue notoriety. In France the date of the wedding must be posted in advance, and to escape this the parties will probably go to England.

Although the Prince is a Catholic, it is said the marriage will take place in a Protestant church, as the Pope has not acknowledged the divorce of Mme. Gould from Count Boni de Castellane.

Rich Reversion for Prince.
While the property of each is kept separate under the contract, the Prince will have a rich reversion in the estate of his wife provided he outlives her. The registration dues arising from the contract amount to between $3,000 and $4,000.

GOES TO RUSHVILLE.

The Uniform rank K. of P. will attend regimental memorial services at Rushville today. About forty from here will be in attendance.

POWERS BREATHES GOD'S PURE AIR

Has Been Released From Custody and Will Go to His Mother.

FEAR FOR HOWARD'S LIFE.

SAID AN ATTEMPT WILL BE MADE TO ASSASSINATE HIM AND RELATIVES GUARD HIM WITH THEIR RIFLES.

Frankfort, Ky., June 13.—Caleb Powers, the most noted political prisoner in the history of Kentucky, who, together with James Howard, was serving a life sentence for the complicity in the assassination of Governor-elect Wm. A. Goebel, and who was given an unconditional pardon Saturday by Governor Willson, was released immediately.

Powers will go back to his old home in Knox county where his mother has fitted up the old place for his coming. The home was mortgaged early during Powers' fight for freedom, by his mother, who did all she could to help her son.

Howard will go to Louisville, join his family and become an evangelist in prison work.

Governor Willson affixed his signature to the pardons only after an exhaustive study of the case and a review of the testimony. Both men were overcome with emotion and could scarcely talk. Powers said: "I am glad to have my freedom, but would rather have had an acquittal by the courts. I am not guilty and I hoped that I would be vindicated."

It is said that Powers will be re-arrested as soon as he is released on charges of subornation of perjury, but this is not expected.
The three male relatives of Howard went through Lexington on their way to Frankfort. They were heavily armed and will accompany Howard to the mountains in safety as it is feared an attempt will be made to assassinate him.

"You allege cruel and inhuman treatment?" inquiringly said the attorney. "Just tell me, please."
"Yes, sir!" snapped the feminine and sharp featured petitioner for a divorce. "Why, actually whenever I try to start an argument with him he grins and agrees with me!"—Puck.