OUR LIMITATIONS.

We trust and fear, we question and believe
From life's dark threads a trembling faith to weave,
Frail as the web that misty night has spun,
Those dew gemmed awnings glitter in the sun.

While the calm centuries spell their lessons out,
Each truth we conquer spreads the realm of doubt,
When Sinai's summit was Jehovah's throne,
The chosen prophet knew his voice alone
While Pilate's hall that awful question heard,
The heavenly captive answered not a word.

Eternal Truth, beyond our hopes and fears
Sweep the vast orbits of thy myriad spheres!
From age to age, while history carves sublime
On her waste rock the flaming of time,
How the wild swaysings of our planet show
That world's unseen surround the world we know.
—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

FAMILY DINNER.

An attractive social event for Thursday was the pretty family dinner given last evening by Mrs. J. B. Craighead at her beautiful home in North Tenth street. The dinner table was artistically appointed with pink Killarney roses and ferns. A dinner in several courses was served. Covers were laid for Mrs. J. M. Gaar, Mrs. Jeannette G. Leeds, Mrs. Emily Land, Mrs. Charles Holton, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Holton, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Craighead, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph G. Leeds, Mrs. Miles Bland and Mrs. Craighead.

RECEPTION FOR GUEST.

The reception given Mrs. Laura Elliott on the evening of her departure for Los Angeles, California, was a very enjoyable affair, the guests being old club members and neighbors of Mrs. Elliott. The guests met at the home of Mrs. James Cook in Glen Place and went in a body to the home of Mrs. Frank Newlin, a daughter, where from three until five o'clock a program of music by Mrs. Newlin, Forrest Elliott, Mrs. Chas. Hanes, Mrs. Simon Hoover and Mrs. Stanley was given. Mrs. Cook recited a poem as a token of love and esteem from her old neighbors and club members. Mrs. Elliott was presented with a brooch, set with emeralds. Mrs. Charles Hanes made the presentation speech. Cake and cream was served. All joined in singing, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." Mrs. Elliott will be accompanied by her sons, Byron and Everett, and daughter, Ruth. Miss Geneva preceded them some time ago. Mr. Elliott and Forrest will join them later on. So may the regrets of her many friends, which she will carry with her to her new home in the land of sunshine and flowers be nurtured into blossoms of remembrance. The guests present were Mrs. Tom Dollif, Mrs. A. H. Pyle, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Charles Miles, Mrs. Ettrude Murley, Mrs. James Cook, Mrs. Sherman Brandenburg, Mrs. Fred Bullerdick, Mrs. Landis, Mrs. Hayden, Mrs. Louis Dollman, Mrs. Craft, Mrs. Charles Harris, Mrs. Simon Hoover, Miss Belle Dawson, Mrs. Ed Chandler, Mrs. Mary Hart-

Richard Young served the bridegroom as best man. The bride wore a handsome robe of white charmeuse trimmed with duchess lace and carried a shower of bride roses. Miss Davis was charming in pink crepe de chine trimmed with shadow lace and carried pink roses. The ceremony was followed by a bridal supper at the home of the bride on Broadway. Covers were laid for fourteen. The floral embellishments were pink carnations combined with ferns. Later in the evening an informal reception was held. ANXIOUS MOTHERS WORRIED ABOUT CHILDREN'S ECZEMA.

Try This Remedy at Our Risk. Mothers are driven almost frantic with pity and anxiety over the suffering of children with eczema or some other torturing rash.

So often are we asked what will give relief that we want every one to know about our remarkable cures among children as well as grown persons. Right at the start this soothing penetrating application allays the frightful itching and burning. And as it sinks into the skin it destroys the germs and exerts its powerful healing influence most thoroughly.

You cannot do better than to try Saxo Salve for eczema, tetter, ringworm or any crusted or scaly skin trouble. We give back your money if Saxo Salve does not satisfy you. Leo H. Fife, Druggist, Richmond, Indiana.
