SCHOOL NO. 2
CAST WILL GIVE GREAT PAGEANT

Ten Periods in American History Will Be Shown

by Pupils.

Page was being used to present an essay in which the entire student body of Bennington Grammar School, in Bennington, Vt., was announced today by Mrs. Marion M. Anderson, principal of the high school, that the pageant will be given on Thursday, June 14, in the high school auditorium.

It is to be given in the form of a "miniature book," with each page representing one period in American history from the time of the Mayflower to the Civil War. The pageant will be presented in a series of tableaux, each representing a different period in American history.

The pages will be divided into six sections, each containing a series of tableaux, with the following themes:

1. The Mayflower
2. The Revolutionary War
3. The Civil War
4. The World Wars
5. The Industrial Revolution
6. The Modern Age

Each page will be decorated with appropriate artwork and costumes, and will be performed by a group of students representing the different periods in American history.

The pageant is expected to run approximately two hours, and will be followed by a reception in the school cafeteria, where refreshments will be served.
